Novato Boy Dies In Auto Accident

Bay Area Decision Due Tomorrow On Use Of Third Sabin Dose

Doctors of six Bay Area counties will decide tomorrow whether to carry through their group program of three doses of Sabin oral polio vaccine for everyone or to offer the third dose for children only—or not at all.

The first "K. O. Polio Day" will go ahead in Marin next Sunday as scheduled, with clinics at 19 schools, Dr. Eugene P. Shatkin, chairman of the Marin Medical Society's K. O. Polio committee, declared today.

Tomorrow's meeting of committeemen from the six counties, to be held at noon in Burlingame, is expected to result in a policy decision regarding the third dose, Dr. Shatkin said.

More than a dozen cases of type three polio, all among adults who had received the Sabin vaccine, have been reported nationwide. Although the incidence is only one in a million, the U. S. Public Health Service has suggested local medical societies may wish to give type three vaccine only to children.

Next Sunday's vaccination is to be of type one vaccine. Present schedule calls for type two to be given Nov. 4, and type three on Dec. 9.

Yesterday, more than 3,800 prisoners at San Quentin received the type one dose — three drops of the live virus on a cube of sugar.

Soldier Struck, Critically Hurt On Highway 101

A soldier from the San Francisco Presidio suffered critical injuries when hit by a car as he was walking on the Highway 101 freeway just south of San Rafael at 10:20 o'clock last night.

He is Willis F. Jimmicum, 22, of Headquarters Battery of the 40th Artillery Brigade, whose home is in Everett, Wash.

Southbound, Calvin Glenn Looseley of 38 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, glimpsed Jimmicum just as his car struck the walker before starting up the California Park Bridge, Looseley told the California Highway Patrol.

Patrol investigators found one of the victim's shoes on the roadway 51 feet from where Jimmicum lay huddled against the west curb. Marin General Hospital said he had a head injury and multiple internal injuries.

Jimmicum was one of 13 persons injured in eight injury accidents on Marin highways and roads during the weekend, in addition to a fatal accident near Marshall which killed a passenger and seriously injured the driver.

Francis Edgar Burke of Petaluma was both injured and cited when his southbound car hit the rear of a truck driven by James Arthur McPherson of Santa Rosa at 6 a.m. today on Highway 101 a half mile south of Miller Creek Road, Marinwood.

The California Highway Patrol, finding 100 yards of skid marks, cited Burke for speeding. He was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a cut right knee.

A Mill Valley family of four was hospitalized with injuries after a car driven by their father, Martin Bernadelli Del Campo, 39, of 45 Rancho Drive, went out of control at 3:40 a.m. yesterday at the Tiburon Boulevard exit to Highway 101.

The northbound car skidded 111 feet, according to CHP, then went down an embankment.

Del Campo suffered head and back injuries. His wife, Laura, 40, suffered fracture of the left arm; daughter Felicia, 16, back and possible internal injuries, and Margaret, 14, injuries to right hip and knee.

All were given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital. Felicia was transferred to Kaiser Hospital in San Franisco where her condition was reported satisfactory.

A stalled car on the Golden Gate Bridge at 11:10 p.m. Saturday resulted in a string of accidents with injuries to five persons.

The chain of crashes started after Mary Vanderhoven of Fairfield put out flares near her stalled car near the north tower while she went to telephone for a tow truck, reported the CHP.

Rayna Lee Fretwell, 29, of Chicago, suffered head injuries when his car, stopped for

Vaccine Use Apparently Up To Each Area

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some states have decided to discontinue use of Sabin Type III polio vaccine, but state and local officials in a number of places have adopted a wait and see policy.

Sabin oral vaccine Types I and II will continue to be used generally, checks across the country indicate.

Reaction was mixed after the U.S. Public Health Service announced in Washington Saturday that 11 confirmed cases of Type III polio provided sufficient evidence "to indicate that at least some of these cases have been caused by Type III vaccines."

The special advisory committee of the health service said all 11 confirmed cases occurred in adulst. The service recommended limiting the use of Type III vaccine to immunization programs for pre-school and school age children. Continued use of Types I and II for everyone was recommended by the health service.

Secretary Anthony J. Celebrezze—whose Health, Education and Welfare Department embraces the Public Health Service—said Sunday on the NBC television program "Meet the Press" that the odds are one million to one against an adult who has taken Type III Sabin oral vaccine developing the disease.

Celebrezze said that with these odds, he would be willing to take the vaccine himself.

Final decision on whether Type III should be given to adults in mass immunization programs would be made by local authorities even if there was no question about safety, he said.

Sports Car Spins Off Road

His death was the 18th this year in Marin County traffic. Last year to this date, there had been 11 traffic deaths in the county.

The driver, Larry Richardson Hale, 18, of the same address, suffered head injuries, a broken clavicle and internal injuries, but was reported in satisfactory condition in Petaluma General Hospital today.

The two, with Dennis McCormick, 19, of 924 George Street, and Dick Kilmurray, 19, of 818 Reichert Avenue, both Novato, were en route to the beach on the Marshall-Tealuma Road at 11 a.m. Hale and McCormick were driving identical Austin-Healey Sprites. Hale had purchased his only a week ago.

NEAR MARSHALL

Seven miles northeast of Marshall, Hale's car spun off the road on a right curve and bounced into the ditch. Hale was thrown out. Nicholson, still in the car, was crushed against a rock outcropping.

McCormick told the California Highway Patrol that Hale had stopped a few miles back and said he was having trouble rounding curves as his car tended to "fishtail." McCormick was watching as both cars went on toward the coast, with Hale driving ahead.

McCormick and Kilmurray rushed to give aid after the lead car crashed. They attempted artificial respiration on young Nicholson, although McCormick said, "I knew Don was dead for he wasn't breathing."

HUNTER SEES IT

Ernie Grundstrom, 40, of Petaluma, was hunting nearby and saw the accident. He said the car had been moving at moderate speed. Patrol investigators reported dirt and loose gravel on the road.

Nicholson was a Novato High School senior. The other three graduated last June.

He was born Aug. 10, 1945, in Richmond, where his father Elvin Lee Nicholson still lives. His mother Mrs. Lorraine Richardson, lives at 55 Gustafson Court, Novato.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Nancy Robson of Corte Madera, a brother, James, who is in the Navy, and his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Nicholson of San Anselmo.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday at the Redwood Chapel in Novato. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

NOVICE TEENER PILOT SOLOS IN EARLY MORN

REDDING (AP)—A 15-year-old boy with just 15 hours flying instruction filched a private plane at Grants Pass, Ore., and flew to Redding today, authorities said.

Steven Doty said he took the single-engine craft from the Snider Flying Service in his home town about 1 a.m. He touched down at Redding—about 150 air miles away—about 6:30 a.m.

Steven, who said he had no problems flying in the darkness on his first solo flight, was held by Redding police for Oregon authorities.

Asked why he did it, he replied: "Beats me!"

Volunteer Dies On Way To Fire

A Marinwood volunteer fireman dropped dead, apparently of a heart attack, at 2 p.m. Saturday while going to a fire in which two other firemen were injured.

Thomas James Sutton Jr., 50, of 600 Miller Creek Road received the fire call at 1:53 p.m. and dressed in his fire fighting outfit. On the way to his car, he collapsed.

Neighbors attempted to give him artificial respiration. The victim's wife, Alice, hailed Dr. Gwynn Thomson of 2405 Las Gallinas Road, Marinwood, who was enroute to the fire. Dr. Thomson pronounced Sutton dead.

Sutton, who was a San Francisco Municipal bus driver, had been a volunteer fireman for two years. He was a Coast Guard veteran of World War II.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at San Bruno Funeral Home.

The fire was the second one blamed on children playing with matches in the same area of Marinwood Saturday.

The first fire was at 10:58 a.m. in a vacant field west of the Pony League playing field in the 2200 block of Las Gallinas Road. It burned one-half acre of grass. Marinwood Fire Department had two trucks and 11 men on the fire for an hour and 12 minutes. They were assisted by aproximately 25 men and boys from the community.

The second fire was reported nearby at 1:53 p.m.

It took two trucks from Marinwood Fire Department with 16 men and two trucks from Marin County Fire Department with eight men two and one-half hours to hold the fire to five acres. They were assisted by approximately 50 men and boys from the community.

Bert Bahlke of 2137 Danberry Lane and Dean Swanson, of 595 Quietwood Drive, both were given emergency first aid treatment by Dr. Thomson for smoke inhalation and heat ex-

Kentfield Apartment Plan Causes Argument

A heated argument whether single family homes or apartments should be built along a "major highway" such as Sir Francis Drake Boulevard erupted at the Marin County Planning Commission meeting today.

More than 30 residents living off the boulevard near Oak Avenue and Terrace Court in Kentfield appeared to protest rezoning of property on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard from single family to apartment use.

"Sir Francis Drake now has all the characteristics of a major highway," said San Rafael attorney Julius Salinger, speaking for owners requesting the change. "It's impossible to maintain the area as a quiet, lovely residential district. This property will inevitably develop, and the people who own it are entitled to benefit."

Staff member Sidney Shaw read some ten letters from nearby residents protesting rezoning because they had bought property above the boulevard thinking it was a tranquil suburban area. Wrote one resident, "We want our children to grow up in an atmosphere of Ross Valley homes instead of Greenbrae apartments." One piece of property for which zoning was requested owned by Donald Day extends back from the boulevard well onto the hill behind. Day lives on a single family lot

Clem Miller Has Valid License Again

Rep. Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera) has a valid California driver's license again.

His license was suspended Sept. 1 at the request of New York state resulting from an accident last February. It was reinstated three days later on Sept. 4, the California Department of Motor Vehicles reported today.

The suspension was allegedly because of a report filed by New York, indicating inadequate financial responsibility according to New York law.

Miller said his insurance was more than adequate to meet New York's requirements and attributed the report to "bureaucracy at its worst." His license now officially expires Oct. 28, 1965, when Miller will be 48 years old.

Thief Takes New Car, Wrecks It

James Richard Baber of 1504 Vallejo Street, Novato, had owned his new 1962 station wagon for three weeks, but already he needs another one.

Somebody stole Baber's car last night outside his home. It was found at about 1:50 p.m., two miles west of the city limits on Novato Boulevard. The thief had put 31 miles on the car before losing control and rolling it off the road on his way back toward Novato.

Police said the car was totally wrecked, but there was no sign of any injuries to the illicit driver.

Thief Cleans Up In San Anselmo

A burglar early today took a freshly cleaned suit and necktie, plus $20 in quarters, from the One-Hour Cleaners, 32 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo, police reported.

Officer Andy Grimes, who assisted in the investigation, said the burglar broke in through a boarded-up window after first trying unsuccessfully to pry open the back door.

The burglary was discovered at 5:35 a.m. by Officer Richard Timmis. The building was intact at 3:45 a.m.

Safecracker Drills, But To No Avail

A bungling safecracker punched 19 holes in a heavy safe at Lafargue French Laundry and Dry Cleaners in San Rafael last night but failed to get inside the safe.

Jack Ernest O'Shaughnessy, manager of the laundry, found the breakin this morning and called police about 7 a.m.

Sgt. Carl Selby and Officer Gerald Souza said the burglar had broken the handle off the safe door and hammered at the dial in addition to punching 19 holes in the door. The only items missing are small change and a dollar bill and a roll of four-cent stamps from a file cabinet.

Investigators said the burglar must have entered through one of the unlocked doors or windows.

Judge Refuses Death Speedup

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Superior Court judge refused today to speed up the death of Melvin T. Darling as the condemned murderer asked.

The 28-year-old killer is scheduled to die Oct. 1 in San Quentin's gas chamber. He asked that the date be advanced to next Monday. Superior Judge Norman Elkington turned him down.

Darling said he killed Alex Y. Malcomson III, San Francisco interior decorator here Oct. 22 to satisfy a suicidal and "morbid curiosity about going to the gas chamber."

Marin Beaches, Parks Crowded During Heat

Unusually high attendance was reported at state parks as temperatures soared to 100 degrees in San Anselmo and Woodacre. Novato reported a high reading of 94 degrees, and it was 91 in San Rafael.

Fair but cooler weather was forecast by the weather bureau today and tomorrow, with a high of 80 degrees expected in San Rafael today. Temperatures above normal for the season were predicted for the rest of the week, however.

Despite fog along the coast, large crowds were reported at Tomales Bay and Stinson Beach state parks.

More than 7,000 persons were at Stinson Beach, either escaping the heat or watching the finish of the Dipsea Race, park officials said. Peak summer attendance at the park is near 10,000.

It was a clear, warm day on Tomales Bay, and the 1,500 people estimated by park rangers there was twice the number at this time last year and approached the summer weekend average of 1,900.

About 1,700 people preferred Samuel Taylor State Park to the coastal recreation areas, and Muir Woods National Monument reported an attendance yesterday of 3,539. Nearly 4,000 people spent the day in Mount Tamalpais State Park.

Didn't Like School, So Set It Afire

FORT BRAGG (AP) — Two teen-age boys who didn't like school have admitted setting an $850,000 fire which destroyed Fort Bragg's only junior high school Sept. 7, police said.

The youths, 13 and 15, were arrested Friday and gave only animosity as their motive.

Castro Shadows U. S. Base

Guantanamo Ringed By Cuba Troops

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

GUANTANAMO NAVAL BASE, Cuba (AP)—Fidel Castro has deployed about 5,000 to 6,000 troops near this U.S. base in eastern Cuba, according to intelligence reaching American Navy and Marine commanders.

But U.S. military authorities believe these regulars, bolstered by thousands of militiamen, are there to keep the Cuban people in check rather than to mount an attack on this vital American fleet base.

Guantanamo's command doubts the likelihood of any serious Cuban threat to the 45-square-mile base. But the entire military force of about 3,000 men has been trained to fight if trouble comes.

So far little of the new military gear the Russians have supplied to Castro's regime has showed up near this U.S. enclave. Rear Adm. Edward J. O'Donnell, base commander, said his patrols have not sighted any missile-armed torpedo boats which President John F. Kennedy said have been sent to Cuba.

O'Donnell reported Soviet-made trucks are operating outside Guantanamo's fence, but they have been in the area for some time.

Persons suspected of being Communistic bloc nationals, including some Asians, have been spotted near the base.

Castro has perhaps 100 Soviet-made MIG fighters, but there have been no intrusions of Guantanamo's air space since the spring of 1961.

Most of Castro's forces in this area are stationed some miles from Guantanamo's 26-mile perimeter, but the Cubans maintain a line of one and two-man outposts within 100 yards of the base fence.

In their green Russian-made helmets and green field uniforms they blend with the low scrub foliage. Cuban infantrymen also walk patrols along their side of the fence in clear view of the Marine watch towers.

A Marine officer commanding part of the U.S. defenses said the Cuban soldiers seem to be there to observe U.S. guards and patrols and to stop any Cubans from trying to escape over the fence into the base.

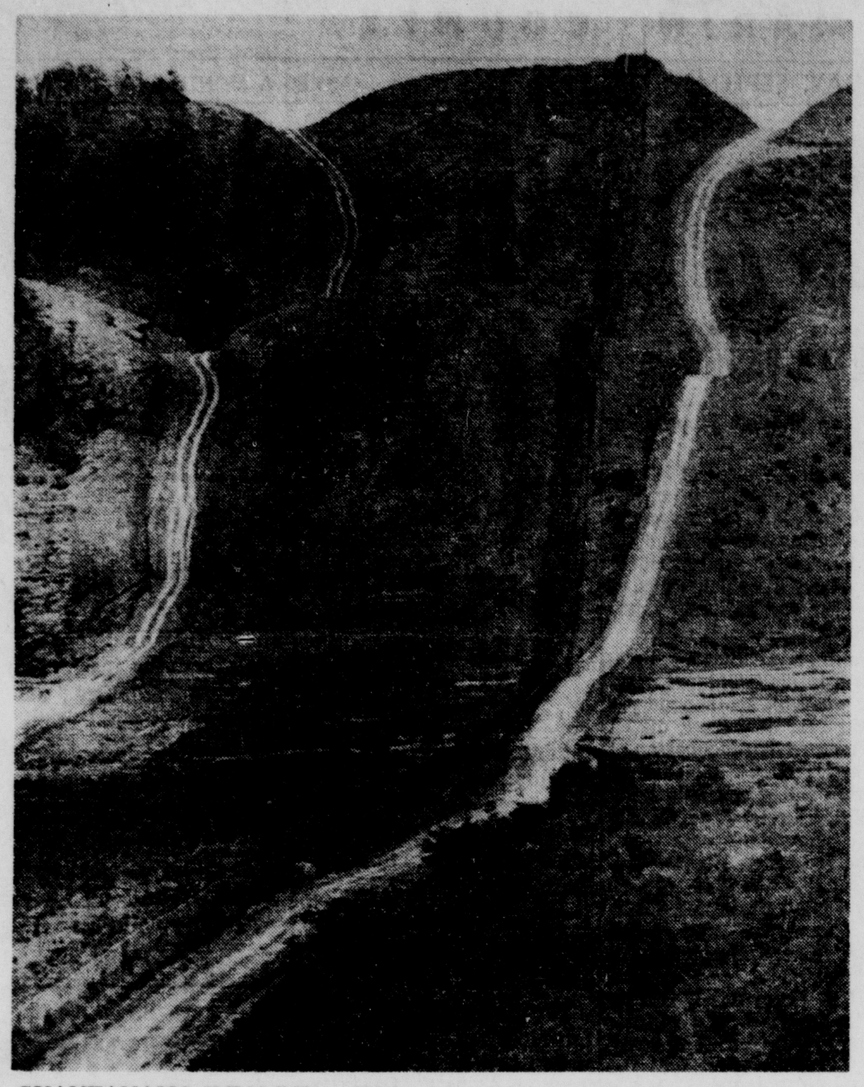
The Cuban troops, seen on patrol or behind low flimsy looking brush barricades, carry rifles and light automatic weapons mostly of Soviet or Czech make.

U.S. officers said the Cubans may have artillery emplaced deeper in the scrub-covered hill country but the area appears deserted when viewed from helicopters which range the U.S. side of the fence.

Observers can make out a network of roads—mostly hard-packed dirt—which have been built in the past year and which reach toward communities where the Cubans have troop depots.

U.S. officers generally rate the Cuban soldiers facing Guantanamo as of good quality and well disciplined.



GUANTANAMO FENCE — This fence, flanked by crooked roads on both sides, separates the U.S. Naval base at Guantanamo from the territory of Fidel Castro. The 26-mile steel fence rises seven feet and is topped with barbed wire. The hills are dotted with sandbagged entrenchments and gun positions. (AP Wirephoto)

Dominican Rioting

SANTO DOMINGO, D.R. (UPI)—Violence which left a number of persons wounded here and in the northern coast city of Puerto Piata yesterday marred the proclamation of a new constitution and scheduling of presidential elections Dec. 20.

Exact casualty figures were not immediately available, but four youths were among those wounded here in a clash between rival political groups. In Puero Plata, several persons were reported injured when troops moved in to quell disorders there.

The disorders here occurred at a political rally.

Brazil Premier

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI)—President Joao Goulart was to name leftist professor Hermes Lima as premier today, a presidential palace spokesman announced in Brasilia.

The spokesman said Goulart signed and sent Lima's nomination to the chamber of deputies last night. But this morning chamber president Ranieri Mazzilli replied that the legislative body was unable to confirm Lima for the job.

The palace spokesman said that, therefore, Goulart will appoint Lima under a law which permits the president to appoint members of the cabinet during the chamber's recess.

Hammarskjold Plaque Dedicated

UNITED NATIONS (UPI)—The United Nations today dedicated a bronze plaque to the memody of the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold and 15 other U.N. staff members who were killed in an air crash in Africa a year ago.

Hammarskjold

The inscription reads:

"In memory of Dag Hammarskjold, secretary-general of the United Nations, 1953 to 1961, and those who with him lost their lives at Ndola in September, 1961, in quest of peace in The Congo."

Speakers at the unvailing ceremony in the U.N. lobby outside the mediation room were Acting Secretary-General Thant, General Assembly President Mongi Slim and Mrs. Alva Myrdal of Sweden, chairman of the Dag Hammarskjold Foundation.

Friends and relatives of those who died in the crash were special guests at the ceremony.

The Hammarskjold plaque is the third to be placed outside the U.N. mediation room. The others are in memory of those who died in the U.N. action in Korea and of Count Folke Bernadotte of Sweden who was assassinated in Palestine on Sept. 17, 1948.

Excavation Deaths

The exact number of casualties could not be immediately determined but a police spokesman estimated 20 persons had been killed.

About 50 employees were reported to have been working in the building which housed services of the Belgian Economic Affairs Ministry.

The entrance to Meramec Caverns in Missouri is a natural arch, 50 feet wide and 20 feet high.

Judy Better

The 39-year-old singer-actress was taken to a hospital in Carson City Friday afternoon after she was found lying unconscious at a friend's Lake Tahoe home, where she had been vacationing for four weeks.

Dr. Richard Grundy said Miss Garland was suffering from acute pyelonephritis in the right kidney, which produces a severe pain similar to kidney stones.

Argentina Plot

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—A plot to overthrow the government, blamed on Communists and backers of ex-dictator Juan D. Peron, has been smashed in northeast Argentina, the nation's security ofrces reported Sunday.

Theft of between $300 and $500 in change was reported to San Rafael police Friday at 8:23 p.m. by Paul E. Byer, owner of Marin Vending, 24 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael.

Byer said he placed the money, contained in a bowling ball bag, on the pavement outside his office and then left for home where he discovered the bag was not in his car. On return to the office, Byer said he could not find the bag, containing vending machine receipts.

Congress Eyes Cut To Haiti

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congressional sources reported yesterday that the United States was displeased with the Duvalier regime in Haiti and plans to sharply cut Alliance for Progress funds to the Caribbean nation.

The State Department has made no secret of the fact that it disliked Haitian President Francis Duvalier's 1961 declaration electing himself to another six-year term.

Serious concern also has been expressed recently over reports of alleged terrorist activities against the Haitian people by Duvalier's so-called "militia."

The Agency for International Development acknowledged in response to an inquiry that reductions in U.S. assistance to the Caribbean country were in the offing. A spokesman declined to reveal the full extent of the cuts.

Even so, it was indicated that the United States would carry out a loan commitment to build a new jet airport for Haiti and to continue a few other programs, such as malaria eradication. Funds for these aid projects already have been appropriated by Congress.

But Congress was not expected to provide any new aid money for the island country, which is a member of the Organization of American States.

17th U.N. Assembly Opening Tomorrow On Sour Note

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The member countries arriving for the 17th General Assembly of the United Nations are anything but united.

That moment of silent prayer or meditation opening the assembly session tomorrow is really a signal for three months or more conflict, with no holds barred.

There used to be a comfortable feeling of predictability—the North Atlantic Treaty Organization group stood together, the Communist group stood together, the so-called neutralists swung bodily one way or the other.

Now, for various reasons, the splits are showing up and voting as the measuring stick of support for your side—whichever it was—is a creaky indicator of either popularity or righteousness.

There are cracks in the NATO countries' front, strains in the British Commonwealth, stresses in the Asian bloc, fissures in the Latin American group, divisions among the African countries, quarrels in the Arab League.

Differences of opinion over U.S. nuclear controls in the NATO group furnish one element threatening its solidarity. There is a question whether Belgium has gotten over its pique at Western allies and their stand on the contentious Congo. The Netherlands voiced displeasure about lack of Western support on the takeover of West New Guinea by Indonesia, engineered by the United Nations.

Strains between the United States and its allies grew over the use of allied flag ships to carry supplies to Cuba. Italy and Austria have been at sharp odds for three years over Italy's treatment of German-speaking inhabitants of the South Tyrol, now under Italian administration.

Portugal's colonial policies drew Western criticism that created resentment in Lisbon. Condemnation of race laws has made South Africa almost a lone wolf. The British Commonwealth is split over the European Common Market.

Albania seems to vote with the Communist bloc on every issue but appears still to be excluded from its councils. Yugoslavia's show of increased friendliness with the Kremlin does not appear to have put it solidly back in the Communist camp. Polish delegates occasionally show a flash of mildness that does not measure up to the Soviet Union's harsher strictures.

Latin American countries are split on details of how to deal with Cuba. Political troubles at home that beset Brazil and Argentina, among others, make it difficult for them to steer their political course in the debate maze here.

India's feud with Pakistan over Kashmir, its difficulties with Red China over borders, are among the facts of history that complicate its position.

The Arab League shows a common front against another lone wolf, Israel. But the Syrian split from the United Arab Republic, the continued backbiting at league meetings, the shaky position of several governments, the recent U.A.R. walkout from the league—all point up the league's difficulties.

The French Community nations of Africa profess a solidarity against the aims of the Casablanca group led by Kwame Nkrumah's Ghana and Sekeu Toure's Guinea.

FBI COUNTERSPY ACTIVITIES TOLD

NEW YORK (AP)—"You don't know how hard it is for a woman to keep a secret for three years," says a young wife who knew her husband was feeding government information to the Russians while working as an FBI counterspy.

"I'm proud of the job he did," Lois Flink said yesterday. Then, with a sigh of relief, "and I'm very glad it's over."

Mrs. Flink, 24, said that when her husband-to-be, Richard A. Flink, 27, disclosed his undercover role shortly before their marriage in June 1960, she was "very nervous at first."

But, she said, "he explained the whole thing to me and I agreed to go along with it."

Flink, a Republican candidate for New York State assemblyman, said he was partly motivated in his undercover work by his hatred of Soviet anti-Semitism.

Flink, a Queens, N.Y., lawyer-politician, posed as a Communist spy for a $3,000 payoff while keeping the FBI abreast of information he gave to two Soviet employees of the United Nations, the department said.

Flink's Democratic opponent in the Nov. 6 elections said he was going to communicate with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy about the Justice Department report "to see if there is any more to it."

Flink, who never had held elective office, is running against Queens lawyer J. Lewis Fox, who is seeking re-election to the state assembly where he has served 14 years.

Fox, 52, said he was puzzled by some things in the department's report and was trying to figure out why Kennedy, a Democrat like himself, released it just at this time—two months before the election.

Kennedy was understood to have put the story out now because (1) the case was cleaned up and (2) because he thought Flink was about to use it in his campaign.

Kennedy's announcement identified the two Soviet U.N. employees who contacted Flink as translator Yuri A. Mishukov, 31, and political affairs officer Yuri V. Zaitsev, 38, who have since returned to their country.

The Russians, the report said, asked Flink for information about internal operations of the United States government agencies and personal information about influential members of Flink's political party.

A Justice Department spokesman said the Russians also asked Flink to advocate "policies favorable to the Soviet Union" if he was elected to the state Assembly.

Fire Destroys Home Near San Rafael

Fire early yesterday destroyed an eight-room house and its contents at 101 Orange Street in Bret Harte, just outside San Rafael, with loss estimated at $13,000 by Louis J. Bloom, Marin County fire chief.

The house was engulfed in flames when it was discovered and reported by an unidentified neighbor. The report was called into the San Rafael Fire Department and relayed to the Marin County department, Bloom said.

Keith Kuhl of 103 Orange Street, next door to the house, is the owner, Bloom said. Kuhl valued the old two-story shingle house at $9,000, the fire chief reported.

Kuhl also lost $2,000 in furnishings in the house. Marion McGary, who rented the house, said he lost $2,000 worth of personal belongings.

Cause of the fire was undetermined, Bloom stated.

Mother Lifted Down From Rope, Revived By Policeman

A San Rafael mother, who apparently tried to hang herself, was rescued by police yesterday in the garage of her Glenwood home.

Mrs. Patricia Ann Moran, 40, of 4 Heartwood Court, was revived by Officer A. E. Myers and taken to San Rafael General Hospital.

Police were called to the home about 12:50 a.m. to investigate a domestic quarrel. A daughter, 15, told the officer her mother and estranged father, Thomas Michael Moran, had an argument. After he left for his San Francisco home, her mother had gone into the garage, the girl told the officer.

Myers went into the garage and found Mrs. Moran hanging from a long piece of clothesline. He lifted her down and revived her with artificial respiration, while the daughter called an ambulance.

Dial One Starts With Confusion

Marin County's super-automated telephone network was a tangled web of frustration this morning as "Dial One" went into effect.

Callers picked up their phones and found no dial tones. Business officers with internal dial systems had similar trouble getting outside lines.

The hapless individuals who forgot those numbers for which they had to "Dial One" first were greeted by canned voices informing them that "the number you have dialed cannot be reached; please check your number and call again or ask the operator to assist you."

He was indicted by the San Francisco Grand Jury after conviction of two other men involved in thefts last year in San Francisco's fashionable Pacific Heights.

"These changes are going to take place regardless of what people think of them," said planning commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. "However, I am opposed to merely extending a strip as this would do. It should be an overall change later. Just because you have a heavily traveled road is no excuse for rezoning."

Commissioners agreed they were opposed to a blanket rezoning in the area which would not give them architectural control of new buildings. They decided to rehear the application at their next meeting, for rezoning with architectural approval.

A Little Sickness Builds Up Immunity

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

A little sickness is good for you.

This idea is not new, but only in the past few years has it been voiced with any authority by spokesmen of all the healing arts.

What do we mean by a "little sickness" and how can it be "good"? First, we have to face the fact that all of us get sick now and then. We know that nearly every child who leads a normal, healthy life will become exposed to colds and to one or more of the usual childhood diseases like chicken pox, measles and the mumps.

These ailments in most cases do more good than harm to the growing child . . . because they set up a protective immunity against the more serious diseases which may strike later in life. For instance, an attack of the measles, say at four years, could equip the body with sufficient natural defense to ward off a polio attack 10 or 12 years later.

This type of natural immunity, tailored by nature to your needs, is preferable to the artificial immunizing agents that man has devised for mass innoculation.

Chiropractors favor natural immunity against disease. This type of protection plus regular chiropractic care of the nervous system —the master system—will ensure that disease is kept to a minimum of frequency and severity.

None of us can escape illness completely but when we do happen to become "off-color," let's take the shortest road to recovery. Chiropractic care of the spine, when needed, will enhance your natural resistance and immunity by freeing your nervous system of blocks which drain your resistance to sickness.

Music Chest Winds Up With Brilliant Ballet

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

A suitable finale to the Marin Music Chest's 28th summer concert season last night at Forest Meadows, San Rafael, was a brilliant performance by the San Francisco Ballet and its orchestra.

Judging from the capacity audience, the largest of the series, one might conclude that ballet is a favorite in Marin among the performing arts.

The performance of the 19 young women and nine young men was marked as a whole by elegance, style, polished technique and dramatic wit, highlighted by dazzling solo work.

Three ballerinas sharing top honors were Jocelyn Vollmer as Odette, queen of the swans, in Act II of "Swan Lake"; Sally Bailey in "Variations de Ballet" and as the Amazon captain in "Con Amore," and Virginia Johnson in the variations and "Divertissement d'Auber." Their dancing would be comparable to the best anywhere.

Also worthy of special mention were Sue Lloyd in the divertissement, and Cynthia Gregory in the second scene of "Con Amore."

As for the men, both Robert Gladstein and Terry Orr performed sensational leaps, spins and entre-chats too fast for the eye to catch the number, but Terry Orr made the outstanding virtuoso impression of the evening with a series a high diamond pattern leaps. He also scored a hit with his humorous antics as the thief in "Con Amore."

Choreography by Lew Christensen, general director of the ballet, and George Balanchine was imaginative and forceful, and the vivid costumes, as well as the traditional "Swan Lake" white ones, were all the more effective on the starkly simple but well-lighted stage.

There was one flaw. So much of the dancing was done at such a lightning-like pace that it was no wonder at times the dancers and the orchestra, led by director Gerhard Samuels, were not precisely together in tempo.

During the first intermission, Marin Music Chest President Mrs. Samuel Archibald spoke and introduced the six winners of this year's Marin Music Chest scholarships. They are violinist Sharon Johnson, pianist Carole Castro, soprano Valerie Meacham, flutist Wendy Eisler, pianist Kathy Winslow and pianist George Duke.

'Planned Community' On Tap In San Rafael

Creation of a new "planned community district" in East San Rafael is to be considered tonight by the San Rafael City Council.

Rezoning as such a district is sought for Porto Bello, about 174,000 square feet between San Pedro Road and the San Rafael Canal. Part of the area is now zoned for duplexes and the remainder is unclassified.

The council will be shy a member as it meets at 8 p.m. in the city hall with an 18-item agenda. Vice Mayor Charles W. Aby will preside in the absence of Mayor John F. McInnis, who left yesterday with a delegation of Marin business and community leaders on a flying tour of Russia.

The council is scheduled to act on an agreement with George S. Nolte, civil engineer, for preparing an aerial survey and topographic map for the proposed extension of Third Street.

Eight public hearings are scheduled: Subdivision of a lot on Wood Street, which was originally subdivided illegally and for legal subdivision of which the planning commission overrode the council; an ordinance amendment to outlaw billboards; proposed rezoning between Clark Street and Reservoir Road; appeal of a use permit granted Ghilotti Brothers and Equitable Development Co. by the planning commission to fill 18½ underwater acres off East Francisco Boulevard, and partial reassessment of Marin Bay Assessment District 2.

Guilty Plea In Golf Clubs Theft

After a preliminary hearing in Marin Municipal Court Friday, Stephen R. Greenberg, 19, pleaded guilty to theft of a set of golf clubs from the Meadow Club near Fairfax Aug. 18.

The charge was reduced to petty theft, and Judge Joseph G. Wilson set Oct. 9 for sentencing.

But Richard L. Milsner, 20, also charged with the theft, pleaded innocent. Judge Wilson continued the case until June 14, 1963, and said it would be dismissed unless Milsner got into any further trouble. Both youths are from Daly City.

Terra Linda, Marinwood Still May Vote On City Status

Residents of Terra Linda and Marinwood still may have an opportunity to vote on incorporation of the "City of Santa Margarita" because of a changed opinion of the Marin County Counsel.

County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel announced today he is withdrawing a report made public Saturday which he had planned to make to the board of supervisors tomorrow. That report had indicated that less than 25 per cent of the residents representing less than 25 per cent of the property value had signed a petition asking an incorporation election. Thus there would have been no election.

Broemmel said that in tabulating the signatures his office had been guided by a county counsel opinion that a husband or wife signing such a petition would represent only half of the value of the property if it were held jointly.

However, Broemmel said, the counsel has since learned of a 1961 court case which upset an attorney general's opinion to this effect and allowed a husband or wife to represent the entire property in signing such a petition.

This makes necessary the withdrawing of the earlier report, a restudy and submitting of a new report, the assessor said. He estimated it could be completed by the end of this week.

Increased Disability Checks Due Veterans

Increased disability compensation checks to Marin County veterans can be expected on checks received after Oct. 1, county veterans service officer W. P. Duhamel announced today.

The increase, due to enactment of a new law, will be reflected on the first check by an amount three times the regular increase.

Antonio Battaglia Now A Citizen, May Want To Play Ball With Giants

By RICHARD CARBONEAU

Now that Antonio Battaglia has his citizenship he's looking ahead. He thinks he'd like to be a baseball player, maybe with the San Francisco Giants.

Anthony, as he's known now, is 12 years old. He received his certificate of naturalization on Aug. 28 before Judge Alfonso Zirpoli in U.S. District Court in San Francisco. He came to the United States June 20, 1959, from his native Naples, Italy.

Had Anthony not been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Battaglia, he probably could have expected a life of hardship and poverty.

When Anthony first came to this country he was frightened, unable to speak a word of English. But he was quickly at home with his new family.

Vincent Battaglia came from Italy in 1935, and although Mrs. Battaglia was born in San Francisco, her father was an Italian immigrant.

The couple married in Italy while Mrs. Palma Ruth Battaglia was on a visit there with her father. They had one child years ago, but the child died at the age of 15 months and the Battaglias had no more. So they decided to adopt a child.

Anthony was legally adopted in 1960. He and his new parents were very happy. But Anthony was to have his new father only a short time. Vincent Battaglia died last year. However, Mrs. Battaglia takes a positive view even in this.

"I can thank God I have Anthony," she said.

"Anthony, meanwhile, has become quite American. He speaks English readily, has learned to swim, and enjoys American sports. He likes basketball. He hasn't tried baseball yet, but is sure he'll like that too. He attends sixth grade at St. Raphael's School and says he is doing well in his studies.

Anthony and his mother live in a pleasant home on Elm Street in San Rafael. He hasn't forgotten Italy or the father and brothers and sisters he left there. Someday he expects to go back and visit them. But he has plenty of time for that.

Sister Helps Frightened Tree Climber

A 14-year-old son of an Army colonel survived mountain climbing adventures in Switzerland last month only to become frightened when he was trapped 30 feet up a tree in his backyard in Greenbrae yesterday.

His 12-year-old sister climbed the tree and clutched his legs to keep him from falling until Kentfield firemen brought him down with a ladder.

Mrs. Christian Grombeck Jr. of 167 Vista Grande gave this account:

TREE HOUSE

The son, Christian Grombeck III, decided to build a tree house. At the insistence of his father, who is with the medical department of the Sixth Army at the Presidio of San Francisco, he equipped himself with a safety harness before going out to the tree on a catwalk extending from the sundeck of the hillside home.

Young Grombeck reached the tree and began to climb when his foot slipped. The safety harness slipped up to around his neck.

OUTSIDE CITY

Both Larkspur and Kentfield firemen arrived within minutes, the home being just outside the Larkspur city limits. Larkspur firemen, first on the scene, found their ladder would not reach the trapped boy. The Kentfield firemen's ladder was long enough, and Christian was rescued unharmed.

"We only settled here two weeks ago after three years in Stuttgart, Germany," Mrs. Grombeck related today.

"Last month the children went mountain climbing in Switzerland above Lake Geneva and nothing frightening happened. The boy panicked yesterday when his footing slipped and the harness went up around his neck. . .

BRIGHT OBJECT IS SEEN OVER MARIN'S SKY

A bright, burning ball with a green tail was seen in the western sky Saturday night by many Marinites.

Telephone calls reporting the object were received at Hamilton Air Froce Base, the sheriff's office, and the Independent-Journal. It was also seen from the fire lookout atop Mount Tamalpais.

Air Force spokesmen guessed the object may have been a falling meteor.

One San Rafael resident, Mrs. Charles Purrett of 45 Blossom Drive, described the object as a "big, blazing ball, leaving a greenish tail behind it" as it seemed to fall into the ocean.

Paint Brush Cleaner Is Burned

Charles Grandi, 33, of 98 Rollingwood Drive, San Rafael, was treated yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital for first and second degree burns, the result of a flash fire which ignited while he was washing paint brushes.

Grandi was burned on his neck, arms, chest and right leg, the burned area totaling about 15 per cent of his body surface. Hospital authorities said his condition today was satisfactory.

The fire apparently was touched off by a water heater pilot light while Grandi was washing the paint brushes in gasoline.

San Rafael Police Officer J. A. Loane found Grandi in a state of shock, calling his doctor on the telephone. The officer rushed Grandi to the hospital in the police car.

Grandi is associated with his father, Lloyd Grandi, in Marvelous Marin Realty Co. in San Rafael. The accident occurred about 5 p.m.

Earlier Kennedy Marriage Rumor Published, Is Denied

WASHINGTON (AP) — A long-circulated rumor — coupled with a denial — that President John F. Kennedy was once secretly married was published in Washington today.

The Washington Post carried an advance article from Newsweek magazine, which it owns, and which, like the Post, branded the rumor as groundless and false.

The White House, asked for comment, declined to discuss the matter today as it has in the past.

Rumors of an early Kennedy marriage have been circulated widely for more than a year. Persons or groups have distributed in various parts of the country copies of a page from a genealogy alleging there was such a marriage.

To citizens who write the White House about the rumor, a simply reply goes out: "The president has been married only once—to his wife Jacqueline Kennedy."

The Associated Press checked many sources over the months and was never able to find any evidence to substantiate the rumor.

Newsweek, noted that virtually every major newspaper, magazine and wire service in the United States refused to publish the report.

"They have 'spiked' the story despite what appears at first glance to be 'documentary evidence' and despite scattered publication of it—or hints at it—by hate groups and gossip columnists," Newsweek said.

The Washington Post said that it had reached the conclusion that "recent revival of the rumor has brought it to public attention and made notice of it seem desirable."

The story reached a national audience Sept. 2 when Parade, a Sunday supplement magazine, printed a letter from a reader asking if the story of the secret marriage was true. Parade said there never was such a marriage.

The so-called evidence for the marriage appears in one paragraph on page 884 of a privately printed family history, "The Blauvelt Family Geneaology," written by a member of the 10th generation, Louis L. Blauvelt, who died at 82 two years after the book was published in 1957.

In tracing the history of the Blauvelts, who migrated from Holland in 1638, one entry under the 11th generation says:

"12,427, Durie, Kerr, Malcom, Isabel O. Cooper, 11,304. We have no birth date. She was born Kerr, but took the name of her stepfather. She first married Firmin Desloge, IV. They were divorced, and she married, third, John F. Kennedy, son of Joseph P. Kennedy, onetime ambassador to England. There were no children of the second or third marriages."

Novato Woman, 51, Reports Assault

A 51-year-old Novato woman was choked into unconsciousness and possibly raped early yesterday by a shirtless young man who entered the house through an unlocked front door.

Novato police said the victim thought she heard a noise at about 1:30 a.m. She got up to investigate, but found nothing, so she went back to bed.

At about 2 a.m. she awakened abruptly. She told police that a well-muscled young man, about 23 to 27 years old, was choking her. She struggled but lapsed into unconsciousness.

When she regained consciousness a few minutes later, the victim said, her pajama pants had been torn off and the assailant had disappeared. She went to an adjoining bedroom to awaken her husband, who immediately checked the house and yard, found no one, and called police and a physician.

Although the victim's bedroom was dark, she said there was a dim light from the kitchen and bright moonlight from the window. She was able to give police a partial description of the attacker.

She described the man as of medium build, well developed, with dark blond hair cut short on the sides.

Miller Urges Election Of Those Who Will 'Break The Stalemate'

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Rep. Clem Miller (D, Corte Madera) called upon Democratic workers yesterday to elect people to Congress who can help "break the stalemate" and get on with the job "we elected the president to do."

On the West Coast for a weekend of campaigning, Miller spoke at a meeting of the First District Causcus of the Democratic State Central Committee in El Rancho Motel.

The caucus, attended by some 50 representatives from the six counties of the district, lashed out in resolutions at Miller's opponent, Don Clausen of Crescent City for "introducing personal vilification and scurrilous attacks" into the congressional campaign; challenged Clausen to "reveal the names of contributors (to his campaign) and the nature of their interests," and passed a lengthy resolution illustrating the "leadership" of Miller and the "low esteme" in which Clausen is held by his own party.

Miller told the group he intends to fly to the First District each weekend until Congress adjourns to campaign for his third term.

In a hard-hitting speech, he detailed the necessity of building a strong northern Democratic bloc in Congress to "break the stalemate" brought about by three power blocs, the Republicans, the southern Democrats and the northern Democrats.

The first of three resolutions passed by the caucus called for an investigation by the Fair Campaign Practices Committee of alleged violations by Clausen of four sections of the Code of Fair Campaign Practices. References were made in the discussion to Clausen's connection of Miller with the "Liberal Papers" and with a report Clausen had said Miller belonged to a party other than the Republican or Democratic.

The second resolution declared Clausen expects to spend "over $100,000" in his campaign and said "there is evidence this money is coming from interests" outside the district.

The third resolutions charged that Republican "party spokesmen" have issued "a long list of falsehoods which received front page coverage in the local newspapers." It included a "factual statement" in which it charged that Clausen was fifth in a list of possible candidates against Miller; that Miller is the spokesman for the 72-congressman "lumber bloc" to discuss the industry's problems; that for the farmers he has worked for lamb raisers, nut growers, apple, grape and wine producers, and increased "industry control" rather than "federal control" of agriculture; and that Miller's education bill "specifically prohibits federal control."

Terra Linda Park Sites Under View

The San Rafael Parks and Recreation Commission will hold a public hearing Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the city hall on three proposed park sites in the Terra Linda portion of San Rafael.

The three sites, recommended to the city council last month as alternate to a single large park, are of three to four acres each in property owned by the Freitas estate. One is at the east end of Devon Drive, another at the rear of Terra Linda Unit 15 east of Trellis Drive, and the third beside the proposed extension of Freitas Parkway.

Recreation Director Joseph Rodota said it is planned to develop them as neighborhood playgrounds and park and picnic areas, without installation of tennis courts, baseball fields or other expensive developments.

Birth Of Pt. Reyes Seashore Stirs Glow Of Anticipation

It was a peculiar feeling that came over us when we received word that President Kennedy had signed the Point Reyes National Seashore Bill.

It wasn't excitement, for we had known from his statements the President intended to sign it.

It wasn't pride, for our part in it had been quite small.

It seemed slightly more than satisfaction and in the days elapsed since Thursday, this satisfaction has developed into what we can only describe as an inner glow.

It's a glow based on a real love for Point Reyes. It's a glow of anticipation. It's a glow based on the realization that the beautiful beaches, the wooded hills, the rolling interior and the towering cliffsides will become more and more accessable to people for their enjoyment, rather than less and less.

The bill establishing the seashore, as finally signed by the President, is a much better bill than the one introduced. It is fairer to the people who live and own land there. It is fairer to residents of other parts of Marin County. In short, it is a true example of the democratic process in action.

And now, the National Park Service has selected as its Point Reyes project manager, a Marin County man who has been working closely with Point Reyes for many years.

He is James E. Cole, of Marinwood, the man to whom the acquisition of property and initial development of the park has been entrusted.

We've known Jim Cole for many years and his selection is welcome. We're glad the park service didn't send some "expert" out from the East for the job. Cole has a real feeling for Point Reyes and a wide acquaintance with the people with whom he will be working.

We're only sorry that George Collins of San Anselmo has retired, for he, probably more than any other one individual is responsible for the new seashore and should have a say in its development.

With authorization of the seashore now complete, we hope that Congress acts quickly, before adjournment, to appropriate at least $5,000,000 for purchase of initial acreage to bring the Point Reyes National Seashore, now a paper park, into solid reality.

APPRECIATE WHAT SELF-GOVERNMENT MEANS

Few people are aware that the word "govern" comes from the Latin term "guberno" meaning "to steer a ship."

This thought was graphically illustrated by one man who said that "a dictatorship is like a high powered ocean liner. It can go straight ahead at a fast clip. The danger is that it may hit an iceberg.

"Democracy," he added, "is like a log raft. You can't guide the thing very well; you wallow all over the place; your feet are always wet.

"But you can never sink a log raft," he concluded, "and if you keep trying you eventually get there. That's what we've got to do, keep trying."

The inefficiencies of self-government are often exasperating. But it is within the power of citizens, thank God, to right most wrongs.

The ship of state will stay afloat if we "keep trying" to reenforce it with the principles of morality and efficiency.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Get To Source Of Social Problem

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Chip Day's column (8/30) presented "one of the most critical social problems today," and "detailed the problems, but offered no solutions or recommendations." The "team" the D.A.R. says it needs does not include religion.

Although not a member of their church, I must admire the position stated by the thousands of Seventh-Day Adventists in conference in San Francisco two weeks ago. They know that there can be no temporizing or compromise with the use of alcohol —the smallest use of which is abuse.

Ever since The Garden, humans have had to battle hatred, envy, lust, dishonesty, and all the other inclinations condemned in the Commandments. This is a full time daily challenge. It is inconceivable that intelligent creatures would compound their problems by allowing themselves to become enslaved by unnatural habits such as alcohol and tobacco.

It is fantastic that a business could be established to manufacture products which will guarantee lifetime resales simply by fastening an addiction on the user from the sale of the first bottle or carton. As long as such businesses are legal it is only reasonable that the manufacturers should be expected to defray, out of their profits, the expenses of the hospitalization, the jailing, the welfare cases, the juvenile problems, and the auto accidents resulting from the sale of their products.

The "education" member of the team would no doubt confine itself to counselling on matters of temperances. Automotive experts have proved that the fact remains that even one drink alters the driving pattern and mental attitude of a driver. Yet there is no obligation and no effort is made to prevent any guest from driving away from a place of public or private drinking, regardless of the amount of his consumption of alcohol.

Despite the fact that the return to reality is accompanied by penalties that more than offset losing oneself in an alcoholic spell, social pressures and advertising and the movies have taunted otherwise thoughtful people into habitual indulgence. One scarcely goes even to a neighbor's to borrow a garden tool without expecting the offer of a drink. Minors are surrounded by liquor in private homes, public markets, and all fields of entertainment.

Prohibtion? You'll scream "Liberty!" no matter how many millions of people and dollars go down the drain. While the education unit of the team plods along the liability and expense should rest with the manufacturers, the advertisers, the movie makers, the super markets, the irresponsible hosts, and the morally weak parents.

In short—as long as law, medicine and government confine their efforts to alleviating the plight of victims there is little immediate hope for turning the tide against the appalling mental, moral and financial waste caused by a completely unnecessary industry.

Phone Dialing Too Complicated

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Since moving to Mill Valley several years ago, we have helplessly stood by while an ever increasing network of telephone lines have been strung up in front of our view.

But now we revolt when a complicated dialing system is being thrown at us with no say so on our part. The telephone plays such an important part in our everyday life, why can not such an inconvenient change be subject to our vote?

We are constantly being called to vote for municipal judges we know nothing about, but our hands are tied behind our back while this upsetting change is brought about.

Are long distance calls becoming so commonplace that we can no longer ask the operator to place the call for us?

A Bigger Laurel But Record Bay

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your editorial "Beautiful Laurel a Record" was interesting.

Mr. De Fremery thought that the laurel (bay) with a 6-foot diameter located on the Parmalee Real Estate property might be a record breaker for size.

He might be interested to know that a laurel, located at 9 East Lewelling Blvd., San Lorenzo, is 37 feet in circumference at a point 3 feet from its base, which indicates a diameter of about 12 feet. Estimates place its age at approximately 200 years.

However, Marin County may yet rest on its laurels for the biggest bay (also known as the Oregon myrtle) is located near the William Nichols property in the Meadowsweet Area in Corte Madera.

This tree is 37½ feet in circumference and has a spread of 95 feet. Not having a transit, I did not measure its height.

Mrs. George Allen, wife of the famous pal of F.D.R., Truman and Eisenhower, read in the paper about a modest Navy football coach who, following the first Navy victory over Army in years, quietly left the train in Baltimore on the way back to Annapolis so his team could get all the huzzahs when it arrived home.

Allen nodded and said, "That's exactly what I would have done under similar circumstances." "The heck it is," hooted the knowing Mrs. Allen. "You'd have put the TEAM off at Baltimore!"

Brian James tells of a well-heeled tourist who dropped into a tiny village church in Essex County, England, for the Christmas service. "It won't be a bad one. It's been running now for almost two thousand years!"

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Being Sausalito Police Sergeant Acquaints You With Many Alibis

The other night, in search of truth, we went to see Sausalito Police Sgt. Stan Kelly on his four to midnight shift.

He was cooling his feet for a moment in the department's cave-like office, having just come off the Bridgeway walking beat.

The truth is, said Kelly, the Irish are natural-born policemen. "One reason why there are so many Irish cops," he said, "is because they have got a lot of wit and humor." He said, yes, he is Irish, a Catholic and a Democrat. However, he added, "I'm not a politician."

KELLY HAS BEEN on the force 18 years. "I was hired by James Doyle on Halloween to scare the kids and I've been scaring them ever since." He added, "I must be a pretty tough sergeant because, during my time, I have worked under four chiefs — Doyle, Ingalls, Mountanos and Goerndt."

Kelly likes the tempo in Sausalito, saying he has seen everything happen in tiny Vina Del Mar Plaza across the street, from dogs swimming in the fountain to people eating out of garbage cans. "Lovers, ball players, picnickers, I've seen them all," said he.

WHEN KELLY first joined the force, he commented, there were four cells at Sausalito and a city judge held court in the Council Chambers every morning.

Now the county keeps Sausalito's prisoners and the one cell remaining is used but occasionally as a holding cell.

Sometimes, the congenial Irishman said, people come in with lost dogs asking if they can leave the dog in the cell until the owner turns up. "I tell them no, too messy."

Kelly says he's the oldest in the department in age and seniority. He's 54. He lives in Mill Valley with his wife, Ann, a Sausalito school teacher. "I don't know if she is Irish," he said, "but I know she's a Texan."

He related that "I'm the only cop in the family. I come from a family of undertakers. Before I came here I was driving a liquor truck. Shortly after I came here I could stand on the corner and know nine out of 10 citizens by name. Now I know maybe one out of 15."

KELLY HAS GONE through all the force's jobs—check detail, juvenile, school patrol (which is no more) and meters. He was acting chief six months, he said, when Doyle was ill.

I've heard about every alibi in the book from people who get parking tickets, Kelly said. They say: "But officer, I only parked there for five minutes;" "I didn't know I had to put money in since I'm a local citizen."

" 'I didn't see it,' they say," says Kelly, or "I didn't think it was working;" "I already put money in the meter or "I couldn't get a coin in."

"I always tell them," Kelly explained, "these meters pay off more interest than the bank. If you're gone five minutes and put in one penny, you save 99 cents because a fine is $1. No bank pays that much."

IT'S A CRAZY business, said Kelly. The other day for example, a woman called from San Francisco saying her roommate was in Sausalito on a boat and would Kelly please get her and tell her her cat jumped out of the window. It is her favorite cat, the San Francisco woman said, and I don't know what to do.

Asked if he had it to do all over again, would he become a policeman, Kelly replies, "Yes."

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Little Chance Of Republican House But Few Seats Would Hurt JFK

WASHINGTON — If this year's congressional elections roughly follow past off-year voting patterns, here are the political consequences which now appear to be in the making.

The Republicans could win the House, but it is improbable.

However—and this is the crux of the stake in the voting this fall—there is every probability that the Republicans will reduce the Democratic House majority sufficiently so that President Kennedy's domestic legislative program for the next two years will face mounting uncertainty.

THE FACTS which justify this political assessment are these:

The present division in the Senate is 64 Democrats, 36 Republicans. To win control of the Senate the Republicans would have to gain 15. Of the 38 seats at stake, 21 are held by Democrats, 17 by Republicans.

Since seven of these Democratic seats are in the solid South, there are only 14 Democratic candidates facing serious contests and the Republicans are not likely to win all of them. Even if they did (and lost none of their own) they would be one shy of control.

THE PRESENT division in the House is 258 Democrats and 174 Republicans. To win control of the House the Republicans would have to gain 44. While the party in power has with only one exception —1934—lost seats in the off-year elections, the average loss is 38.

Only in times of acute business recession have the majority parties lost massively in the off-years as the Republicans did in 1922 and 1930, as the Democrats did in 1938. It would be an unexpected upset if the Republicans were able to win the House.

Losing control of the House to the Republicans is the least of the worries of President Kennedy and his political aides. They are worried about losing as few as a half-dozen House seats, let alone 44.

If the Republicans pick up just half the number of seats which constitute the average gain in the off-year elections (that is, 19), the fate of any and all controversial Kennedy-New Frontier legislation during the second half of the President's term will be in total jeopardy

THE REASON the loss of a half-dozen House seats would throw an almost insurmountable roadblock in front of the President's domestic legislative program is that there are so many Southern Democrats voting with the Republicans.

This is why Kennedy feels compelled to campaign widely and actively this fall. His goal: to try to hold every seat the Democrats now have as though his political life depended on it.

Will he help?

Those who say yes point to special elections last fall; where Kennedy campaigned, the Democrats won.

Those who doubt note that in 1960 most Democratic congressmen fared better than Kennedy himself. A winning presidential candidate almost invariably helps his party increase its seats in Congress. In 1960, it was the reverse. In 411 of the 437 congressional districts, Kennedy ran behind the winning candidate for Congress. Of the elected Democratic congressmen, 191 got at least 5 per cent more votes in their districts than did the President.

Bears' Super 'Red Dog' Throttles 49ers' Great Speed

Muscle stopped the fastest team in football so the question in San Francisco today must be:

"Will the fastest team develop muscle?"

For when the Chicago Bears whipped the San Francisco 49ers yesterday 30-14, it was hulking defense of the Midway Monsters that proved the difference.

Now, Coach Red Hickey of the 49ers must take steps so the Lions won't do the same in Detroit next Sunday.

"We stopped the fastest team in football and our defense played tremendously," declared the Bears owner-coach George Halas. "Our strategy was a 'super red-dog' to rush the passer. We did it in different ways."

The strategy gave the underdog Bears a victory in their National Football League opener after losing all five pre-season games.

Fleet halfback Willie Galimore turned in touchdown runs of 37 and 77 yards, highlighting the offense.

"We were being run over, simply manhandled," was the way a flushed and disgruntled Coach Hickey described the throttling of his club's offense The 49ers had posted a 3-1 pre-season record.

Hickey said, however, that the Bears' defensive strategy was nothing unexpected.

Kezar fans booed 49er quarterback John Brodie and cheered when Bobby Waters replaced him near the end of the first half. But when the seat of Waters' pants hit the stadium turf frequently, spectators knew protection was the thing the 49ers lacked.

The Bear defenders tossed the two 49er quarterbacks for 64 yards in losses. Doug Atkins, Bill George, Maury Youmans, Bob Kilcullen, Earl Leggett and Larry Morris took turns blasting into the 49er backfield.

Last Year, the Bears devised a defense to send the 49er shotgun spread offense into discard. Yesterday they showed their "super red-dog" to nullify the speed-burning offense of 1962.

Defensive halfback Roosevelt Taylor ran the Bears into a 7-0 lead when he intercepted a first-quarter Brodie pass and raced 42 yards to score. Atkins had pressured the quarterback, who threw only one interception in the pre-season outings.

Roger Leclerc's 17-yard field goal and a 16-yard touchdown burst gy Rick Casares gave the Bears a 17-0 halftime lead before an unhappy crowd of 46,052 at Kezar Stadium.

San Francisco, after gaining only 52 yards in the first half, snapped back to start the second with a touchdown drive which Brodie culminated with a six-yard run around end. Galimore equalled that touchdown with his 37-yard run.

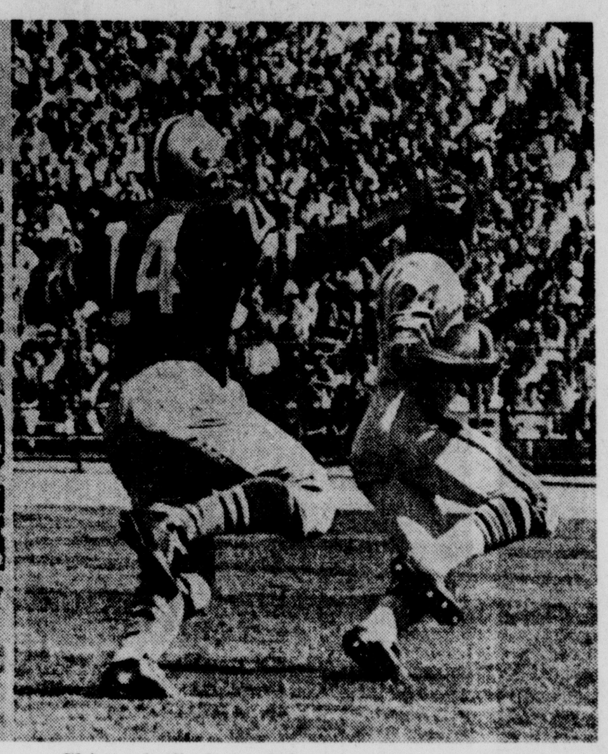
Flankerback Jim Johnson suffered a shoulder pointer, but generally the 49ers came out in good physical shape. One bright spot was the showing of rookie defensive end Clark Miller from Utah State.



TAKEAWAY—Roosevelt Taylor (24) of Bears intercepts a pass by John Brodie of 49ers and runs it to Chicago's first touchdown en route to 30-14 win at Kezar yesterday. Pass was intended for J. D. Smith, also No. 24. (AP Wirephoto)

Giant's Still Alive, But . . .

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The San Francisco Giants remain in the National League pennant race mathematically, but it may take an Einstein to win it for them.

With 12 games left on the schedule, the Giants stand four games behind league-leading Los Angeles. Even if the Dodgers only split their 12 games, the Giants would have to win 10 for a first-place tie. And the way Al Dark's team has been floundering along, that type of streak is unlikely.

Following the Giants' fifth straight loss yesterday, 6-4 in 10 innings, Dark and his Giants sat dejectedly in the locker room. They haven't won since leaving home last Tuesday and are one game away from their longest losing streak of the season, compiled early in June.

"They're all big losses," Dark mumbled when asked about the defeat in light of the Dodgers' 5-0 loss to Chicago. He said no more.

Willie Mays, who returned to the lineup for the first time since collapsing in the dugout in Cincinnati last Wednesday, didn't have much to say either, even though his three-run home run tied the contest 4-4 in the eighth inning.

"I felt weak," the amazing Mays said about his physical condition. 'If we'd won, the home run would have felt better."

In his first three times at bat, Mays struck out, walked and flied to center.

Manager Danny Murtaugh, who saw his Pirates lose 11 of 14 games to the Giants before the current series, believes the Giants still have a chance for the pennant, "But it's getting slimmer and slimmer."

"The Giants just weren't hitting against us in these three games," he said.

"They have a lot of games to make up. They have to get hot, and the other club has to start losing.

"Mays' loss really hurt them. Any time you lose 44 home runs and more than 100 runs-batted-in and the great defense he gives you in centerfield, it's bound to hurt the ball club. It's just unfortunate he got sick at this time."

Mays' home run, a high fly over the left-field wall, pumped life into what was otherwise a dying San Francisco team. However, Smoky Burgess turned the would-be dream story into a nightmare with a two-run homer into the right-field stands in the tenth off reliever Stu Miller.

Lefty Mike McCormick (5-4) will try to avoid loss No. 6 for the Giants tonight when he tangles with Pittsburgh's Tom Sturdivant (8-4).

S.A. Wins 1st Winter League Contest, 8-6

The San Anselmo Merchants won their first San Francisco Winter League baseball game yesterday with an 8-6 upset victory over the Hunters Athletic Club of San Francisco.

Ron Grayson went all the way on the mound for San Anselmo to earn the victory. Fielding star for the day was shortstop Jerry Ard who was instrumental in three Merchant double plays.

Ard did some good work at the plate also as he hit a double and a single. Other big hitters for the day were Bob Ingram who smashed a triple and a single and Larry Kline who collected a pair of singles.

Biber Stars In Warner Grid Game

The second weekend of Pop Warner football saw the Mill Valley Junior Indians whip the San Anselmo Junior Pirates 21-0, Redwood Junior Giants smash the San Rafael Junior Bulldogs 27-6 and Terra Linda clobber Novato 27-0.

Mike Biber scored the first two touchdowns for Mill Valley and Scott Laurie scored the third, on a pass interception. Biber's TDs culminated two long drives for Mill Valley in the Saturday game.

In the other game yesterday, Steve Congdon scored two touchdowns for Terra Linda and Pat Carney and Steve Muller each scored one.

Practice games are scheduled for next weekend, also. Saturday the teams will be cut to 33 boys in preparation for the league openers Sept. 30.

Hornung Has A Field Day

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Paul Hornung is as ready as he'll ever be to help the Green Bay Packers defend their National Football League title this year, and, that spells M-U-R-D-E-R for six other Western Conference hopefuls.

Hornung, who was the NFL's Most Valuable Player and scoring king in 1961 as the Packers won their second straight Western title and the world championship, was almost painstakingly slow in rounding into form this year after being discharged from the Army in late July.

But he was in mid-season form yesterday as the Packers opened defense of their title with a solid 34-7 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, scoring three touchdowns, kicking two field goals and adding four conversions for 28 points.

A sellout crowd of 38,669 watched Hornuung's one-man gang job on the Vikings, part of a record NFL opening day turnout of 341,913 for the seven games.

The day's biggest crowd was at Cleveland where 81,115 saw the rejuvenated Browns defeat the Eastern Conference champion New York Giants 17-7. In other games, St. Louis, with halfback John David Crow leading the way, upset Philadelphia 27-21; Detroit overwhelmed Pittsburgh 45-7; Baltimore came from behind on quarterback Johnny Unitas' passing to upend Los Angeles 30-27; Chicago's Bears upset the San Francisco 49ers 30-14 and Washington and the Dallas Cowboys played a 35-35 tie.

SCORING CHAMP

Hornung, holder of the single season scoring record of 176 points which he set in 1960 in the second of three consecutive scoring crowns, gained 67 yards in 10 carries. But 50 of these resulted in touchdown runs, and he added field goals of 10 and 45 yards.

The former Notre Dame All-America, who scored a record-making 19 points in the NFL's title game last year, scored his team's first 20 points before Bart Starr hit Ron Kramer with an 18-yard scoring pass. He then added the final eight points.

Fran Tarkenton, manall afternoon by the Packers equally tough defense, tossed a 17-yard pass to Jerry Reichow in the closing seconds for the Vikings score.

Jim Ninowski, obtained from Detroit for quarterback Milt Plum, hit Rich Kreitling with a 17-yard TD pass in the third period to break a 7-7 tie and Lou Groza's 29-yard field goal added the insurance.

WILSON STARS

Tom Wilson, one of the 15 new faces on the Browns, combined with last year's rushing leader Jimmy Brown for 210 yards, and the alert Brown defense turned three interceptions into scoring strikes and recovered a Giant fumble in their own end zone to avert another score. Alex Webster's one-foot plunge got New York's TD.

Plum held up his end of the Ninowski deal, passing for three Detroit scores, two to Gail Cogdill in a 21-point third period. Pat Studstill set up two of them with explosive kick returns, and also scored later on a 9-yard pass from Plum. The Steelers were chained by the Lions' defense, scoring only in the second quarter on Ed Brown's 43-yard pass play to Preston Carpenter.

Unitas, hearing unfamiliar jeers by the Baltimore fans in the second half, threw two touchdown passes in the final five minutes to bail out the Colts. He hit Ray Berry for 21 yards then won it with a 14-yarder to Jimmy Orr, after getting the Colts away to a 14-0 lead on a pair of TD passes to Dee Mackey. Dick Bass scored two for the Rams on the ground, the second on a 20-yard sprint for a 27-16 lead.

Nicklaus Wins Again In Seattle Tourney

SEATTLE (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, the big schoolboy from Ohio State, shot a 68 Saturday to win $4,300 and the Seattle Open Golf tournament.

Nicklaus, who plays in the Portland Open next week and then leaves for another quarter at Ohio State, toured the first nine in par-34, and his first birdie didn't come until the 12th hole. But he cinched the victory on the 518-yard, par-5 15th hole.

He started out the first day with a 67. The second round was a 65, then came another 65, and his last round yesterday ran his total to 265, which is 15 under par on the par-70 Broadmoor course.

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Ruth Jessen of Seattle won the Sacramento Valley Ladies Open Golf Tournament yesterday and got $1,300.

Her score of 73-72-73—218 was four strokes under par and her nearest competitor Mickey Wright of Dallas, had 72-75-75—222.

Builders Run Win Skein To 7, Then Lose

The Billings-Hutchison Builders stretched their winning streak to seven Saturday with a 6-4 win over Concord Fitzpatrick Chevrolet, but the skein was helted yesterday when the tough Philly Rookies knocked the Builders over for a 5-1 victory.

In Saturday's game, the big hitting was handled by Ron Cole of the Builders who collected a single and a double. Winning pitcher was reliever Paul Chaffee, who took over for starter Buzz Wensloff after Buzz suffered a back injury.

Manager Joe Anselmo came back to the active list yesterday to start on the found for the Builders. He pitched the first four innings before being relieved by Chaffee and Dave Beswick. Anselmo struck out a total of 9 Philly Rookies.

49ers Listless, Lifeless Against Bears; It May Be A Long Winter

RANDOL

You won't find it in the ocean charts, but there was a record ebb tide in San Francisco yesterday afternoon. And there, in the resultant tidepool, floundered thousands of foolish looking sports fans. And a few sports writers, too.

Unless the tide comes flowing back mighty soon, mateys, the stench will be overpowering.

Two things were very much in evidence at Kezar Stadium in the early afternoon . . . hopeful faces and transistor radios. The radios disappeared after the Giant game reports, and the 30-14 rout of the 49ers by the Chicago Bears wiped out the few remaining smiles.

It is hard to explain away the listless, lifeless and often inept play of the 49ers against an unimpressive Chicago Bear squad. If this is a pattern for the future, it's going to be a long winter.

EVERY WEEK a big part of the post-game ritual for pro football players is watching the game movies. The two most interested spectators should be 49er quarterbacks John Brodie and Bob Waters. Their views of the actual game was from the seat of their pants both on the playing field and the sidelines.

And the reddest necks at the movie playback will be that of Coach Red Hickey, in anger, and the 49er offensive line, in embarrassment. Believe me, the line play was offensive.

To give the Bear strategists full credit, they seemed to know more of the San Francisco defense and attack potential than did the 49ers themselves. They couldn't have done better had they had a man in the 49er huddles.

A SHIFTING defense that went wide because they knew the 49ers have no threat up the middle, plus a running game that exploited the 49ers' lack of front line defensive speed and poor tackling in the secondary, was all that was needed to make it no contest from the opening whistle.

All afternoon, four or five charging Bears would leave the San Francisco forward wall standing flatfooted as they converged on Brodie or Waters. Badly rushed, the 49er passers had to completely forget the long passes which figured to be their most potent threat. It was throw short and wild or eat the ball.

It strikes me that this year's edition of Hickeymen is a front running ball club. Get out in front with a couple of quick touchdowns and then drive 'em crazy. When the Bears stole the script there was nothing left but confusion.

WE EXPECTED surprises from Hickey, and that's what we got. Unpleasant ones. Even the one "junk play," an end-arounder, ended with a dull thud when the handoff was fouled up. The threat of Bill Kilmer's talent was not used until the fourth quarter. Too little and too late.

Even Papa Bear George Halas had no need to leave his restricted coaching area except to congratulate Willie the Wisp Galimore after his scoring jaunts. And that's a new record in itself.

Disappointed? Yup. This team can win some games, but not until they quit playing touch tackle and realize that the exhibition season is over.

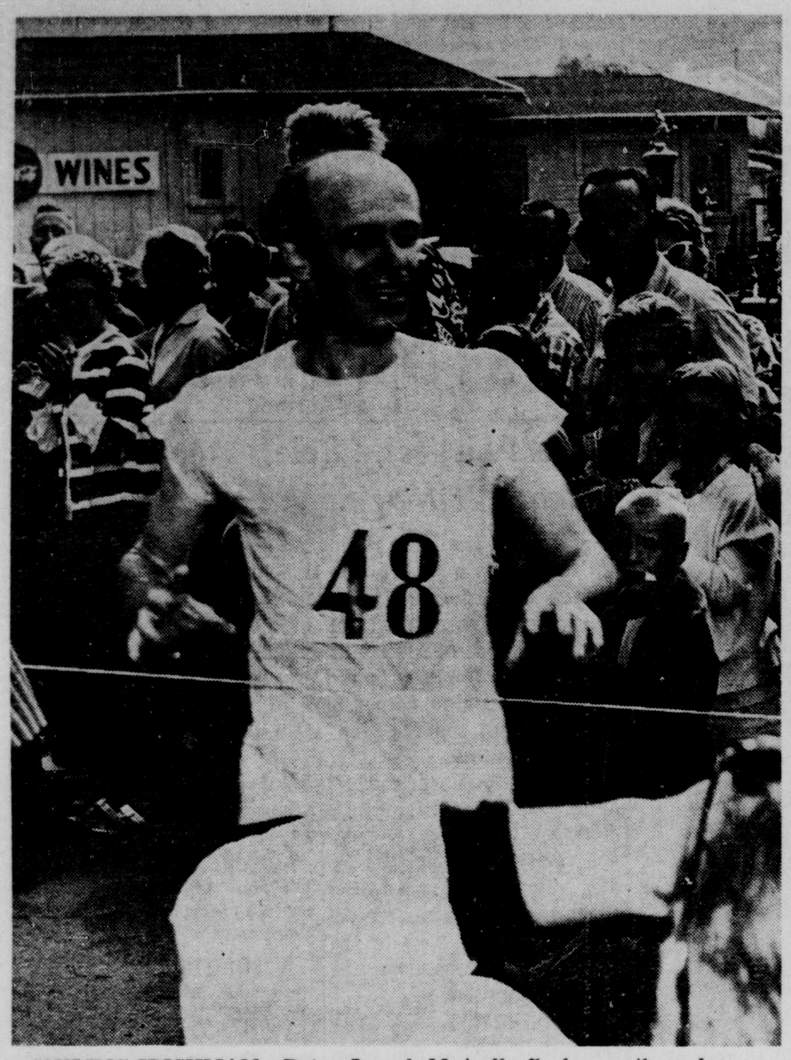
Irishman Captures Dipsea Run In Near Record Time



SMILING IRISHMAN—Peter Joseph McArdle flashes smile as he crosses the finish line as the winner of the 52nd Dipsea Race yesterday. He covered the 6.8-mile race from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach in 47 minutes, 30 seconds.

McArdle The Champ

Peter Joseph McArdle, one of the top distance runners in the nation, came all the way from New York to compete in the 52nd Annual Dipsea Race in Marin and it paid off.

McArdle ran the second fastest race ever over the 6.8 mile course and missed the all-time record by only eight seconds as he won the marathon event from a field of more than 100 runners.

The distance star ran the course around curves and over hills from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach in the time of 47:30. The record is 47:22, set 25 years ago by Norman Bright of the Olympic Club.

Darryl Ray Beardall, winner of the best time trophy last year in the Dipsea when he ran the course in 49:7, finished a disappointing 53rd as he lacked the energy to run a big race.

ENERGY SAPPED

It was learned today from Alan Beardall, Darryl's brother, that the champion distance runner had worked Saturday night until 10 o'clock at the Pacific Fruit Express Co. in Santa Rosa which apparently sapped all his energy.

Beardall, besides training for the distance run, has been holding down two jobs. Besides the fruit express company, Beardall is a postal employee in Santa Rosa where he resides.

Randolph Keller, a top distance runner at Redwood High School trying for the high school trophy, collapsed at the finish line after running the course in 60:48, which included his two minute handicap. He was rushed to Marin General Hospital where an examination revealed a case of heat exhaustion. He was treated and released, a hospital spokesman said.

COMPLAINTS

Art Articary, the race chairman, today complained that the California Highway Patrol did not cooperate with race officials during the grueling race. Articary said highway patrol Sgt. Walter Pudinski was not pleased with the lack of ambulance and doctors at the site of the race.

Said Articary: "He Pudinski) said he was going to write letters of complaint to the Amateur Athletic Union and the South of Market Boys' Club of San Francisco." The boys' club was the sponsor of the race.

Winner of the high school trophy was Jim McNutt of San Carlos High School. He ran the race in 53:53, including handicap. The Marin Athletic Club, with 32 points, won the team trophy.

Results of the race were:

AMERICA'S CUP DUEL

Aussies Optimistic In Spite Of Setback

NEWPORT, R. I. (UPI) — Australia's Gretel, beaten soundly in the first race for the America's Cup, was taking advantage today of a two-day postponement to try to stem the ignominy of what many felt would be a four-straight defeat.

Emil (Bus) Mosbacher, skipper of U. S. defender Weatherly, professed to be convinced there was still a tough sailing match ahead when the two 12-meter sloops meet again starting tomorrow noon.

And the Australians certainly were not conceding defeat.

"We were beaten by a boat that was better on a particular day," said Aussie helmsman Jock Sturrock.

But the $700,000 Gretel, 18th boat to try to take away the 111-year-old trophy of international racing supremacy, developed a marked weakness compared to Weatherly in winds of 18 knots in the opener before a gala flotilla of 2,000 pleasure boats Saturday.

The Aussie boat is "tender." That is, she heels far too much in strong breezes and cannot point into the wind in the manner Mosbacher could head Weatherly. Gretel came here with the reputation of being a rough weather boat.

It now developed her only chance appears to be outsailly Weatherly in milder winds which were forecast for Tuesday.

The American boat went over the finish line of the 24-mile course three minutes and 46 seconds ahead of Gretel. The distance between the two was 1,200 yards.

RUNNER-UP—James Jacobs San Francisco Athletic Club is pictured crossing the Dipsea finish line in second place.

Baruna Escapes Collision, Wins

By ALFRED MATSON

While the fog persisted throughout the afternoon on Saturday and caused some yachts to wander off course in the division races, no such problem was in store for the sailors in yesterday's class competition of the Sausalito Yacht Club championships.

Winds on both days were light for the morning starts but strengthened by mid-afternoon some snappy rail down races.

Arnold Haskell's famed Chubasco and John Kilroy's equally noted Kialoa, both up from Newport Beach, were entered in the handicap races and gave Saturday's program somewhat of an intersectional atmosphere.

Racing in cruising club "A," Chubasco gave skipper Jim Michael and crew of Baruna quite a scare as the two big yawls split tacks on the beat up the Marina front. Chubasco came off the beach on the port tack, Baruna closed with her on the starboard tack and the former held high on a course that would have had her smacking Baruna just aft of the port shrouds.

BARELY MISSES

At the last possible moment Chubasco fell off sharply and swept under Baruna's stern by a scant yard. Baruna went on to win the race, a bare 25 seconds over Orient and Chubasco finished third.

In Cruising Club "B," Pat Kirrane give his Andale her head and she romped home first by more than three minutes over Chrysopyle. Annie Too was third and Kia Loa was relegated to the fourth spot.

Considerable confusion surrounds the results of the class races yesterday. At one time or another the leeward mark, No. 14, became submerged by the force of the tide and many of the boats were unable to find it and, therefore, did not complete the course.

BEST RACE

It may prove necessary to re-run certain races. In the Rhodes class, Dr. Theodore McCarthy, San Rafael, provided the best race of the day by nosing out Bill Votaw's Ah Wahine by 30 seconds.

And in the Bird class, Puffin pulled a mild upset by besting the perennial winner, Skylark, and Robin finished third.

Dodgers, Yankees Lose, But It Makes Little Difference

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

When it comes time for the champagne, both the Yankees and Dodgers may have to drink it glass backwards.

No team likes to back into the pennant. There's somewhat of a stigma attached to it, like coming up through the service entrance instead of the front door.

Nevertheless, that seems to be the common course the Yankees and Dodgers are headed on in their aim to meet each other come Oct. 3.

Practically everybody who is anybody in both pennant races lost yesterday.

The Yankees lost . . . the Dodgers lost . . . the Giants and Reds lost . . . and the Angels lost.

The second-place Minnesota Twins were the only contenders who managed to win, defeating the Cleveland Indians, 4-3, to climb within three games of the first-place Yankees in the American League.

CINCY BLASTED

Pittsburgh subdued San Francisco, 6-4, in 10 innings, and the New York Mets all but extinguished Cincinnati's hopes with an 8-2 victory that left the third-place Reds six games back. The Philadelphia Phillies licked the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-1, and the Milwaukee Braves beat the Houston Colts, 5-4.

Lanky Gene Conley, who hadn't beaten the Yankees in nine previous starts, finally defeated them by pitching the Red Sox to a 4-3 victory although he needed Dick Radatz' help in the ninth.

Bob Buhl snapped the Dodgers' seven-game winning streak and won his 11th for the Cubs with a four-hitter. Rookie Nelson Mathews enabled the Cubs to end a 10-game losing slide with a first inning grand slam off Stan Williams.

Maury Wills was thrown out at second in his only attempt to add to his total of 92 stolen bases, then left the game in the sixth when he bruised his right ankle with a foul tip off his own bat. The injury was not serious, however, and he is expected to play tonight.

The Mets raked Cincinnati's 21-game winner, Joey Jay, for four runs in two innings and went on to win behind the six-hit pitching of Roger Craig. The victory was Craig's ninth against 23 losses. Marv Throneberry homered off reliever Sammy Ellis in the third inning.

KC Hurler Sets Control Record

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Bill Fischer, Kansas City Athletics pitcher with a 4-9 record, has broken a mark set 49 years ago by the famed Christy Mathewson.

Fischer has worked 69⅓ consecutive innings without allowing a base on balls.

The old major league record of 68⅓ innings was set by Mathewson with the New York Giants in 1913.

Fischer, 32, broke the record Saturday night as the Athletics beat Baltimore in a doubleheader, 4-3 in 10 innings and 5-4 in 11 innings. Fischer worked 7⅔ innings of the second game.

FIRST TOUCHDOWN—Fullback Jack Edwards (33) of Terra Linda is pictured hurdling over Fort Bragg tackler on four-yard touchdown run Saturday after taking handoff from quarterback Dick Schultze (12). It was Terra Linda's first TD in varsity competition, coming in the second quarter.

Terra Linda Rallies To First Grid Win

By JIM GILMARTIN

Twenty-two seconds remaining show on the clock. It is fourth down and five yards to the goal line. You trail 6-7, this is the first varsity game your school has ever played and there are 1,100 fans' cheers ringing in your ears.

What do you do?

Well, if you're a young man named Richard Schultze, quarterback for Terra Linda High School, you call a quarterback rollout to the right, time yourself just so your sturdy halfback, Don Drusike, can throw a key block on the opposing end, then you crash into the end zone with the winning touchdown.

Young Schultze and his Terra Linda teammates enacted that scene Saturday under a hot and hazy sky at Terra Linda to record a 12-7 cliffhanger triumph over the Fort Bragg Timberwolves.

MANY MISTAKES

After the dust had settled and the perspiration from this torrid day evaporated, Coach Pete Limm, although naturally pleased with the comeback win, restrained his enthusiasm with some criticism. "We did a lot of stupid things," he said, "but we got the breaks when we needed them. On some crucial plays they (Fort Bragg) got penalties and that's what helped us. A club like ours, young, inexperienced and small, can't make as many mistakes as we did today and win consistently. We'll have to improve."

Lim, a San Francisco State graduate who celebrated his 32nd birthday Friday, also had heaps of praise for some of his boys, mainly Schultze, Drusike, guard Stan Pareto, halfback Jerry Daniele, linebacker Dave Roscoe and fullbacks Jack Edwards and Ray Miller.

Terra Linda had a 610 lead going into the fourth period but Fort Bragg struck for a 7-6 advantage on a 47-yard TD run by halfback Don Dunsing.

ON-SIDE KICK

On the ensuing kickoff, with just minutes remaining, Fort Bragg, curiously, tried an on-side kick, but Terra Linda tackle Al Ruoff recovered on his own 48.

Eight plays later, after fullback Miller gained most of the yardage, Schultze pulled his rollout to the right behind Drusike's fine block for the winning score.

Fort Bragg took the kickoff and desperately tried a pass but safetyman Drusike intercepted on another clutch performance and the game ended.

Terra Linda drew first blood in the second period after taking a punt on the Ft. Bragg 42. After seven plays, with Daniele sparking the drive, Edwards plunged over from the four-yard line for a 6-0 edge. Edwards' placement for the point after touchdown was blocked.

TD NULLIFIED

Terra Linda had another score nullified by a penalty. Lineman Mike Finnerty blocked a Bragg pass and tackle Ruoff snagged it and raced 63 yards to paydirt. However, a Trojan was detected clipping on the play and the score was erased.

In defeat Fort Bragg dominated the game, getting off 44 plays to Terra Linda's 32 and outgaining the Trojans 307 yards to 187. Daniele and Miller accounted for about 75 per cent of the Trojan yardage.

Limm, in trying to develop depth and experience, used 25 of his 27 players in a two-platoon system. The heat also necessitated frequent substitution.

Sparrow Hero For Pacific

STOCKTON (AP) — Substitute quarterback Jack Sparrow of Novato will see lots of action this season if he can repeat the performance he turned in at the University of the Pacific-Brigham Young University season opener.

Sparrow, a recent bridegroom, almost personally downed the BYU squad 26-7 Saturday night in the Tigers' intersectional opener.

The 6-foot-4-inch senior second-stringer tossed two touchdown passes and then pressed over for a third. He completed 8 of 11 passes for 120 yards, including 4 of 5 in a second period 92-yard scoring drive.

Sparrow took immediate command against the BYU eleven. He passed four yards to end Mike Smith for the initial score. At half-time, he had maneuvered his team down to the one-foot mark.

In the final period he tossed 20 yards to Aaron Youngblood, capping a 90-yard drive with another touchdown.

Sparrow watched from the sidelines as first team caller John Alsup flipped one to Ted Watkins for a score on a 68-yard run-pass play.

Riordan Shades Redwood

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Redwood High School Giants will be getting their offense ready for Montgomery of Santa Rosa Saturday after their 14-7 loss to the tough gridders of Riordan High of San Francicso last Saturday night.

The Giants couldn't seem to get their offense moving enough against the Crusaders, who scored their winning touchdown in the last seven seconds of the hard-fought game at College of Marin Stadium.

Riordan was the first to score in the second period when fullback Tim Norman plowed through right tackle for four yards and a touchdown. The TD came on a fourth down play after Redwood seemed as if it would dig in and hold back the score. Tackle Mike Cregan kicked the extra point to make the scoreboard read 7-0.

Giant quarterback Jim Troppman showed his throwing arm which led to the only Redwood TD in the fourth quarter. After receiving the Riordan punt on the San Franciscans' 47-yard line, the Giants put together a touchdown drive of 12 plays. During the drive, Troppman tried eight passes, completing four of them, the last one for the touchdown.

REDWOOD SCORES

The pass good for the lone six-pointer was to end Jim Carroll from the six-yard line. Halfback Dave Auerbach brought the crowd to its feet following the touchdown when he skirted right end for the extra point, knotting the score at 7-7.

Riordan kept its ball control alive and started hammering at the Redwood defense. Then on fourth down from the Redwood four-yard line, the San Franciscans lined up in field goal formation. Everyone had his eyes on the clock which showed only seven seconds remaining in the ball game.

Then the big surprise came. Cregan, a burly tackle who had been doing the Riordan kicking, took the snap back from center and made a sweep around right end. Showing the speed of a back, Cregan pushed into the end zone with Houston riding on his back. Cregan then kicked the PAT.

DESPERATE PASS

Auerback got the Riordan kick off and brought the ball back up the field for a short gain as the game seemed to come to a close. However, officials called back the Riordan footballers as they were starting to leave the field, for one more play. Redwood couldn't score the big one as Troppman tried a 50-yard pass down the sidelines on the last play of the game. It was incomplete.

"They showed some spark," head coach Bob Troppman said of his chargers at the close of the game. "We will do a good job this year. No one likes to lose, but I think we did a pretty good job."

CALIFORNIA CANDIDATES

And he promised the state would operate on a firmly balanced budget "again next year with no new taxes."

In a speech prepared for delivery at a luncheon, the governor credited California's educational system for drawing "40 per cent of the space contracts in the country" to the state.

"And we will continue to lead the way just so long as we offer fine schools in a climate and physical setting no other state can match," Brown said.

"If we are to keep pace with the growth of California, we must double the capacity of our lecture halls and laboratories in just eight years."

The governor said the master plan approved in 1959 "will guarantee that new colleges are built where students need them and not where communities have influence with the government."

"Under this plan," he said, "we have started six new state colleges, three new campuses for the University of California and a new medical school.

"They form the foundation on which the space age has chosen to build in California."

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The activity tapered off slightly today in the California election campaign, following a day enlivened by an exchange between Republican gubernatorial candidate Richard M. Nixon and Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

Nixon, who took part in a parade and fiesta honoring Mexican independence day yesterday in Los Angeles, had a respite from the campaign today but will be back in action tomorrow with speeches and person-to-person campaigning in Southern California.

Nixon said that a visit by Agriculture Secretary Freeman to the state was "purely political" and added that he might have brought "his friend, Billie Sol Estes."

Freeman, who spoke at a Democratic rally in Woodland yesterday, lashed back at the GOP candidate with the statement that "these are the same kind of dishonest and totally irresponsible statements, without basis in fact, that Mr. Nixon is noted for."

Miller Avenue Parking Lack Complaints Told

Complaints that there is not enough street parking on Mill Valley's Miller Avenue between Reed Street and Camino Alto are to be heard at a meeting of the city council Wednesday.

The Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce has received complaints, according to Granville L. Beedle, secretary-manager, that parking has been much reduced since improvements of Miller eliminating center strip parking. Complaints are from Roy A. Ibach, representing the American Legion; Donald Geddes of 467 Miller Avenue, and Nathan Erb of 475 Miller Avenue.

Ibach told the chamber's board of directors that there is but one parking place during the day in front of the legion hall at 476 Miller Avenue. He said there are sometimes up to 100 cars to be parked.

Vacant House Robbed In Kent Woodlands

An old rifle, a shotgun and several rare books were reported stolen Friday from a vacant house at 141 Woodland Road in Kent Woodlands.

Aline Lois Hewson of 12 Laurel Avenue, Kentfield, owner of the house, told sheriff's deputies items were taken from a storeroom. A dining-room window had been broken, she said. The books were published in London in 1883 and had gold-embossed covers, but Mrs. Hewson said she did not remember the titles.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials of normal regularity

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs frequently cramp and gripe. Of all leading laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID's unique rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

Youngsters Find Spanish Is Fun With Costa Rican

By CORENA GREEN

"Se Habla Espanol" is a sign that soon may be hanging on the doors of seven kindergarten rooms and seven first grade rooms in the Reed Union School District on the Tiburon Peninsula.

The reason is the inception of a foreign language program starting with the smallest pupils and supervised by an exceptionally charming and able native of San Jose de Costa Rica. She is Miss Flora Flores, Reed District foreign language teacher specialist.

MISS FLORES comes from a family of educators. Her mother, who is now retired, was supervisor of elementary schools in Costa Rica and her sister is now teaching there. With good reason she boasts of the 85 percent literacy in Costa Rica.

"Even the littlest towns have a teacher," she explains. "There is a saying about my country. 'There are more teachers than soldiers.' We never have political crises. We have had only two revolutions, both of which were bloodless."

One of Miss Flores' distinctions is that she has two bachelor of arts degrees, one from the University of Costa Rica in 1931, the second from the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College in 1947. Not content with this she went on to get two masters degrees, one from Emporia State Teachers College in English literature and the second from the University of Kansas in Spanish. She received both in 1950.

WHEN SHE FIRST entered college in this country she did not speak English and recalls with humor her attempts at freshman English. Composition was her main problem. She wrote her themes in Spanish, translating them word by word from a Spanish-English dictionary. She says her teacher kept saying to her "We'll talk about your composition later."

Her greatest accomplishment that year was reading Beowulf in Anglo Saxon. First she translated it into Spanish, then into English.

Miss Flores has taught for more than 20 years in both Costa Rica and the United States. She has taught all subjects at the elementary grade level.

RECENTLY SHE has been television instructor in Spanish at the third and fourth grade levels in Kansas City, Mo. public schools where for two years 8,500 school children were in her audience plus 18,500 housewives in their homes.

During the past year she has directed the elementary Spanish instruction program in the suburban community of Prairie Village, Kansas. She has been a part-time instructor of Spanish for the University of Kansas and during the past summer was Assistant Director of the National Defense Education Act Spanish Language Institute held at the University of Kansas.

THIS IS THE FIRST TIME she has taught at the kindergarten level but she feels the children will make great progress because they will learn the sounds very easily. She does not speak any English to her pupils. She speaks Spanish, they listen and then they speak. Already they have learned the basic instructions, she reports.

Miss Flores teaches 10 minutes three times a week in the kindergarten and 15 minutes twice a week in the first grade. During the coming year the classroom teachers will observe and be trained in the techniques so they can carry on next year. Miss Flores will then move on to second and third grades in 1963 and fourth and fifth in 1964.

MEANWHILE AT the junior high level Miss Sylvia Vela, who has been teaching Spanish, will contiune with her upper grade classes. These will be expanded to the eighth grade so by 1965 Spanish will be taught in all grades.

Before long the district hopes to add another language, which one as yet undetermined. So eventually the classroom doors may frame other signs such as "Ici on parle Francais" or "Hier wird Deutsche gesprochen."

ROLLING THEIR 'Rs' over Tiburon way, youngsters in the Reed School District are learning Spanish from a native Costa Rican, Miss Flora Flores, who here coaches Robin Brown, left, on her pronunciation, while Randy Kuwatani and Glendine Porter listen. Seven kindergarten and seven first grade rooms are learning the Spanish language this year from Miss Flores, who has taught the language on television as well as in the classroom. # Knowing Little Trick Helps When Stitching A Bias Sash

By EUNICE FARMER

"Would you please tell me how to press a sash which has been cut on the bias? It is double and about 3 inches wide. I simply can't get it to press flat."—Mrs. R.A.

Dear Mrs. R.A.:

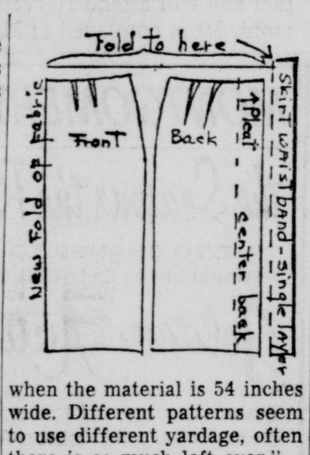
There is a little trick to stitching a bias sash and if you use it, you won't have as much trouble pressing it. As you machine stitch the seam, stretch the bias edge slightly. This will give you the amount of elasticity you need for the bias edge and will prevent the seamline from drawing up.

"I just wanted you to know that this is the first letter I have ever written a newspaper, but I think your column is the answer to all of us who sew. Almost every week I pick up a valuable hint which I use.

"Several of us have been discussing the amount of material needed for a slim line skirt



when the material is 54 inches wide. Different patterns seem to use different yardage, often there is so much left over."—Mrs. D.G.D.

Dear Mrs. D.G.D.:

If you are using 54 inch fabric, you can cut a straight skirt with only one yard of fabric depending on the type of skirt and your own measurements.

If you wish a pleat in the skirt, you can't be larger than 40 inches in the hips. This will take care of the waistband on the selvage, your seam allowances, 2 inch pleat, and 3 inches for ease. If your hip measurement is larger than 40 inches, you will need 2 lengths of fabric.

If you don't care for a pleat at the center back, your hip measurement can be 42 inches and still be cut from one length of fabric. This will also allow for a center back seam, which can be left open at the hemline for a small slit which would give you some walking ease. You will still have enough fabric for the ease necessary, your waistband and the seam allowances. Carefully follow the illustration for re-folding your fabric and cutting.

"When a pattern calls for skirt stiffening for the "A" line skirt, how can we know what to use? I just finished a cotton skirt and the stiffening I used made the skirt too heavy and stiff."—Mrs. A.B.

Dear Mrs. A.B.:

The type of stiffening you will use depends upon the pattern, your figure, and the type of fabric you are using. Usually, a woven-type interfacing will do a fine job of stiffening the skirt. This is usually applied to the fabric and the two layers are treated as one. A separate petticoat of stiffening is also recommended.

A Kiddie Special — Make stars, hearts, shamrocks, leaves, flowers or most anything you can dream up from small scraps of bright felt. Cut a small slit in the center to fit the buttons on a blouse or plain dress. Simply slip these over the buttons after the garment has been buttoned. Presto! You have an individual, personalized touch your children will love. They make delightful gifts. This idea won for Mrs. S. Enea, Afton, Mo., a tailor trix pressing board.

Your Sewing Glossary: Pile —for corduroy, velvet, and velveteen. Your corduroys and velvets have a pile rather than a nap and it is most important that all pieces be cut in the same direction. The colors will appear deeper and richer if cut against the pile and the material will not get as shiny and flat when you sit on it. To check the direction of the pile, it should appear smooth as you stroke it UP.

Please send me your questions that will apply to your fall and winter sewing. They will be answered in the column as soon as possible. Send all questions to Sew Simple, in care of the Independent-Journal Women's Dept.

Four Month Old Twins Mean Mother Is Constantly Tired

"I'm so tired I could die," a mother writes. "I have twin daughters, four months old. I used to be a secretary. I thought I got tired then. But now! I never have enough sleep. I can't keep up with the work. The house looks awful. I'm terribly discouraged. Is there any way to resign from motherhood? How can I live through this?"

There is no way to resign from motherhood. Taking good care of a single baby is enough to wear a woman out. Taking care of twins is twice as hard. Here are some suggestions which may help you to survive:

Get your husband to help with the baby care and the housework. Have your pediatrician talk with him about it.

Try not to worry about the house being a mess. You can work yourself into a breakdown, and still not catch up. Get used to disorder.

Arrange for neighbors or relatives to take care of the babies at least one afternoon a week. Then join a group of other mothers, away from responsibility. The YWCA has such groups. Many women's clubs do too, and some churches. You need companionship and a change of scenery.

Vary your work. Alternate heavy work with light work. Do everything the easiest way possible.

Take a few minutes off several times a day to stretch out. Even a three-minute nap can refresh you.

See your doctor regularly about your own health. Follow his directions carefully.

(A) A reasonably sharp spanking will teach your son important lessons. Don't feel guilty. Probably the punishment was the best thing you could have done.

Pack With Plastic

NEW YORK (UPI) — Plastic bags help make packing, and unpacking, easier. Travel experts advise that lingerie, jewelry and cosmetics can be put in the plastics, arranged to form a relatively flat surface and placed on the bottom of a suitcase. Belts can be placed along one of the edges. Clothes then can be put in the case in layers. The layer system makes it possbile to lift out the clothes until you get to the article you need.

Opening lead — ♣ K

West starts the clubs, and you win the third trick with the queen. You lay down the ace of spades, discovering the bad news.

GET TO DUMMY

You get to dummy with the ace of diamonds and return the nine of spades. East covers with the ten, and you win a finesse with the jack of spades.

Now your problem is to get to dummy for another trump finesse.

Leading your singleton heart at this moment is a feeble play. West will step up with the ace of hearts and return a diamond. That will be the end of you.

SAVE SINGLETON

Save your singleton heart and cash the king and queen of diamonds first. If East happens to have four or more diamonds, you need no help. You will ruff your fourth diamond and return a trump through East.

But the diamonds break 3-3, and you cannot ruff a diamond without allowing East to overruff.

You cannot get to dummy by yourself, but you can grind West into the dust. Lead your singleton heart and force West to do your work for you.

MUST TAKE ACE

West must take the ace of hearts and must return a heart. And there you are, ready for the vital trump finesse through East. Even if West had held the last club, a club return would not have helped him; you would ruff in dummy.

9 More Foreign Cities U. S. Targets

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (UPI)—Nine more cities in a far-off land are on target.

Their destroyers — if war came—are nine sleek nuclear-tipped Titan I missiles now buried beneath the dry sagebrush of the Snake River plain near here.

Simple ceremonies were held this summer when Idaho's first three-missile complex was turned over to the Strategic Air Command (SAC) on a war-ready basis.

Now two more complexes have been activated — adding mighty muscle to the nation's deterrent strength.

Before the year is out 54 Titan I missiles are scheduled to be ready. During 1963 squadrons of the newer Titan II's are slated for activation.

Each missile is designed to hurtle a nuclear warhead at speeds of more than 17,000 miles an hour over distances up to 6,300 miles. Each missile is keyed for a specific target.

Each is housed in an underground silo, built to withstand all but a direct hit by an atomic weapon.

Specially trained SAC aerospace crews man the underground launching complexes around the clock, ready to fire the monsters of destruction at a moment's notice if an enemy should attack.

Chaplain Lt. Col. A. E. McWilliams delivered the invocation at the activation ceremonies here.

"God, give us character and wisdom in the use of these weapons," he prayed.

A gusty, biting-cold wind seemed to hush for a moment as the plea tumbled from the chaplain's lips, and each word carried with startling clarity to the group of 60 Air Force officers, civic dignitaries and newsmen gathered for the event.

The sky was cloudless, and the sun shone brightly.

But 50 feet underground the weather went unnoticed. The fans replaced the howl of the wind.

The security-conscious controllers seemed uncomfortable in the presence of outsiders.

Three buttons marked "Launch" captured visitors' eyes.

"Will these missiles go farther than 6,300 miles?" someone asked.

"They don't have to," a SAC officer answered.

"When do you pick the target?"

"It's already been picked, these missiles are already keyed," the officer answered.

"Can you change your mind and destroy the missile after it has been launched?"

"No," the officer replied.

The three Idaho missile complexes are located at Orchard, Grandview and Bruneau. Six complexes surround Denver, Colo., and other three-complex installations are at Moses Lake, Wash., Marysville, Calif., and Rapid City, S.D.

All are war-ready or scheduled to be before the end of the year.

Titan II launching sites are to be activated next year at Tucson, Ariz., Wichita, Kan., and Little Rock, Ark.

The Air Force says the nation's Intercontinental Ballistics Missile (ICBM) strength will triple this year, then triple again next year.

In the words of Maj. Gen. Thomas P. Gerrity, commander of the Air Force Ballistics Systems Division, "this is the payoff year for the ICBM program."

Sen. Len B. Jordan (R-Idaho), who witnessed the Idaho activation ceremonies, said, "we will all sleep a little better now.

"God grant they are never used, but the enemy understands only the language of the sword."

He seemed unconcerned that his kitchen was but a few hundred feet from three nuclear warheads.

Supervisors Facing Long Agenda Tomorrow

Marin County supervisors took a vacation last week, so they will face a long agenda when they convene at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow in the courthouse.

Listed on the correspondence agenda are 23 communications ranging from such subjects as a plan for civic center parking prepared by Administrator Alan Bruce to a letter from the Marin Rod nad Gun Club on recreational facilities on Corte Madera Creek.

The afternoon session starting at 1:30 p.m. opens with 11 Department of Public Works matters, mostly routine save for an aerial map of the civic center. Planning matters starting at 2 p.m. number only five items.

Rates paid to child care institutions will also be taken up after 2 p.m. with the proposed vessel mooring ordinance scheduled for 3 and several assessment districts slated for 4 p.m. consideration.

2 Students Honored

Two 1958 graduates of Marin Catholic High School, Greenbrae, have achieved academic distinction at University of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Deanna Denman Spooner graduated with highest honors, and James Edward Gorman graduated with great honors. Both lived in San Rafael while attending Marin Catholic.

Tonight Is Monday Shopping Night Again In San Rafael

Tonight is Monday Shopping Night again in San Rafael.

It started last week with a fair degree of success, considering it was the first time—and on a holiday.

About 25 downtown stores will remain open to 9 p.m. A few of these have been observing Monday night hours in the past but it is hoped the additional buying opportunities will bring out more customers.

DEAL ON THE PURCHASE of ghost town Contact, Nev., by Contact Magazine was instigated by Marin realtor Dunya Chernenko who had the listing and thought to broach the subject to publisher William H. Ryan. There's now a 60-day option on the townsite which is subdivided into 297 lots.

NORTHWESTERN SAVINGS and Loan Association with offices in San Rafael and Mill Valley is listed among 30 top Bay Area firms (exclusive of San Francisco) having assets in excess of 10 million dollars at the end of 1961. Northwestern's assets amounted to 32.5 million dollars.

CIVIC CENTER MOVE—County Administrator Alan Bruce told representatives of seven local moving companies last week there is no possibility of varying from the county purchasing ordinance which calls for the best possible price for the benefit of all taxpayers when securing bids.

Some of the movers had sought to explore chances of having the move divided into smaller parcels by department so the work can be performed with local labor and equipment.

Bruce and assistant county purchasing agent John F. Hettrich pointed out there was no objection to several movers joining together in a single bid for the entire move or for Group A which includes most of the offices affected.

All bids are required to be in tomorrow.

Library's Books Worth $121,830

Mill Valley Library trustees Thursday night approved an evaluation of the library's books and records to allow renewal of the insurance policy.

The collection of 42,000 books is valued at $121,830, and the 1,350 phonograph records at $6,839. Only 33,700 of the books will be insured, librarian Dorothy Thomas said, since 9,000 volumes are in circulation at any one time and cannot be insured.

The three-year policy is expected to cost about $730. The insuring firm has not been selected, Mrs. Thomas said.

The board approved a trip by Mrs. Thomas to the annual convention of the California Library Assn., Oct. 23-26 in San Diego.

No action was taken on selecting an architect for the proposed new library.

Hub City Woman Overturns Car

A 64-year-old San Anselmo woman, trying to rid her car of a moth, drove off Redhill Avenue in San Anselmo and overturned her car in a ditch at 7:08 p.m. Friday, injuring herself and passenger.

Olga T. Gietz, 64, of 105 San Francisco Boulevard, the driver, was in good condition today in Marin General Hospital with a cut arm and broken elbow. Her passenger, Helen G. Frye, 56, of 71 Lincoln Avenue, San Anselmo, was also in good condition with a fractured pelvis.

San Anselmo police said Mrs. Gietz was driving east on Redhill Avenue, near Ancho Vista Avenue, when she noticed a moth fluttering inside the car. As she tried to shoo it out of a window, she lost control of the car.

Novato Boy Dies In Auto Accident

Bay Area Decision Due Tomorrow On Use Of Third Sabin Dose

Doctors of six Bay Area counties will decide tomorrow whether to carry through their group program of three doses of Sabin oral polio vaccine for everyone or to offer the third dose for children only—or not at all.

The first "K. O. Polio Day" will go ahead in Marin next Sunday as scheduled, with clinics at 19 schools, Dr. Eugene P. Shatkin, chairman of the Marin Medical Society's K. O. Polio committee, declared today.

Tomorrow's meeting of committeemen from the six counties, to be held at noon in Burlingame, is expected to result in a policy decision regarding the third dose, Dr. Shatkin said.

More than a dozen cases of type three polio, all among adults who had received the the Sabin vaccine, have been reported nationwide. Although the incidence is only one in a million, the U. S. Public Health Service has suggested local medical societies may wish to give type three vaccine only to children.

Next Sunday's vaccination is to be of type one vaccine. Present schedule calls for type two to be given Nov. 4, and type three on Dec. 9.

Yesterday, more than 3,800 prisoners at San Quentin received the type one dose — three drops of the live virus on a cube of sugar.

Kentfield Apartment Plan Causes Argument

A heated argument whether single family homes or apartments should be built along a "major highway" such as Sir Francis Drake Boulevard erupted at the Marin County Planning Commission meeting today.

More than 30 residents living off the boulevard near Oak Avenue and Terrace Court in Kentfield appeared to protest rezoning of property on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard from single family to apartment use.

"Sir Francis Drake now has all the characteristics of a major highway," said San Rafael attorney Julius Salinger, speaking for owners requesting the change. "It's impossible to maintain the area as a quiet, lovely residential district. This property will inevitably develop, and the people who own it are entitled to benefit."

Staff member Sidney Shaw read some ten letters from nearby residents protesting rezoning because they had bought property above the boulevard thinking it was a tranquil suburban area. Wrote one resident, "We want our children to grow up in an atmosphere of Ross Valley homes instead of Greenbrae apartments." One piece of property for which zoning was requested owned by Donald Day extends back from the boulevard well onto the hill behind. Day lives on a single family lot

OPEN TONIGHT—Stores in San Rafael and Corte Madera will be open late again tonight. Monday night shoppers have until 9 p.m. to fill their lists.

Clem Miller Has Valid License Again

Rep. Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera) has a valid California driver's license again.

His license was suspended Sept. 1 at the request of New York state resulting from an accident last February. It was reinstated three days later on Sept. 4, the California Department of Motor Vehicles reported today.

The suspension was allegedly because of a report filed by New York, indicating inadequate financial responsibility according to New York law.

Miller said his insurance was more than adequate to meet New York's requirements and attributed the report to "bureaucracy at its worst." His license now officially expires Oct. 28, 1965, when Miller will be 48 years old.

Thief Takes New Car, Wrecks It

James Richard Baber of 1504 Vallejo Street, Novato, had owned his new 1962 station wagon for three weeks, but already he needs another one.

Somebody stole Baber's car last night outside his home. It was found at about 1:50 p.m., two miles west of the city limits on Novato Boulevard. The thief had put 31 miles on the car before losing control and rolling it off the road on his way back toward Novato.

Police said the car was totally wrecked, but there was no sign of any injuries to the illicit driver.

Soldier Struck, Critically Hurt On Highway 101

A soldier from the San Francisco Presidio suffered critical injuries when hit by a car as he was walking on the Highway 101 freeway just south of San Rafael at 10:20 o'clock last night.

He is Willis F. Jimmicum, 22, of Headquarters Battery of the 40th Artillery Brigade, whose home is in Everett, Wash.

Southbound, Calvin Glenn Looseley of 38 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, glimpsed Jimmicum just as his car struck the walker before starting up the California Park Bridge, Looseley told the California Highway Patrol.

Patrol investigators found one of the victim's shoes on the roadway 51 feet from where Jimmicum lay huddled against the west curb. Marin General Hospital said he had a head injury and multiple internal injuries.

Jimmicum was one of 13 persons injured in eight injury accidents on Marin highways and roads during the weekend, in addition to a fatal accident near Marshall which killed a passenger and seriously injured the driver.

Francis Edgar Burke of Petaluma was both injured and cited when his southbound car hit the rear of a truck driven by James Arthur McPherson of Santa Rosa at 6 a.m. today on Highway 101 a half mile south of Miller Creek Road, Marinwood.

The California Highway Patrol, finding 100 yards of skid marks, cited Burke for speeding. He was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a cut right knee.

A Mill Valley family of four was hospitalized with injuries after a car driven by their father, Martin Bernadelli Del Campo, 39, of 45 Rancho Drive, went out of control at 3:40 a.m. yesterday at the Tiburon Boulevard exit to Highway 101.

The northbound car skidded 111 feet, according to CHP, then went down an embankment.

Del Campo suffered head and back injuries. His wife, Laura, 40, suffered fracture of the left arm; daughter Felicia, 16, back and possible internal injuries, and Margaret, 14, injuries to right hip and knee.

All were given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital. Felicia was transferred to Kaiser Hospital in San Franisco where her condition was reported satisfactory.

A stalled car on the Golden Gate Bridge at 11:10 p.m. Saturday resulted in a string of accidents with injuries to five persons.

The chain of crashes started after Mary Vanderhoven of Fairfield put out flares near her stalled car near the north tower while she went to telephone for a tow truck, reported the CHP.

Vaccine Use Apparently Up To Each Area

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some states have decided to discontinue use of Sabin Type III polio vaccine, but state and local officials in a number of places have adopted a wait and see policy.

Sabin oral vaccine Types I and II will continue to be used generally, checks across the country indicate.

Reaction was mixed after the U.S. Public Health Service announced in Washington Saturday that 11 confirmed cases of Type III polio provided sufficient evidence "to indicate that at least some of these cases have been caused by Type III vaccines."

The special advisory committee of the health service said all 11 confirmed cases occurred in adulst. The service recommended limiting the use of Type III vaccine to immunization programs for pre-school and school age children. Continued use of Types I and II for everyone was recommended by the health service.

Secretary Anthony J. Celebrezze—whose Health, Education and Welfare Department embraces the Public Health Service—said Sunday on the NBC television program "Meet the Press" that the odds are one million to one against an adult who has taken Type III Sabin oral vaccine developing the disease.

Celebrezze said that with these odds, he would be willing to take the vaccine himself.

Final decision on whether Type III should be given to adults in mass immunization programs would be made by local authorities even if there was no question about safety, he said.

Thief Cleans Up In San Anselmo

A burglar early today took a freshly cleaned suit and necktie, plus $20 in quarters, from the One-Hour Cleaners, 32 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo, police reported.

Officer Andy Grimes, who assisted in the investigation, said the burglar broke in through a boarded-up window after first trying unsuccessfully to pry open the back door.

The burglary was discovered at 5:35 a.m. by Officer Richard Timmis. The building was intact at 3:45 a.m.

Safecracker Drills, But To No Avail

A bungling safecracker punched 19 holes in a heavy safe at Lafargue French Laundry and Dry Cleaners in San Rafael last night but failed to get inside the safe.

Jack Ernest O'Shaughnessy, manager of the laundry, found the breakin this morning and called police about 7 a.m.

Sgt. Carl Selby and Officer Gerald Souza said the burglar had broken the handle off the safe door and hammered at the dial in addition to punching 19 holes in the door. The only items missing are small change and a dollar bill and a roll of four-cent stamps from a file cabinet.

Investigators said the burglar must have entered through one of the unlocked doors or windows.

Judge Refuses Death Speedup

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Superior Court judge refused today to speed up the death of Melvin T. Darling as the condemned murderer asked.

The 28-year-old killer is scheduled to die Oct. 1 in San Quentin's gas chamber. He asked that the date be advanced to next Monday. Superior Judge Norman Elkington turned him down.

Darling said he killed Alex Y. Malcomson III, San Francisco interior decorator here Oct. 22 to satisfy a suicidal and "morbid curiosity about going to the gas chamber."

Sports Car Spins Off Road

His death was the 18th this year in Marin County traffic. Last year to this date, there had been 11 traffic deaths in the county.

The driver, Larry Richardson Hale, 18, of the same address, suffered head injuries, a broken clavicle and internal injuries, but was reported in satisfactory condition in Petaluma General Hospital today.

The two, with Dennis McCormick, 19, of 924 George Street, and Dick Kilmurray, 19, of 818 Reichert Avenue, both Novato, were en route to the beach on the Marshall-Tealuma Road at 11 a.m. Hale and McCormick were driving identical Austin-Healey Sprites. Hale had purchased his only a week ago.

NEAR MARSHALL

Seven miles northeast of Marshall, Hale's car spun off the road on a right curve and bounced into the ditch. Hale was thrown out. Nicholson, still in the car, was crushed against a rock outcropping.

McCormick told the California Highway Patrol that Hale had stopped a few miles back and said he was having trouble rounding curves as his car tended to "fishtail." McCormick was watching as both cars went on toward the coast, with Hale driving ahead.

McCormick and Kilmurray rushed to give aid after the lead car crashed. They attempted artificial respiration on young Nicholson, although McCormick said, "I knew Don was dead for he wasn't breathing."

HUNTER SEES IT

Ernie Grundstrom, 40, of Petaluma, was hunting nearby and saw the accident. He said the car had been moving at moderate speed. Patrol investigators reported dirt and loose gravel on the road.

Nicholson was a Novato High School senior. The other three graduated last June.

He was born Aug. 10, 1945, in Richmond, where his father Elvin Lee Nicholson still lives. His mother Mrs. Lorraine Richardson, lives at 55 Gustafson Court, Novato.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Nancy Robson of Corte Madera, a brother, James, who is in the Navy, and his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Nicholson of San Anselmo.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday at the Redwood Chapel in Novato. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

NOVICE TEENER PILOT SOLOS IN EARLY MORN

REDDING (AP)—A 15-year-old boy with just 15 hours flying instruction filched a private plane at Grants Pass, Ore., and flew to Redding today, authorities said.

Steven Doty said he took the single-engine craft from the Snider Flying Service in his home town about 1 a.m. He touched down at Redding—about 150 air miles away—about 6:30 a.m.

Steven, who said he had no problems flying in the darkness on his first solo flight, was held by Redding police for Oregon authorities.

Asked why he did it, he replied: "Beats me!"

Volunteer Dies On Way To Fire

A Marinwood volunteer fireman dropped dead, apparently of a heart attack, at 2 p.m. Saturday while going to a fire in which two other firemen were injured.

Thomas James Sutton Jr., 50, of 600 Miller Creek Road received the fire call at 1:53 p.m. and dressed in his fire fighting outfit. On the way to his car, he collapsed.

Neighbors attempted to give him artificial respiration. The victim's wife, Alice, hailed Dr. Gwynn Thomson of 2405 Las Gallinas Road, Marinwood, who was enroute to the fire. Dr. Thomson pronounced Sutton dead.

Sutton, who was a San Francisco Municipal bus driver, had been a volunteer fireman for two years. He was a Coast Guard veteran of World War II.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at San Bruno Funeral Home.

The fire was the second one blamed on children playing with matches in the same area of Marinwood Saturday.

The first fire was at 10:58 a.m. in a vacant field west of the Pony League playing field in the 2200 block of Las Gallinas Road. It burned one-half acre of grass. Marinwood Fire Department had two trucks and 11 men on the fire for an hour and 12 minutes. They were assisted by aproximately 25 men and boys from the community.

The second fire was reported nearby at 1:53 p.m.

It took two trucks from Marinwood Fire Department with 16 men and two trucks from Marin County Fire Department with eight men two and one-half hours to hold the fire to five acres. They were assisted by approximately 50 men and boys from the community.

Bert Bahlke of 2137 Danberry Lane and Dean Swanson, of 595 Quietwood Drive, both were given emergency first aid treatment by Dr. Thomson for smoke inhalation and heat ex-

Marin Beaches, Parks Crowded During Heat

Unusually high attendance was reported at state parks as temperatures soared to 100 degrees in San Anselmo and Woodacre. Novato reported a high reading of 94 degrees, and it was 91 in San Rafael.

Fair but cooler weather was forecast by the weather bureau today and tomorrow, with a high of 80 degrees expected in San Rafael today. Temperatures above normal for the season were predicted for the rest of the week, however.

Despite fog along the coast, large crowds were reported at Tomales Bay and Stinson Beach state parks.

More than 7,000 persons were at Stinson Beach, either escaping the heat or watching the finish of the Dipsea Race, park officials said. Peak summer attendance at the park is near 10,000.

It was a clear, warm day on Tomales Bay, and the 1,500 people estimated by park rangers there was twice the number at this time last year and approached the summer weekend average of 1,900.

About 1,700 people preferred Samuel Taylor State Park to the coastal recreation areas, and Muir Woods National Monument reported an attendance yesterday of 3,539. Nearly 4,000 people spent the day in Mount Tamalpais State Park.

Didn't Like School, So Set It Afire

FORT BRAGG (AP) — Two teen-age boys who didn't like school have admitted setting an $850,000 fire which destroyed Fort Bragg's only junior high school Sept. 7, police said.

The youths, 13 and 15, were arrested Friday and gave only animosity as their motive.

Castro Shadows U. S. Base

Guantanamo Ringed By Cuba Troops

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

GUANTANAMO NAVAL BASE, Cuba (AP)—Fidel Castro has deployed about 5,000 to 6,000 troops near this U.S. base in eastern Cuba, according to intelligence reaching American Navy and Marine commanders.

But U.S. military authorities believe these regulars, bolstered by thousands of militiamen, are there to keep the Cuban people in check rather than to mount an attack on this vital American fleet base.

Guantanamo's command doubts the likelihood of any serious Cuban threat to the 45-square-mile base. But the entire military force of about 3,000 men has been trained to fight if trouble comes.

So far little of the new military gear the Russians have supplied to Castro's regime has showed up near this U.S. enclave. Rear Adm. Edward J. O'Donnell, base commander, said his patrols have not sighted any missile-armed torpedo boats which President John F. Kennedy said have been sent to Cuba.

O'Donnell reported Soviet-made trucks are operating outside Guantanamo's fence, but they have been in the area for some time.

Persons suspected of being Communistic bloc nationals, including some Asians, have been spotted near the base.

Castro has perhaps 100 Soviet-made MIG fighters, but there have been no intrusions of Guantanamo's air space since the spring of 1961.

Most of Castro's forces in this area are stationed some miles from Guantanamo's 26-mile perimeter, but the Cubans maintain a line of one and two-man outposts within 100 yards of the base fence.

In their green Russian-made helmets and green field uniforms they blend with the low scrub foliage. Cuban infantrymen also walk patrols along their side of the fence in clear view of the Marine watch towers.

A Marine officer commanding part of the U.S. defenses said the Cuban soldiers seem to be there to observe U.S. guards and patrols and to stop any Cubans from trying to escape over the fence into the base.

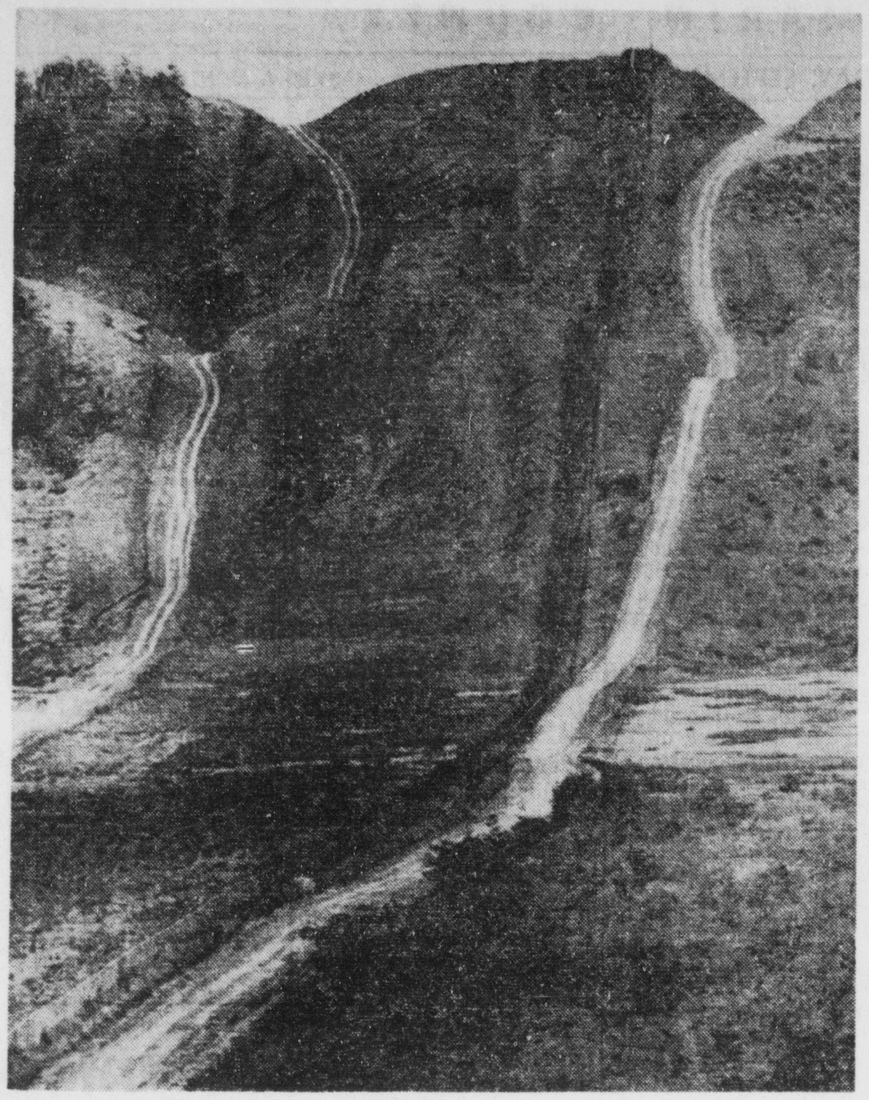
The Cuban troops, seen on patrol or behind low flimsy looking brush barricades, carry rifles and light automatic weapons mostly of Soviet or Czech make.

U.S. officers said the Cubans may have artillery emplaced deeper in the scrub-covered hill country but the area appears deserted when viewed from helicopters which range the U.S. side of the fence.

Observers can make out a network of roads—mostly hard-packed dirt—which have been built in the past year and which reach toward communities where the Cubans have troop depots.

U.S. officers generally rate the Cuban soldiers facing Guantanamo as of good quality and well disciplined.



GUANTANAMO FENCE — This fence, flanked by crooked roads on both sides, separates the U.S. Naval base at Guantanamo from the territory of Fidel Castro. The 26-mile steel fence rises seven feet and is topped with barbed wire. The hills are dotted with sandbagged entrenchments and gun positions. (AP Wirephoto)

Congress Eyes Cut To Haiti

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congressional sources reported yesterday that the United States was displeased with the Duvalier regime in Haiti and plans to sharply cut Alliance for Progress funds to the Caribbean nation.

The State Department has made no secret of the fact that it disliked Haitian President Francis Duvalier's 1961 declaration electing himself to another six-year term.

Serious concern also has been expressed recently over reports of alleged terrorist activities against the Haitian people by Duvalier's so-called "militia."

The Agency for International Development acknowledged in response to an inquiry that reductions in U.S. assistance to the Caribbean country were in the offing. A spokesman declined to reveal the full extent of the cuts.

Even so, it was indicated that the United States would carry out a loan commitment to build a new jet airport for Haiti and to continue a few other programs, such as malaria eradication. Funds for these aid projects already have been appropriated by Congress.

But Congress was not expected to provide any new aid money for the island country, which is a member of the Organization of American States.

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The State Board of Landscape Architects has raised the biennial license renewal fee from $40 to $50.

17th U.N. Assembly Opening Tomorrow On Sour Note

That moment of silent prayer or meditation opening the assembly session tomorrow is really a signal for three months or more conflict, with no holds barred.

There used to be a comfortable feeling of predictability — the North Atlantic Treaty Organization group stood together, the Communist group stood together, the so-called neutralists swung bodily one way or the other.

Now, for various reasons, the splits are showing up and voting as the measuring stick of support for your side—whichever it was—is a creaky indicator of either popularity or righteousness.

There are cracks in the NATO countries' front, strains in the British Commonwealth, stresses in the Asian bloc, fissures in the Latin American group, divisions among the African countries, quarrels in the Arab League.

Differences of opinion over U.S. nuclear controls in the NATO group furnish one element threatening its solidarity. There is a question whether Belgium has gotten over its pique at Western allies and their stand on the contentious Congo. The Netherlands voiced displeasure about lack of Western support on the takeover of West New Guinea by Indonesia, engineered by the United Nations.

Strains between the United States and its allies grew over the use of allied flag ships to carry supplies to Cuba. Italy and Austria have been at sharp odds for three years over Italy's treatment of German-speaking inhabitants of the South Tyrol, now under Italian administration.

Portugal's colonial policies drew Western criticism that created resentment in Lisbon. Condemnation of race laws has made South Africa almost a lone wolf. The British Commonwealth is split over the European Common Market.

Albania seems to vote with the Communist bloc on every issue but appears still to be excluded from its councils. Yugoslavia's show of increased friendliness with the Kremlin does not appear to have put it solidly back in the Communist camp. Polish delegates occasionally show a flash of mildness that does not measure up to the Soviet Union's harsher strictures.

Latin American countries are split on details of how to deal with Cuba. Political troubles at home that beset Brazil and Argentina, among others, make it difficult for them to steer their political course in the debate maze here.

India's feud with Pakistan over Kashmir, its difficulties with Red China over borders, are among the facts of history that complicate its position.

The Arab League shows a common front against another lone wolf, Israel. But the Syrian split from the United Arab Republic, the continued backbiting at league meetings, the shaky position of several governments, the recent U.A.R. walkout from the league—all point up the league's difficulties.

The French Community nations of Africa profess a solidarity against the aims of the Casablanca group led by Kwame Nkrumah's Ghana and Sekeu Toure's Guinea.

Dominican Rioting

SANTO DOMINGO, D.R. (UPI) —Violence which left a number of persons wounded here and in the northern coast city of Puerto Piata yesterday marred the proclamation of a new constitution and scheduling of presidential elections Dec. 20.

Exact casualty figures were not immediately available, but four youths were among those wounded here in a clash between rival political groups. In Puero Plata, several persons were reported injured when troops moved in to quell disorders there.

Brazil Premier

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI)—President Joao Goulart was to name leftist professor Hermes Lima as premier today, a presidential palace spokesman announced in Brasilia.

The spokesman said Goulart signed and sent Lima's nomination to the chamber of deputies last night. But this morning chamber president Ranieri Mazzilli replied that the legislative body was unable to confirm Lima for the job.

The palace spokesman said that, therefore, Goulart will appoint Lima under a law which permits the president to appoint members of the cabinet during the chamber's recess.

Hammarskjold Plaque Dedicated

UNITED NATIONS (UPI)—The United Nations today dedicated a bronze plaque to the memody of the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold and 15 other U.N. staff members who were killed in an air crash in Africa a year ago.

Hammarskjold

The inscription reads:

"In memory of Dag Hammarskjold, secretary-general of the United Nations, 1953 to 1961, and those who with him lost their lives at Ndola in September, 1961, in quest of peace in The Congo."

Speakers at the unvailing ceremony in the U.N. lobby outside the mediation room were Acting Secretary-General Thant, General Assembly President Mongi Slim and Mrs. Alva Myrdal of Sweden, chairman of the Dag Hammarskjold Foundation.

Friends and relatives of those who died in the crash were special guests at the ceremony.

The Hammarskjold plaque is the third to be placed outside the U.N. mediation room. The others are in memory of those who died in the U.N. action in Korea and of Count Folke Bernadotte of Sweden who was assassinated in Palestine on Sept. 17, 1948.

Excavation Deaths

The exact number of casualties could not be immediately determined but a police spokesman estimated 20 persons had been killed.

About 50 employees were reported to have been working in the building which housed services of the Belgian Economic Affairs Ministry.

Judy Better

The 39-year-old singer-actress was taken to a hospital in Carson City Friday afternoon after she was found lying unconscious at a friend's Lake Tahoe home, where she had been vacationing for four weeks.

Dr. Richard Grundy said Miss Garland was suffering from acute pyelonephritis in the right kidney, which produces a severe pain similar to kidney stones.

Argentina Plot

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—A plot to overthrow the government, blamed on Communists and backers of ex-dictator Juan D. Peron, has been smashed in northeast Argentina, the nation's security ofrces reported Sunday.

Under arrest were 14 men in the Misiones province bordering on Paraguay.

Earth Tremor

PASADENA (UPI)—A moderate earthquake rumbled through Kern County Saturday night followed by four mild aftershocks yesterday. Seismologists said the tremors could have caused damage if centered in populated areas.

Bowling Ball Bag Full Of Change Taken

Theft of between $300 and $500 in change was reported to San Rafael police Friday at 8:23 p.m. by Paul E. Byer, owner of Marin Vending, 24 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael.

Byer said he placed the money, contained in a bowling ball bag, on the pavement outside his office and then left for home where he discovered the bag was not in his car. On return to the office, Byer said he could not find the bag, containing vending machine receipts.

Ex-State Aide's Death Probed

OAKLAND (AP) — The coroner's office will try to determine by autopsy if Clifford Kuh, 69, former state health official, committed suicide.

Kuh's wife, Alice, found his body Saturday in the attic of their Oakland home after finding a note from Kuh saying he would not return.

Deputy coroners said he twice previously attempted suicide. Kuh formerly was chief of the State Health Department's Bureau of Industrial Health.

FBI COUNTERSPY ACTIVITIES TOLD

NEW YORK (AP)—"You don't know how hard it is for a woman to keep a secret for three years," says a young wife who knew her husband was feeding government information to the Russians while working as an FBI counterspy.

"I'm proud of the job he did," Lois Flink said yesterday. Then, with a sigh of relief, "and I'm very glad it's over."

Mrs. Flink, 24, said that when her husband-to-be, Richard A. Flink, 27, disclosed his undercover role shortly before their marriage in June 1960, she was "very nervous at first."

But, she said, "he explained the whole thing to me and I agreed to go along with it."

Flink, a Republican candidate for New York State assemblyman, said he was partly motivated in his undercover work by his hatred of Soviet anti-Semitism.

Flink, a Queens, N.Y., lawyer-politician, posed as a Communist spy for a $3,000 payoff while keeping the FBI abreast of information he gave to two Soviet employees of the United Nations, the department said.

Flink's Democratic opponent in the Nov. 6 elections said he was going to communicate with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy about the Justice Department report "to see if there is any more to it."

Flink, who never had held elective office, is running against Queens lawyer J. Lewis Fox, who is seeking re-election to the state assembly where he has served 14 years.

Fox, 52, said he was puzzled by some things in the department's report and was trying to figure out why Kennedy, a Democrat like himself, released it just at this time—two months before the election.

Kennedy was understood to have put the story out now because (1) the case was cleaned up and (2) because he thought Flink was about to use it in his campaign.

Kennedy's announcement identified the two Soviet U.N. employees who contacted Flink as translator Yuri A. Mishukov, 31, and political affairs officer Yuri V. Zaitsev, 38, who have since returned to their country.

The Russians, the report said, asked Flink for information about internal operations of the United States government agencies and personal information about influential members of Flink's political party.

A Justice Department spokesman said the Russians also asked Flink to advocate "policies favorable to the Soviet Union" if he was elected to the state Assembly.

Fire Destroys Home Near San Rafael

Fire early yesterday destroyed an eight-room house and its contents at 101 Orange Street in Bret Harte, just outside San Rafael, with loss estimated at $13,000 by Louis J. Bloom, Marin County fire chief.

The house was engulfed in flames when it was discovered and reported by an unidentified neighbor. The report was called into the San Rafael Fire Department and relayed to the Marin County department, Bloom said.

Keith Kuhl of 103 Orange Street, next door to the house, is the owner, Bloom said. Kuhl valued the old two-story shingle house at $9,000, the fire chief reported.

Kuhl also lost $2,000 in furnishings in the house. Marion McGary, who rented the house, said he lost $2,000 worth of personal belongings.

Cause of the fire was undetermined, Bloom stated.

Mother Lifted Down From Rope, Revived By Policeman

Mrs. Patricia Ann Moran, 40, of 4 Heartwood Court, was revived by Officer A. E. Myers and taken to San Rafael General Hospital.

Police were called to the home about 12:50 a.m. to investigate a domestic quarrel. A daughter, 15, told the officer her mother and estranged father, Thomas Michael Moran, had an argument. After he left for his San Francisco home, her mother had gone into the garage, the girl told the officer.

Myers went into the garage and found Mrs. Moran hanging from a long piece of clothesline. He lifted her down and revived her with artificial respiration, while the daughter called an ambulance.

Dial One Starts With Confusion

Marin County's super-automated telephone network was a tangled web of frustration this morning as "Dial One" went into effect.

Callers picked up their phones and found no dial tones. Business officers with internal dial systems had similar trouble getting outside lines.

The hapless individuals who forgot those numbers for which they had to "Dial One" first were greeted by canned voices informing them that "the number you have dialed cannot be reached; please check your number and call again or ask the operator to assist you."

Council Votes Cost Sharing Of New Trees

The Mill Valley City Council, at a workshop meeting Saturday, decided to pay half the cost of planting trees on sidewalks in the downtown business areas.

Cost will be shared by the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce, who made the proposal. Total cost, according to coordinator Normand B(. Black, is $3,780. The city agreed to contribute a maximum of $2,000.

Councilmen allocated approximately $40,000, said Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks, for flood control projects, including installation of new pumps in the Sycamore Avenue drainage channel; reconstruction of the La Goma Bridge; dredging of the Corte Madrona Creek and Sutton Manor channels, and reconstruction of the bulkheading between Glenn and Heather drives.

Also allocated was $58,000 from sales tax funds to complete reconstruction of the Corte Madera Avenue sewer line, improvements in the Sutton Manor drainage system, street improvements in the center strip of Miller Avenue between the 200 block and Reed Street, new municipal golf course restroom facilities and sidewalk construction.

"These changes are going to take place regardless of what people think of them," said planning commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. "However, I am opposed to merely extending a strip as this would do. It should be an overall change later. Just because you have a heavily traveled road is no excuse for rezoning."

Commissioners agreed they were opposed to a blanket rezoning in the area which would not give them architectural control of new buildings. They decided to rehear the application at their next meeting, for rezoning with architectural approval.

A Little Sickness Builds Up Immunity

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

A little sickness is good for you.

This idea is not new, but only in the past few years has it been voiced with any authority by spokesmen of all the healing arts.

What do we mean by a "little sickness" and how can it be "good"? First, we have to face the fact that all of us get sick now and then. We know that nearly every child who leads a normal, healthy life will become exposed to colds and to one or more of the usual childhood diseases like chicken pox, measles and the mumps.

These ailments in most cases do more good than harm to the growing child . . . because they set up a protective immunity against the more serious diseases which may strike later in life. For instance, an attack of the measles, say at four years, could equip the body with sufficient natural defense to ward off a polio attack 10 or 12 years later.

This type of natural immunity, tailored by nature to your needs, is preferable to the artificial immunizing agents that man has devised for mass innoculation.

Chiropractors favor natural immunity against disease. This type of protection plus regular chiropractic care of the nervous system —the master system—will ensure that disease is kept to a minimum of frequency and severity.

None of us can escape illness completely but when we do happen to become "off-color," let's take the shortest road to recovery. Chiropractic care of the spine, when needed, will enhance your natural resistance and immunity by freeing your nervous system of blocks which drain your resistance to sickness.

Music Chest Winds Up With Brilliant Ballet

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

A suitable finale to the Marin Music Chest's 28th summer concert season last night at Forest Meadows, San Rafael, was a brilliant performance by the San Francisco Ballet and its orchestra.

Judging from the capacity audience, the largest of the series, one might conclude that ballet is a favorite in Marin among the performing arts.

The performance of the 19 young women and nine young men was marked as a whole by elegance, style, polished technique and dramatic wit, highlighted by dazzling solo work.

Three ballerinas sharing top honors were Jocelyn Vollmer as Odette, queen of the swans, in Act II of "Swan Lake"; Sally Bailey in "Variations de Ballet" and as the Amazon captain in "Con Amore," and Virginia Johnson in the variations and "Divertissement d'Auber." Their dancing would be comparable to the best anywhere.

Also worthy of special mention were Sue Lloyd in the divertissement, and Cynthia Gregory in the second scene of "Con Amore."

As for the men, both Robert Gladstein and Terry Orr performed sensational leaps, spins and entre-chats too fast for the eye to catch the number, but Terry Orr made the outstanding virtuoso impression of the evening with a series a high diamond pattern leaps. He also scored a hit with his humorous antics as the thief in "Con Amore."

Choreography by Lew Christensen, general director of the ballet, and George Balanchine was imaginative and forceful, and the vivid costumes, as well as the traditional "Swan Lake" white ones, were all the more effective on the starkly simple but well-lighted stage.

There was one flaw. So much of the dancing was done at such a lightning-like pace that it was no wonder at times the dancers and the orchestra, led by director Gerhard Samuels, were not precisely together in tempo.

During the first intermission, Marin Music Chest President Mrs. Samuel Archibald spoke and introduced the six winners of this year's Marin Music Chest scholarships. They are violinist Sharon Johnson, pianist Carole Castro, soprano Valerie Meacham, flutist Wendy Eisler, pianist Kathy Winslow and pianist George Duke.

Creation of a new "planned community district" in East San Rafael is to be considered tonight by the San Rafael City Council.

Rezoning as such a district is sought for Porto Bello, about 174,000 square feet between San Pedro Road and the San Rafael Canal. Part of the area is now zoned for duplexes and the remainder is unclassified.

The council will be shy a member as it meets at 8 p.m. in the city hall with an 18-item agenda. Vice Mayor Charles W. Aby will preside in the absence of Mayor John F. McInnis, who left yesterday with a delegation of Marin business and community leaders on a flying tour of Russia.

The council is scheduled to act on an agreement with George S. Nolte, civil engineer, for preparing an aerial survey and topographic map for the proposed extension of Third Street.

Eight public hearings are scheduled: Subdivision of a lot on Wood Street, which was originally subdivided illegally and for legal subdivision of which the planning commission overrode the council; an ordinance amendment to outlaw billboards; proposed rezoning between Clark Street and Reservoir Road; appeal of a use permit granted Ghilotti Brothers and Equitable Development Co. by the planning commission to fill 18½ underwater acres off East Francisco Boulevard, and partial reassessment of Marin Bay Assessment District 2.

Guilty Plea In Golf Clubs Theft

After a preliminary hearing in Marin Municipal Court Friday, Stephen R. Greenberg, 19, pleaded guilty to theft of a set of golf clubs from the Meadow Club near Fairfax Aug. 18.

The charge was reduced to petty theft, and Judge Joseph G. Wilson set Oct. 9 for sentencing.

But Richard L. Milsner, 20, also charged with the theft, pleaded innocent. Judge Wilson continued the case until June 14, 1963, and said it would be dismissed unless Milsner got into any further trouble. Both youths are from Daly City.

Symphony Guild Scholarship Auditions Set

Applicants to date for the award include Mary Larson, Carole Castro and Marilyn Cavell, piano students, and Sita Dimitroff, vocalist.

The audition committee includes Salgo, Hugo Rinaldi, conductor of the Marin Youth Orchestra, and Sidney Gordon, Robert Jacobson and Miss Mabel Pittinger, members of local high school music departments.

The scholarship will be offered on a yearly basis.

The longest annual migration of any bird is the 22,000 miles some individual Arctic terns fly from the Arctic to the Antarctic.

Terra Linda, Marinwood Still May Vote On City Status

Residents of Terra Linda and Marinwood still may have an opportunity to vote on incorporation of the "City of Santa Margarita" because of a changed opinion of the Marin County Counsel.

County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel announced today he is withdrawing a report made public Saturday which he had planned to make to the board of supervisors tomorrow. That report had indicated that less than 25 per cent of the residents representing less than 25 per cent of the property value had signed a petition asking an incorporation election. Thus there would have been no election.

Broemmel said that in tabulating the signatures his office had been guided by a county counsel opinion that a husband or wife signing such a petition would represent only half of the value of the property if it were held jointly.

However, Broemmel said, the counsel has since learned of a 1961 court case which upset an attorney general's opinion to this effect and allowed a husband or wife to represent the entire property in signing such a petition.

This makes necessary the withdrawing of the earlier report, a restudy and submitting of a new report, the assessor said. He estimated it could be completed by the end of this week.

Increased Disability Checks Due Veterans

Increased disability compensation checks to Marin County veterans can be expected on checks received after Oct. 1, county veterans service officer W. P. Duhamel announced today.

The increase, due to enactment of a new law, will be reflected on the first check by an amount three times the regular increase.

Antonio Battaglia Now A Citizen, May Want To Play Ball With Giants

By RICHARD CARBONEAU

Now that Antonio Battaglia has his citizenship he's looking ahead. He thinks he'd like to be a baseball player, maybe with the San Francisco Giants.

Anthony, as he's known now, is 12 years old. He received his certificate of naturalization on Aug. 28 before Judge Alfonso Zirpoli in U.S. District Court in San Francisco. He came to the United States June 20, 1959, from his native Naples, Italy.

Had Anthony not been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Battaglia, he probably could have expected a life of hardship and poverty.

When Anthony first came to this country he was frightened, unable to speak a word of English. But he was quickly at home with his new family.

Vincent Battaglia came from Italy in 1935, and although Mrs. Battaglia was born in San Francisco, her father was an Italian immigrant.

The couple married in Italy while Mrs. Palma Ruth Battaglia was on a visit there with her father. They had one child years ago, but the child died at the age of 15 months and the Battaglias had no more. So they decided to adopt a child.

Anthony was legally adopted in 1960. He and his new parents were very happy. But Anthony was to have his new father only a short time. Vincent Battaglia died last year. However, Mrs. Battaglia takes a positive view even in this.

"I can thank God I have Anthony," she said.

"Anthony, meanwhile, has become quite American. He speaks English readily, has learned to swim, and enjoys American sports. He likes basketball. He hasn't tried baseball yet, but is sure he'll like that too. He attends sixth grade at St. Raphael's School and says he is doing well in his studies.

Anthony and his mother live in a pleasant home on Elm Street in San Rafael. He hasn't forgotten Italy or the father and brothers and sisters he left there. Someday he expects to go back and visit them. But he has plenty of time for that.

Sister Helps Frightened Tree Climber

A 14-year-old son of an Army colonel survived mountain climbing adventures in Switzerland last month only to become frightened when he was trapped 30 feet up a tree in his backyard in Greenbrae yesterday.

His 12-year-old sister climbed the tree and clutched his legs to keep him from falling until Kentfield firemen brought him down with a ladder.

Mrs. Christian Grombeck Jr. of 167 Vista Grande gave this account:

TREE HOUSE

The son, Christian Grombeck III, decided to build a tree house. At the insistence of his father, who is with the medical department of the Sixth Army at the Presidio of San Francisco, he equipped himself with a safety harness before going out to the tree on a catwalk extending from the sundeck of the hillside home.

Young Grombeck reached the tree and began to climb when his foot slipped. The safety harness slipped up to around his neck.

OUTSIDE CITY

Both Larkspur and Kentfield firemen arrived within minutes, the home being just outside the Larkspur city limits. Larkspur firemen, first on the scene, found their ladder would not reach the trapped boy. The Kentfield firemen's ladder was long enough, and Christian was rescued unharmed.

"We only settled here two weeks ago after three years in Stuttgart, Germany," Mrs. Grombeck related today.

"Last month the children went mountain climbing in Switzerland above Lake Geneva and nothing frightening happened. The boy panicked yesterday when his footing slipped and the harness went up around his neck. . .

BRIGHT OBJECT IS SEEN OVER MARIN'S SKY

Telephone calls reporting the object were received at Hamilton Air Froce Base, the sheriff's office, and the Independent-Journal. It was also seen from the fire lookout atop Mount Tamalpais.

Air Force spokesmen guessed the object may have been a falling meteor.

One San Rafael resident, Mrs. Charles Purrett of 45 Blossom Drive, described the object as a "big, blazing ball, leaving a greenish tail behind it" as it seemed to fall into the ocean.

Paint Brush Cleaner Is Burned

Charles Grandi, 33, of 98 Rollingwood Drive, San Rafael, was treated yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital for first and second degree burns, the result of a flash fire which ignited while he was washing paint brushes.

Grandi was burned on his neck, arms, chest and right leg, the burned area totaling about 15 per cent of his body surface. Hospital authorities said his condition today was satisfactory.

The fire apparently was touched off by a water heater pilot light while Grandi was washing the paint brushes in gasoline.

San Rafael Police Officer J. A. Loane found Grandi in a state of shock, calling his doctor on the telephone. The officer rushed Grandi to the hospital in the police car.

Grandi is associated with his father, Lloyd Grandi, in Marvelous Marin Realty Co. in San Rafael. The accident occurred about 5 p.m.

Earlier Kennedy Marriage Rumor Published, Is Denied

WASHINGTON (AP) — A long-circulated rumor — coupled with a denial — that President John F. Kennedy was once secretly married was published in Washington today.

The Washington Post carried an advance article from Newsweek magazine, which it owns, and which, like the Post, branded the rumor as groundless and false.

The White House, asked for comment, declined to discuss the matter today as it has in the past.

Rumors of an early Kennedy marriage have been circulated widely for more than a year. Persons or groups have distributed in various parts of the country copies of a page from a genealogy alleging there was such a marriage.

To citizens who write the White House about the rumor, a simply reply goes out: "The president has been married only once—to his wife Jacqueline Kennedy."

The Associated Press checked many sources over the months and was never able to find any evidence to substantiate the rumor.

Newsweek, noted that virtually every major newspaper, magazine and wire service in the United States refused to publish the report.

"They have 'spiked' the story despite what appears at first glance to be 'documentary evidence' and despite scattered publication of it—or hints at it—by hate groups and gossip columnists," Newsweek said.

The Washington Post said that it had reached the conclusion that "recent revival of the rumor has brought it to public attention and made notice of it seem desirable."

The story reached a national audience Sept. 2 when Parade, a Sunday supplement magazine, printed a letter from a reader asking if the story of the secret marriage was true. Parade said there never was such a marriage.

The so-called evidence for the marriage appears in one paragraph on page 884 of a privately printed family history, "The Blauvelt Family Geneaology," written by a member of the 10th generation, Louis L. Blauvelt, who died at 82 two years after the book was published in 1957.

In tracing the history of the Blauvelts, who migrated from Holland in 1638, one entry under the 11th generation says:

"12,427, Durie, Kerr, Malcom, Isabel O. Cooper, 11,304. We have no birth date. She was born Kerr, but took the name of her stepfather. She first married Firmin Desloge, IV. They were divorced, and she married, third, John F. Kennedy, son of Joseph P. Kennedy, onetime ambassador to England. There were no children of the second or third marriages."

the flares, was hit from the rear by one driven by Stanley Ford Leach, 30, of San Francisco. A passenger with Fretwell, Mary Cavallo, 20, of Mundelein, Ill., complained of a neck injury. Both said they would see a doctor.

A tow truck arrived. Charles Peter Soldavini, 35, of 5 Morningside Drive, San Anselmo, slowed for the tow truck and his car was hit from the rear by one driven by Ruth Lillian Dray, 36, of 2024 Center Road, Novato.

Soldavini suffered minor injuries. Two of his passengers were also injured — Richard Booher, 33, of 138 Ward Street, Larkspur, receiving a whiplash and possible internal injuries, and his wife, Mary Lee Booher, 22, suffered a bruised left hand. Booher was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital, where the others were given emergency treatment.

Thomas Kaehler, 18, of 595 Arlington Circle, Novato, suffered a shoulder fracture when a car in which he was riding with his cousin, Donald James Kaehler, 17, of 704 Alice Street, Novato, overturned on a curve on Novato Boulevard west of Stafford Dam at 8:45 p.m. yesterday.

Air Force S/Sgt. David Ronald Hixon, 19, of 657 McClay Road, Novato, was bruised when his motorcycle hit a car at 5:55 p.m. Saturday at Alameda de la Loma and Calle de la Loma in Novato. He was treated at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital. The car driver, Robert North Jackson, 47, of 258 Etta Court, Santa Venetia, was unhurt, said the CHP.

Grace West of Woodland, Yolo County, suffered a nose injury when a car in which she was a passenger, driven by Stanley F. O'Leary, 49, of Woodland, hit a tree at Tiburon Boulevard and Reed Ranch Road at 11:45 a.m. Saturday, CHP reported. O'Leary was eastbound on Tiburon Boulevard when the car went out of control, skidding 120 feet, the CHP said.

Novato Woman, 51, Reports Assault

A 51-year-old Novato woman was choked into unconsciousness and possibly raped early yesterday by a shirtless young man who entered the house through an unlocked front door.

Novato police said the victim thought she heard a noise at about 1:30 a.m. She got up to investigate, but found nothing, so she went back to bed.

At about 2 a.m. she awakened abruptly. She told police that a well-muscled young man, about 23 to 27 years old, was choking her. She struggled but lapsed into unconsciousness.

When she regained consciousness a few minutes later, the victim said, her pajama pants had been torn off and the assailant had disappeared. She went to an adjoining bedroom to awaken her husband, who immediately checked the house and yard, found no one, and called police and a physician.

Although the victim's bedroom was dark, she said there was a dim light from the kitchen and bright moonlight from the window. She was able to give police a partial description of the attacker.

She described the man as of medium build, well developed, with dark blond hair cut short on the sides.

Mrs. Rathbun's car was found abandoned in the middle of the bridge shortly before midnight Thursday and a search was begun. Her body was recovered at 2 p.m. yesterday.

The couple had three children, Mark, 5; Bruce, 9 and Scott, 12.

Mrs. Rathbun was an artist and a member of the Marin Society of Artists.

Miller Urges Election Of Those Who Will 'Break The Stalemate'

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — Rep. Clem Miller (D, Corte Madera) called upon Democratic workers yesterday to elect people to Congress who can help "break the stalemate" and get on with the job "we elected the president to do."

On the West Coast for a weekend of campaigning, Miller spoke at a meeting of the First District Causcus of the Democratic State Central Committee in El Rancho Motel.

The caucus, attended by some 50 representatives from the six counties of the district, lashed out in resolutions at Miller's opponent, Don Clausen of Crescent City for "introducing personal vilification and scurrilous attacks" into the congressional campaign; challenged Clausen to "reveal the names of contributors (to his campaign) and the nature of their interests," and passed a lengthy resolution illustrating the "leadership" of Miller and the "low esteme" in which Clausen is held by his own party.

Miller told the group he intends to fly to the First District each weekend until Congress adjourns to campaign for his third term.

In a hard-hitting speech, he detailed the necessity of building a strong northern Democratic bloc in Congress to "break the stalemate" brought about by three power blocs, the Republicans, the southern Democrats and the northern Democrats.

The first of three resolutions passed by the caucus called for an investigation by the Fair Campaign Practices Committee of alleged violations by Clausen of four sections of the Code of Fair Campaign Practices. References were made in the discussion to Clausen's connection of Miller with the "Liberal Papers" and with a report Clausen had said Miller belonged to a party other than the Republican or Democratic.

The second resolution declared Clausen expects to spend "over $100,000" in his campaign and said "there is evidence this money is coming from interests" outside the district.

The third resolutions charged that Republican "party spokesmen" have issued "a long list of falsehoods which received front page coverage in the local newspapers." It included a "factual statement" in which it charged that Clausen was fifth in a list of possible candidates against Miller; that Miller is the spokesman for the 72-congressman "lumber bloc" to discuss the industry's problems; that for the farmers he has worked for lamb raisers, nut growers, apple, grape and wine producers, and increased "industry control" rather than "federal control" of agriculture; and that Miller's education bill "specifically prohibits federal control."

Terra Linda Park Sites Under View

The San Rafael Parks and Recreation Commission will hold a public hearing Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the city hall on three proposed park sites in the Terra Linda portion of San Rafael.

The three sites, recommended to the city council last month as alternate to a single large park, are of three to four acres each in property owned by the Freitas estate. One is at the east end of Devon Drive, another at the rear of Terra Linda Unit 15 east of Trellis Drive, and the third beside the proposed extension of Freitas Parkway.

Recreation Director Joseph Rodota said it is planned to develop them as neighborhood playgrounds and park and picnic areas, without installation of tennis courts, baseball fields or other expensive developments.

Birth Of Pt. Reyes Seashore Stirs Glow Of Anticipation

It was a peculiar feeling that came over us when we received word that President Kennedy had signed the Point Reyes National Seashore Bill.

It wasn't excitement, for we had known from his statements the President intended to sign it.

It wasn't pride, for our part in it had been quite small.

It seemed slightly more than satisfaction and in the days elapsed since Thursday, this satisfaction has developed into what we can only describe as an inner glow.

It's a glow based on a real love for Point Reyes. It's a glow of anticipation. It's a glow based on the realization that the beautiful beaches, the wooded hills, the rolling interior and the towering cliffsides will become more and more accessable to people for their enjoyment, rather than less and less.

The bill establishing the seashore, as finally signed by the President, is a much better bill than the one introduced. It is fairer to the people who live and own land there. It is fairer to residents of other parts of Marin County. In short, it is a true example of the democratic process in action.

And now, the National Park Service has selected as its Point Reyes project manager, a Marin County man who has been working closely with Point Reyes for many years.

He is James E. Cole, of Marinwood, the man to whom the acquisition of property and initial development of the park has been entrusted.

We've known Jim Cole for many years and his selection is welcome. We're glad the park service didn't send some "expert" out from the East for the job. Cole has a real feeling for Point Reyes and a wide acquaintance with the people with whom he will be working.

We're only sorry that George Collins of San Anselmo has retired, for he, probably more than any other one individual is responsible for the new seashore and should have a say in its development.

With authorization of the seashore now complete, we hope that Congress acts quickly, before adjournment, to appropriate at least $5,000,000 for purchase of initial acreage to bring the Point Reyes National Seashore, now a paper park, into solid reality.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

APPRECIATE WHAT SELF-GOVERNMENT MEANS

Few people are aware that the word "govern" comes from the Latin term "guberno" meaning "to steer a ship."

This thought was graphically illustrated by one man who said that "a dictatorship is like a high powered ocean liner. It can go straight ahead at a fast clip. The danger is that it may hit an iceberg.

"Democracy," he added, "is like a log raft. You can't guide the thing very well; you wallow all over the place; your feet are always wet.

"But you can never sink a log raft," he concluded, "and if you keep trying you eventually get there. That's what we've got to do, keep trying."

The inefficiencies of self-government are often exasperating. But it is within the power of citizens, thank God, to right most wrongs.

The ship of state will stay afloat if we "keep trying" to reenforce it with the principles of morality and efficiency.

"Where the spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom."

(2 Corinthians 3:17)

Inspire us, O Holy Spirit, to play our role as citizens intelligently and courageously.

American men are getting bigger-chested. The average male coat size has increased from 38 to 41 in the last 30 years.

According to psychiatrists, people act more sedately than usual when dressed in white clothing.

New York City has 30,000 dope addicts, probably the largest number of any metropolis in the Western world. It takes them up to $75 a day, each to get their illegal kicks.

The National Dairy Institute estimates it takes between 340 and 360 squirts to make a gallon of milk.

A survey revealed that half of all cocktails consumed in the home during the year are served between Oct. 1 and Dec. 31.

More than 95 per cent of all business transactions are now conducted on credit.

In Saudi Arabia, where slavery is still legal, a choice young girl slave sells for nearly $1,200, a strong young man goes for about $600 and an old woman, "good only for watching goats," fetches $150 or less.

New highways wear tires out up to three times faster than do worn roads which have become coated with a smooth layer of dirt, oil, tar and rubber.

Americans give each other an average of 50 presents a year.

THE HIGH RATE of juvenile delinquency in large-income families is blamed by psychologist William T. Bourke on the fact fathers are too dedicated to their jobs. "The work addict's child suffers," he says, "because his father has no time for him."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Get To Source Of Social Problem

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Chip Day's column (8/30) presented "one of the most critical social problems today," and "detailed the problems, but offered no solutions or recommendations." The "team" the D.A.R. says it needs does not include religion.

Although not a member of their church, I must admire the position stated by the thousands of Seventh-Day Adventists in conference in San Francisco two weeks ago. They know that there can be no temporizing or compromise with the use of alcohol —the smallest use of which is abuse.

Ever since The Garden, humans have had to battle hatred, envy, lust, dishonesty, and all the other inclinations condemned in the Commandments. This is a full time daily challenge. It is inconceivable that intelligent creatures would compound their problems by allowing themselves to become enslaved by unnatural habits such as alcohol and tobacco.

It is fantastic that a business could be established to manufacture products which will guarantee lifetime resales simply by fastening an addiction on the user from the sale of the first bottle or carton. As long as such businesses are legal it is only reasonable that the manufacturers should be expected to defray, out of their profits, the expenses of the hospitalization, the jailing, the welfare cases, the juvenile problems, and the auto accidents resulting from the sale of their products.

The "education" member of the team would no doubt confine itself to counselling on matters of temperances. Automotive experts have proved that the fact remains that even one drink alters the driving pattern and mental attitude of a driver. Yet there is no obligation and no effort is made to prevent any guest from driving away from a place of public or private drinking, regardless of the amount of his consumption of alcohol.

Despite the fact that the return to reality is accompanied by penalties that more than offset losing oneself in an alcoholic spell, social pressures and advertising and the movies have taunted otherwise thoughtful people into habitual indulgence. One scarcely goes even to a neighbor's to borrow a garden tool without expecting the offer of a drink. Minors are surrounded by liquor in private homes, public markets, and all fields of entertainment.

Prohibtion? You'll scream "Liberty!" no matter how many millions of people and dollars go down the drain. While the education unit of the team plods along the liability and expense should rest with the manufacturers, the advertisers, the movie makers, the super markets, the irresponsible hosts, and the morally weak parents.

In short—as long as law, medicine and government confine their efforts to alleviating the plight of victims there is little immediate hope for turning the tide against the appalling mental, moral and financial waste caused by a completely unnecessary industry.

Phone Dialing Too Complicated

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Since moving to Mill Valley several years ago, we have helplessly stood by while an ever increasing network of telephone lines have been strung up in front of our view.

But now we revolt when a complicated dialing system is being thrown at us with no say so on our part. The telephone plays such an important part in our everyday life, why can not such an inconvenient change be subject to our vote?

We are constantly being called to vote for municipal judges we know nothing about, but our hands are tied behind our back while this upsetting change is brought about.

Are long distance calls becoming so commonplace that we can no longer ask the operator to place the call for us?

A Bigger Laurel But Record Bay

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your editorial "Beautiful Laurel a Record" was interesting.

Mr. De Fremery thought that the laurel (bay) with a 6-foot diameter located on the Parmalee Real Estate property might be a record breaker for size.

He might be interested to know that a laurel, located at 9 East Lewelling Blvd., San Lorenzo, is 37 feet in circumference at a point 3 feet from its base, which indicates a diameter of about 12 feet. Estimates place its age at approximately 200 years.

However, Marin County may yet rest on its laurels for the biggest bay (also known as the Oregon myrtle) is located near the William Nichols property in the Meadowsweet Area in Corte Madera.

This tree is 37½ feet in circumference and has a spread of 95 feet. Not having a transit, I did not measure its height.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Mrs. George Allen, wife of the famous pal of F.D.R., Truman and Eisenhower, read in the paper about a modest Navy football coach who, following the first Navy victory over Army in years, quietly left the train in Baltimore on the way back to Annapolis so his team could get all the huzzahs when it arrived home.

Allen nodded and said, "That's exactly what I would have done under similar circumstances." "The heck it is," hooted the knowing Mrs. Allen. "You'd have put the TEAM off at Baltimore!"

Brian James tells of a well-heeled tourist who dropped into a tiny village church in Essex County, England, for the Christmas service. Before it began, he button-holed the rector and said expansively, "I mean to give you a handsome contribution. I only hope you'll put on a good show today." The rector answered quietly. "It won't be a bad one. It's been running now for almost two thousand years!"

A well heeled tourist, just back from Rome, solemnly avers that a swanky new restaurant there, just opened, is called "The Forum of the Twelve Kennedys."

Being Sausalito Police Sergeant Acquaints You With Many Alibis

The other night, in search of truth, we went to see Sausalito Police Sgt. Stan Kelly on his four to midnight shift.

He was cooling his feet for a moment in the department's cave-like office, having just come off the Bridgeway walking beat.

The truth is, said Kelly, the Irish are natural-born policemen. "One reason why there are so many Irish cops," he said, "is because they have got a lot of wit and humor." He said, yes, he is Irish, a Catholic and a Democrat. However, he added, "I'm not a politician."

KELLY HAS BEEN on the force 18 years. "I was hired by James Doyle on Halloween to scare the kids and I've been scaring them ever since." He added, "I must be a pretty tough sergeant because, during my time, I have worked under four chiefs — Doyle, Ingalls, Mountanos and Goerndt."

Kelly likes the tempo in Sausalito, saying he has seen everything happen in tiny Vina Del Mar Plaza across the street, from dogs swimming in the fountain to people eating out of garbage cans. "Lovers, ball players, picnickers, I've seen them all," said he.

WHEN KELLY first joined the force, he commented, there were four cells at Sausalito and a city judge held court in the Council Chambers every morning.

Now the county keeps Sausalito's prisoners and the one cell remaining is used but occasionally as a holding cell.

Sometimes, the congenial Irishman said, people come in with lost dogs asking if they can leave the dog in the cell until the owner turns up. "I tell them no, too messy."

Kelly says he's the oldest in the department in age and seniority. He's 54. He lives in Mill Valley with his wife, Ann, a Sausalito school teacher. "I don't know if she is Irish," he said, "but I know she's a Texan."

He related that "I'm the only cop in the family. I come from a family of undertakers. Before I came here I was driving a liquor truck. Shortly after I came here I could stand on the corner and know nine out of 10 citizens by name. Now I know maybe one out of 15."

KELLY HAS GONE through all the force's jobs—check detail, juvenile, school patrol (which is no more) and meters. He was acting chief six months, he said, when Doyle was ill.

I've heard about every alibi in the book from people who get parking tickets, Kelly said. They say: "But officer, I only parked there for five minutes;" "I didn't know I had to put money in since I'm a local citizen."

"'I didn't see it,' they say," says Kelly, or "I didn't think it was working;" "I already put money in the meter or "I couldn't get a coin in."

"I always tell them," Kelly explained, "these meters pay off more interest than the bank. If you're gone five minutes and put in one penny, you save 99 cents because a fine is $1. No bank pays that much."

IT'S A CRAZY business, said Kelly. The other day for example, a woman called from San Francisco saying her roommate was in Sausalito on a boat and would Kelly please get her and tell her her cat jumped out of the window. It is her favorite cat, the San Francisco woman said, and I don't know what to do.

Asked if he had it to do all over again, would he become a policeman, Kelly replies, "Yes."

Little Chance Of Republican House But Few Seats Would Hurt JFK

WASHINGTON — If this year's congressional elections roughly follow past off-year voting patterns, here are the political consequences which now appear to be in the making.

The Republicans could win the House, but it is improbable.

However—and this is the crux of the stake in the voting this fall—there is every probability that the Republicans will reduce the Democratic House majority sufficiently so that President Kennedy's domestic legislative program for the next two years will face mounting uncertainty.

THE FACTS which justify this political assessment are these:

The present division in the Senate is 64 Democrats, 36 Republicans. To win control of the Senate the Republicans would have to gain 15. Of the 38 seats at stake, 21 are held by Democrats, 17 by Republicans.

Since seven of these Democratic seats are in the solid South, there are only 14 Democratic candidates facing serious contests and the Republicans are not likely to win all of them. Even if they did (and lost none of their own) they would be one shy of control.

THE PRESENT division in the House is 258 Democrats and 174 Republicans. To win control of the House the Republicans would have to gain 44. While the party in power has with only one exception —1934—lost seats in the off-year elections, the average loss is 38.

Only in times of acute business recession have the majority parties lost massively in the off-years as the Republicans did in 1922 and 1930, as the Democrats did in 1938. It would be an unexpected upset if the Republicans were able to win the House.

Losing control of the House to the Republicans is the least of the worries of President Kennedy and his political aides. They are worried about losing as few as a half-dozen House seats, let alone 44.

If the Republicans pick up just half the number of seats which constitute the average gain in the off-year elections (that is, 19), the fate of any and all controversial Kennedy-New Frontier legislation during the second half of the President's term will be in total jeopardy

THE REASON the loss of a half-dozen House seats would throw an almost insurmountable roadblock in front of the President's domestic legislative program is that there are so many Southern Democrats voting with the Republicans.

This is why Kennedy feels compelled to campaign widely and actively this fall. His goal: to try to hold every seat the Democrats now have as though his political life depended on it.

Will he help?

Those who say yes point to special elections last fall; where Kennedy campaigned, the Democrats won.

Those who doubt note that in 1960 most Democratic congressmen fared better than Kennedy himself. A winning presidential candidate almost invariably helps his party increase its seats in Congress. In 1960, it was the reverse. In 411 of the 437 congressional districts, Kennedy ran behind the winning candidate for Congress. Of the elected Democratic congressmen, 191 got at least 5 per cent more votes in their districts than did the President.

Bears' Super 'Red Dog' Throttles 49ers' Great Speed

Muscle stopped the fastest team in football so the question in San Francisco today must be:

"Will the fastest team develop muscle?"

For when the Chicago Bears whipped the San Francisco 49ers yesterday 30-14, it was hulking defense of the Midway Monsters that proved the difference.

Now, Coach Red Hickey of the 49ers must take steps so the Lions won't do the same in Detroit next Sunday.

"We stopped the fastest team in football and our defense played tremendously," declared the Bears owner-coach George Halas. "Our strategy was a 'super red-dog' to rush the passer. We did it in different ways."

The strategy gave the underdog Bears a victory in their National Football League opener after losing all five pre-season games.

Fleet halfback Willie Galimore turned in touchdown runs of 37 and 77 yards, highlighting the offense.

"We were being run over, simply manhandled," was the way a flushed and disgruntled Coach Hickey described the throttling of his club's offense The 49ers had posted a 3-1 pre-season record.

Hickey said, however, that the Bears' defensive strategy was nothing unexpected.

Kezar fans booed 49er quarterback John Brodie and cheered when Bobby Waters replaced him near the end of the first half. But when the seat of Waters' pants hit the stadium turf frequently, spectators knew protection was the thing the 49ers lacked.

The Bear defenders tossed the two 49er quarterbacks for 64 yards in losses. Doug Atkins, Bill George, Maury Youmans, Bob Kilcullen, Earl Leggett and Larry Morris took turns blasting into the 49er backfield.

Last Year, the Bears devised a defense to send the 49er shotgun spread offense into discard. Yesterday they showed their "super red-dog" to nullify the speed-burning offense of 1962.

Defensive halfback Roosevelt Taylor ran the Bears into a 7-0 lead when he intercepted a first-quarter Brodie pass and raced 42 yards to score. Atkins had pressured the quarterback, who threw only one interception in the pre-season outings.

Roger Leclerc's 17-yard field goal and a 16-yard touchdown burst gy Rick Casares gave the Bears a 17-0 halftime lead before an unhappy crowd of 46,052 at Kezar Stadium.

San Francisco, after gaining only 52 yards in the first half, snapped back to start the second with a touchdown drive which Brodie culminated with a six-yard run around end. Galimore equalled that touchdown with his 37-yard run.

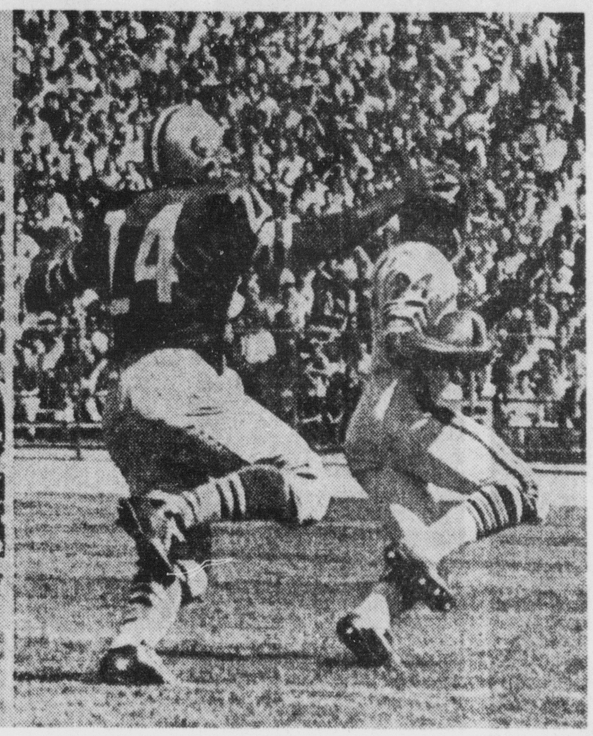
Flankerback Jim Johnson suffered a shoulder pointer, but generally the 49ers came out in good physical shape. One bright spot was the showing of rookie defensive end Clark Miller from Utah State.



TAKEAWAY—Roosevelt Taylor (24) of Bears intercepts a pass by John Brodie of 49ers and runs it to Chicago's first touchdown en route to 30-14 win at Kezar yesterday. Pass was intended for J. D. Smith, also No. 24. (AP Wirephoto)

Giant's Still Alive, But . . .

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The San Francisco Giants remain in the National League pennant race mathematically, but it may take an Einstein to win it for them.

With 12 games left on the schedule, the Giants stand four games behind league-leading Los Angeles. Even if the Dodgers only split their 12 games, the Giants would have to win 10 for a first-place tie. And the way Al Dark's team has been floundering along, that type of streak is unlikely.

Following the Giants' fifth straight loss yesterday, 6-4 in 10 innings, Dark and his Giants sat dejectedly in the locker room. They haven't won since leaving home last Tuesday and are one game away from their longest losing streak of the season, compiled early in June.

"They're all big losses," Dark mumbled when asked about the defeat in light of the Dodgers' 5-0 loss to Chicago. He said no more.

Willie Mays, who returned to the lineup for the first time since collapsing in the dugout in Cincinnati last Wednesday, didn't have much to say either, even though his three-run home run tied the contest 4-4 in the eighth inning.

"I felt weak," the amazing Mays said about his physical condition. 'If we'd won, the home run would have felt better."

In his first three times at bat, Mays struck out, walked and flied to center.

Manager Danny Murtaugh, who saw his Pirates lose 11 of 14 games to the Giants before the current series, believes the Giants still have a chance for the pennant, "But it's getting slimmer and slimmer."

"The Giants just weren't hitting against us in these three games," he said.

"They have a lot of games to make up. They have to get hot, and the other club has to start losing.

"Mays' loss really hurt them. Any time you lose 44 home runs and more than 100 runs-batted-in and the great defense he gives you in centerfield, it's bound to hurt the ball club. It's just unfortunate he got sick at this time."

Mays' home run, a high fly over the left-field wall, pumped life into what was otherwise a dying San Francisco team. However, Smoky Burgess turned the would-be dream story into a nightmare with a two-run homer into the right-field stands in the tenth off reliever Stu Miller.

Lefty Mike McCormick (5-4) will try to avoid loss No. 6 for the Giants tonight when he tangles with Pittsburgh's Tom Sturdivant (8-4).

S.A. Wins 1st Winter League Contest, 8-6

The San Anselmo Merchants won their first San Francisco Winter League baseball game yesterday with an 8-6 upset victory over the Hunters Athletic Club of San Francisco.

Ron Grayson went all the way on the mound for San Anselmo to earn the victory. Fielding star for the day was shortstop Jerry Ard who was instrumental in three Merchant double plays.

Ard did some good work at the plate also as he hit a double and a single. Other big hitters for the day were Bob Ingram who smashed a triple and a single and Larry Kline who collected a pair of singles.

Biber Stars In Warner Grid Game

Mike Biber scored the first two touchdowns for Mill Valley and Scott Laurie scored the third, on a pass interception. Biber's TDs culminated two long drives for Mill Valley in the Saturday game.

Practice games are scheduled for next weekend, also. Saturday the teams will be cut to 33 boys in preparation for the league openers Sept. 30.

Hornung Has A Field Day

Independent-Journal Sports
Independent-Journal, Monday, Sept. 17, 1962 9

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Paul Hornung is as ready as he'll ever be to help the Green Bay Packers defend their National Football League title this year, and, that spells M-U-R-D-E-R for six other Western Conference hopefuls.

Hornung, who was the NFL's Most Valuable Player and scoring king in 1961 as the Packers won their second straight Western title and the world championship, was almost painstakingly slow in rounding into form this year after being discharged from the Army in late July.

But he was in mid-season form yesterday as the Packers opened defense of their title with a solid 34-7 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, scoring three touchdowns, kicking two field goals and adding four conversions for 28 points.

A sellout crowd of 38,669 watched Hornuung's one-man gang job on the Vikings, part of a record NFL opening day turnout of 341,913 for the seven games.

The day's biggest crowd was at Cleveland where 81,115 saw the rejuvenated Browns defeat the Eastern Conference champion New York Giants 17-7. In other games, St. Louis, with halfback John David Crow leading the way, upset Philadelphia 27-21; Detroit overwhelmed Pittsburgh 45-7; Baltimore came from behind on quarterback Johnny Unitas' passing to upend Los Angeles 30-27; Chicago's Bears upset the San Francisco 49ers 30-14 and Washington and the Dallas Cowboys played a 35-35 tie.

SCORING CHAMP

Hornung, holder of the single season scoring record of 176 points which he set in 1960 in the second of three consecutive scoring crowns, gained 67 yards in 10 carries. But 50 of these resulted in touchdown runs, and he added field goals of 10 and 45 yards.

The former Notre Dame All-America, who scored a record-making 19 points in the NFL's title game last year, scored his team's first 20 points before Bart Starr hit Ron Kramer with an 18-yard scoring pass. He then added the final eight points.

Fran Tarkenton, manall afternoon by the Packers equally tough defense, tossed a 17-yard pass to Jerry Reichow in the closing seconds for the Vikings score.

Jim Ninowski, obtained from Detroit for quarterback Milt Plum, hit Rich Kreitling with a 17-yard TD pass in the third period to break a 7-7 tie and Lou Groza's 29-yard field goal added the insurance.

WILSON STARS

Tom Wilson, one of the 15 new faces on the Browns, combined with last year's rushing leader Jimmy Brown for 210 yards, and the alert Brown defense turned three interceptions into scoring strikes and recovered a Giant fumble in their own end zone to avert another score. Alex Webster's one-foot plunge got New York's TD.

Plum held up his end of the Ninowski deal, passing for three Detroit scores, two to Gail Cogdill in a 21-point third period. Pat Studstill set up two of them with explosive kick returns, and also scored later on a 9-yard pass from Plum. The Steelers were chained by the Lions' defense, scoring only in the second quarter on Ed Brown's 43-yard pass play to Preston Carpenter.

Unitas, hearing unfamiliar jeers by the Baltimore fans in the second half, threw two touchdown passes in the final five minutes to bail out the Colts. He hit Ray Berry for 21 yards then won it with a 14-yarder to Jimmy Orr, after getting the Colts away to a 14-0 lead on a pair of TD passes to Dee Mackey. Dick Bass scored two for the Rams on the ground, the second on a 20-yard sprint for a 27-16 lead.

Nicklaus Wins Again In Seattle Tourney

SEATTLE (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, the big schoolboy from Ohio State, shot a 68 Saturday to win $4,300 and the Seattle Open Golf tournament.

Nicklaus, who plays in the Portland Open next week and then leaves for another quarter at Ohio State, toured the first nine in par-34, and his first birdie didn't come until the 12th hole. But he cinched the victory on the 518-yard, par-5 15th hole.

He started out the first day with a 67. The second round was a 65, then came another 65, and his last round yesterday ran his total to 265, which is 15 under par on the par-70 Broadmoor course.

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Ruth Jessen of Seattle won the Sacramento Valley Ladies Open Golf Tournament yesterday and got $1,300.

Her score of 73-72-73—218 was four strokes under par and her nearest competitor Mickey Wright of Dallas, had 72-75-75—222.

Builders Run Win Skein To 7, Then Lose

The Billings-Hutchison Builders stretched their winning streak to seven Saturday with a 6-4 win over Concord Fitzpatrick Chevrolet, but the skein was helted yesterday when the tough Philly Rookies knocked the Builders over for a 5-1 victory.

In Saturday's game, the big hitting was handled by Ron Cole of the Builders who collected a single and a double. Winning pitcher was reliever Paul Chaffee, who took over for starter Buzz Wensloff after Buzz suffered a back injury.

Manager Joe Anselmo came back to the active list yesterday to start on the found for the Builders. He pitched the first four innings before being relieved by Chaffee and Dave Beswick. Anselmo struck out a total of 9 Philly Rookies.

49ers Listless, Lifeless Against Bears; It May Be A Long Winter

RANDOL

You won't find it in the ocean charts, but there was a record ebb tide in San Francisco yesterday afternoon. And there, in the resultant tidepool, floundered thousands of foolish looking sports fans. And a few sports writers, too.

Unless the tide comes flowing back mighty soon, mateys, the stench will be overpowering.

Two things were very much in evidence at Kezar Stadium in the early afternoon . . . hopeful faces and transistor radios. The radios disappeared after the Giant game reports, and the 30-14 rout of the 49ers by the Chicago Bears wiped out the few remaining smiles.

It is hard to explain away the listless, lifeless and often inept play of the 49ers against an unimpressive Chicago Bear squad. If this is a pattern for the future, it's going to be a long winter.

EVERY WEEK a big part of the post-game ritual for pro football players is watching the game movies. The two most interested spectators should be 49er quarterbacks John Brodie and Bob Waters. Their views of the actual game was from the seat of their pants both on the playing field and the sidelines.

And the reddest necks at the movie playback will be that of Coach Red Hickey, in anger, and the 49er offensive line, in embarrassment. Believe me, the line play was offensive.

To give the Bear strategists full credit, they seemed to know more of the San Francisco defense and attack potential than did the 49ers themselves. They couldn't have done better had they had a man in the 49er huddles.

A SHIFTING defense that went wide because they knew the 49ers have no threat up the middle, plus a running game that exploited the 49ers' lack of front line defensive speed and poor tackling in the secondary, was all that was needed to make it no contest from the opening whistle.

All afternoon, four or five charging Bears would leave the San Francisco forward wall standing flatfooted as they converged on Brodie or Waters. Badly rushed, the 49er passers had to completely forget the long passes which figured to be their most potent threat. It was throw short and wild or eat the ball.

It strikes me that this year's edition of Hickeymen is a front running ball club. Get out in front with a couple of quick touchdowns and then drive 'em crazy. When the Bears stole the script there was nothing left but confusion.

WE EXPECTED surprises from Hickey, and that's what we got. Unpleasant ones. Even the one "junk play," an end-arounder, ended with a dull thud when the handoff was fouled up. The threat of Bill Kilmer's talent was not used until the fourth quarter. Too little and too late.

Even Papa Bear George Halas had no need to leave his restricted coaching area except to congratulate Willie the Wisp Galimore after his scoring jaunts. And that's a new record in itself.

Disappointed? Yup. This team can win some games, but not until they quit playing touch tackle and realize that the exhibition season is over.

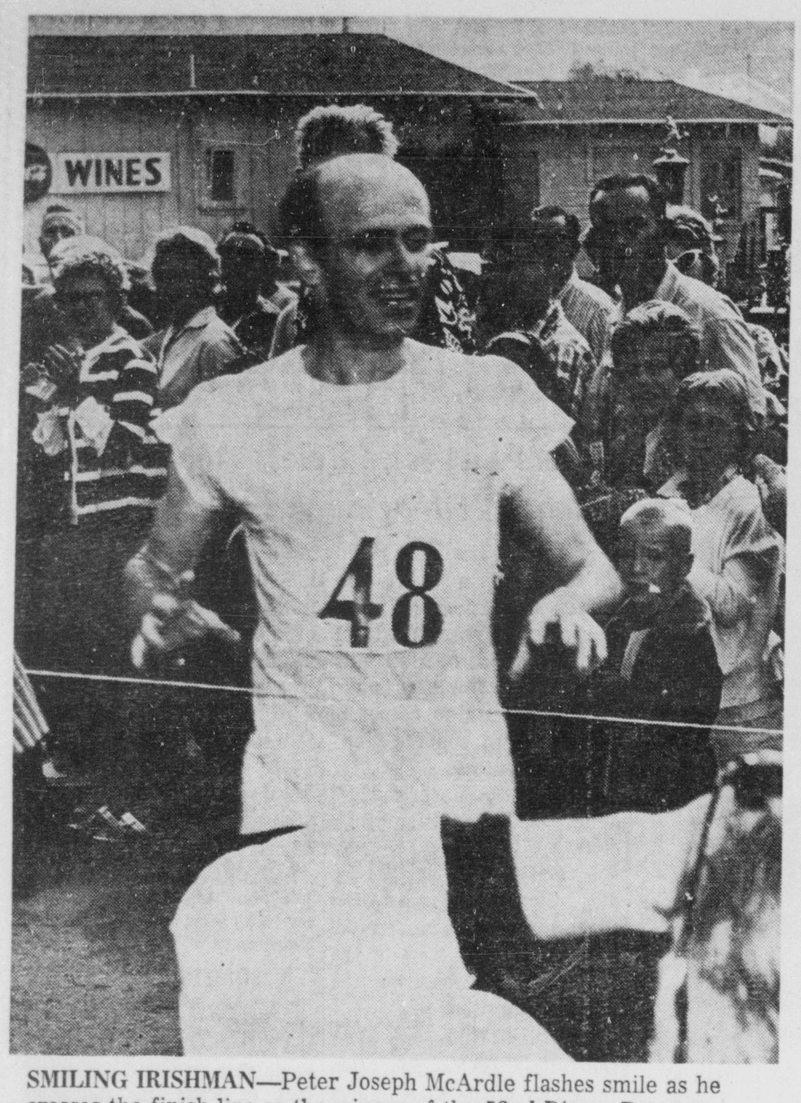
Irishman Captures Dipsea Run In Near Record Time



SMILING IRISHMAN—Peter Joseph McArdle flashes smile as he crosses the finish line as the winner of the 52nd Dipsea Race yesterday. He covered the 6.8-mile race from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach in 47 minutes, 30 seconds.

McArdle The Champ

Peter Joseph McArdle, one of the top distance runners in the nation, came all the way from New York to compete in the 52nd Annual Dipsea Race in Marin and it paid off.

McArdle ran the second fastest race ever over the 6.8 mile course and missed the all-time record by only eight seconds as he won the marathon event from a field of more than 100 runners.

The distance star ran the course around curves and over hills from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach in the time of 47:30. The record is 47:22, set 25 years ago by Norman Bright of the Olympic Club.

Darryl Ray Beardall, winner of the best time trophy last year in the Dipsea when he ran the course in 49:7, finished a disappointing 53rd as he lacked the energy to run a big race.

ENERGY SAPPED

It was learned today from Alan Beardall, Darryl's brother, that the champion distance runner had worked Saturday night until 10 o'clock at the Pacific Fruit Express Co. in Santa Rosa which apparently sapped all his energy.

Beardall, besides training for the distance run, has been holding down two jobs. Besides the fruit express company, Beardall is a postal employee in Santa Rosa where he resides.

Randolph Keller, a top distance runner at Redwood High School trying for the high school trophy, collapsed at the finish line after running the course in 60:48, which included his two minute handicap. He was rushed to Marin General Hospital where an examination revealed a case of heat exhaustion. He was treated and released, a hospital spokesman said.

COMPLAINTS

Art Articary, the race chairman, today complained that the California Highway Patrol did not cooperate with race officials during the grueling race. Articary said highway patrol Sgt. Walter Pudinski was not pleased with the lack of ambulance and doctors at the site of the race.

Said Articary: "He Pudinski) said he was going to write letters of complaint to the Amateur Athletic Union and the South of Market Boys' Club of San Francisco." The boys' club was the sponsor of the race.

Winner of the high school trophy was Jim McNutt of San Carlos High School. He ran the race in 53:53, including handicap. The Marin Athletic Club, with 32 points, won the team trophy.

Results of the race were:

AMERICA'S CUP DUEL

Aussies Optimistic In Spite Of Setback

NEWPORT, R. I. (UPI) — Australia's Gretel, beaten soundly in the first race for the America's Cup, was taking advantage today of a two-day postponement to try to stem the ignominy of what many felt would be a four-straight defeat.

Emil (Bus) Mosbacher, skipper of U. S. defender Weatherly, professed to be convinced there was still a tough sailing match ahead when the two 12-meter sloops meet again starting tomorrow noon.

And the Australians certainly were not conceding defeat.

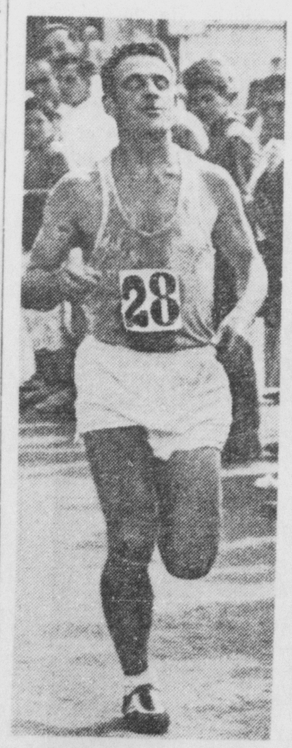
"We were beaten by a boat that was better on a particular day," said Aussie helmsman Jock Sturrock.

But the $700,000 Gretel, 18th boat to try to take away the 111-year-old trophy of international racing supremacy, developed a marked weakness compared to Weatherly in winds of 18 knots in the opener before a gala flotilla of 2,-000 pleasure boats Saturday.

The Aussie boat is "tender." That is, she heels far too much in strong breezes and cannot point into the wind in the manner Mosbacher could head Weatherly. Gretel came here with the reputation of being a rough weather boat.

It now developed her only chance appears to be outsailly Weatherly in milder winds which were forecast for Tuesday.

The American boat went over the finish line of the 24-mile course three minutes and 46 seconds ahead of Gretel. The distance between the two was 1,200 yards.



RUNNER-UP—James Jacobs San Francisco Athletic Club is pictured crossing the Dipsea finish line in second place.

SAUSALITO REGATTA

Baruna Escapes Collision, Wins

By ALFRED MATSON

While the fog persisted throughout the afternoon on Saturday and caused some yachts to wander off course in the division races, no such problem was in store for the sailors in yesterday's class competition of the Sausalito Yacht Club championships.

Winds on both days were light for the morning starts but strengthened by mid-afternoon some snappy rail down races.

Arnold Haskell's famed Chubasco and John Kilroy's equally noted Kialoa, both up from Newport Beach, were entered in the handicap races and gave Saturday's program somewhat of an intersectional atmosphere.

Racing in cruising club "A," Chubasco gave skipper Jim Michael and crew of Baruna quite a scare as the two big yawls split tacks on the beat up the Marina front. Chubasco came off the beach on the port tack, Baruna closed with her on the starboard tack and the former held high on a course that would have had her smacking Baruna just aft of the port shrouds.

BARELY MISSES

At the last possible moment Chubasco fell off sharply and swept under Baruna's stern by a scant yard. Baruna went on to win the race, a bare 25 seconds over Orient and Chubasco finished third.

In Cruising Club "B," Pat Kirrane give his Andale her head and she romped home first by more than three minutes over Chrysopyle. Annie Too was third and Kia Loa was relegated to the fourth spot.

Considerable confusion surrounds the results of the class races yesterday. At one time or another the leeward mark, No. 14, became submerged by the force of the tide and many of the boats were unable to find it and, therefore, did not complete the course.

BEST RACE

It may prove necessary to re-run certain races. In the Rhodes class, Dr. Theodore McCarthy, San Rafael, provided the best race of the day by nosing out Bill Votaw's Ah Wahine by 30 seconds.

And in the Bird class, Puffin pulled a mild upset by besting the perennial winner, Skylark, and Robin finished third.

Dodgers, Yankees Lose, But It Makes Little Difference

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

When it comes time for the champagne, both the Yankees and Dodgers may have to drink it glass backwards.

No team likes to back into the pennant. There's somewhat of a stigma attached to it, like coming up through the service entrance instead of the front door.

Nevertheless, that seems to be the common course the Yankees and Dodgers are headed on in their aim to meet each other come Oct. 3.

Practically everybody who is anybody in both pennant races lost yesterday.

The Yankees lost . . . the Dodgers lost . . . the Giants and Reds lost . . . and the Angels lost.

The second-place Minnesota Twins were the only contenders who managed to win, defeating the Cleveland Indians, 4-3, to climb within three games of the first-place Yankees in the American League.

CINCY BLASTED

Pittsburgh subdued San Francisco, 6-4, in 10 innings, and the New York Mets all but extinguished Cincinnati's hopes with an 8-2 victory that left the third-place Reds six games back. The Philadelphia Phillies licked the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-1, and the Milwaukee Braves beat the Houston Colts, 5-4.

Lanky Gene Conley, who hadn't beaten the Yankees in nine previous starts, finally defeated them by pitching the Red Sox to a 4-3 victory although he needed Dick Radatz' help in the ninth.

Bob Buhl snapped the Dodgers' seven-game winning streak and won his 11th for the Cubs with a four-hitter. Rookie Nelson Mathews enabled the Cubs to end a 10-game losing slide with a first inning grand slam off Stan Williams.

Maury Wills was thrown out at second in his only attempt to add to his total of 92 stolen bases, then left the game in the sixth when he bruised his right ankle with a foul tip off his own bat. The injury was not serious, however, and he is expected to play tonight.

The Mets raked Cincinnati's 21-game winner, Joey Jay, for four runs in two innings and went on to win behind the six-hit pitching of Roger Craig. The victory was Craig's ninth against 23 losses. Marv Throneberry homered off reliever Sammy Ellis in the third inning.

KC Hurler Sets Control Record

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Bill Fischer, Kansas City Athletics pitcher with a 4-9 record, has broken a mark set 49 years ago by the famed Christy Mathewson.

Fischer has worked 69⅓ consecutive innings without allowing a base on balls.

The old major league record of 68⅓ innings was set by Mathewson with the New York Giants in 1913.

Fischer, 32, broke the record Saturday night as the Athletics beat Baltimore in a doubleheader, 4-3 in 10 innings and 5-4 in 11 innings. Fischer worked 7⅔ innings of the second game.

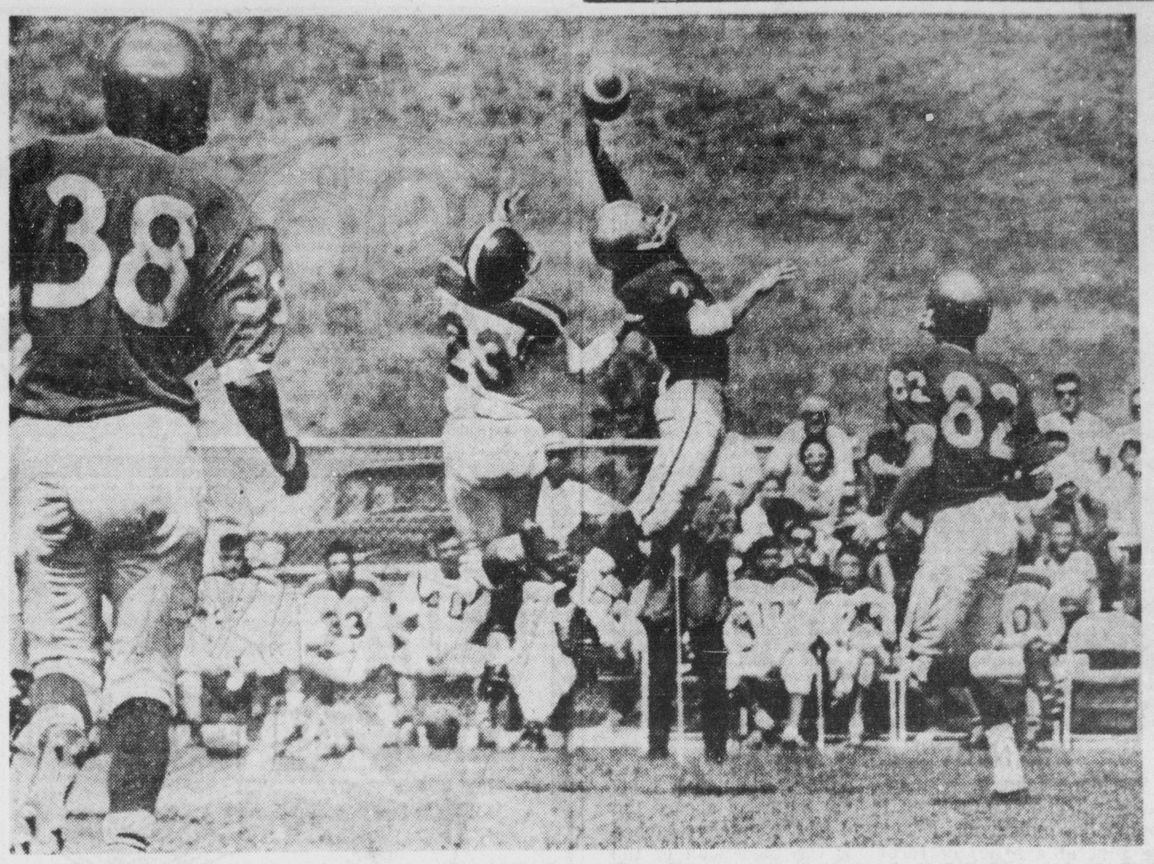
FIRST TOUCHDOWN—Fullback Jack Edwards (33) of Terra Linda is pictured hurdling over Fort Bragg tackler on four-yard touchdown run Saturday after taking handoff from quarterback Dick Schultze (12). It was Terra Linda's first TD in varsity competition, coming in the second quarter.



BALANCING ACT—Terra Linda quarterback Dick Schultze appears to be balancing ball on fingertips in first quarter. He was attempting to intercept a Fort Bragg pass, but the ball fell incomplete. Pass was intended for Dennis Alfaro. Other T.L. players are Dave Roscoe (38) and Bob Cooney (82). T.L. won, 12-7. (Independent-Journal photos)

Terra Linda Rallies To First Grid Win

By JIM GILMARTIN

Twenty-two seconds remaining show on the clock. It is fourth down and five yards to the goal line. You trail 6-7, this is the first varsity game your school has ever played and there are 1,100 fans' cheers ringing in your ears.

What do you do?

Well, if you're a young man named Richard Schultze, quarterback for Terra Linda High School, you call a quarterback rollout to the right, time yourself just so your sturdy halfback, Don Drusike, can throw a key block on the opposing end, then you crash into the end zone with the winning touchdown.

Young Schultze and his Terra Linda teammates enacted that scene Saturday under a hot and hazy sky at Terra Linda to record a 12-7 cliffhanger triumph over the Fort Bragg Timberwolves.

MANY MISTAKES

After the dust had settled and the perspiration from this torrid day evaporated, Coach Pete Limm, although naturally pleased with the comeback win, restrained his enthusiasm with some criticism. "We did a lot of stupid things," he said, "but we got the breaks when we needed them. On some crucial plays they (Fort Bragg) got penalties and that's what helped us. A club like ours, young, inexperienced and small, can't make as many mistakes as we did today and win consistently. We'll have to improve."

Lim, a San Francisco State graduate who celebrated his 32nd birthday Friday, also had heaps of praise for some of his boys, mainly Schultze, Drusike, guard Stan Pareto, halfback Jerry Daniele, linebacker Dave Roscoe and fullbacks Jack Edwards and Ray Miller.

Terra Linda had a 610 lead going into the fourth period but Fort Bragg struck for a 7-6 advantage on a 47-yard TD run by halfback Don Dunsing.

ON-SIDE KICK

On the ensuing kickoff, with just minutes remaining, Fort Bragg, curiously, tried an on-side kick, but Terra Linda tackle Al Ruoff recovered on his own 48.

TD NULLIFIED

Terra Linda had another score nullified by a penalty. Lineman Mike Finnerty blocked a Bragg pass and tackle Ruoff snagged it and raced 63 yards to paydirt. However, a Trojan was detected clipping on the play and the score was erased.

In defeat Fort Bragg dominated the game, getting off 44 plays to Terra Linda's 32 and outgaining the Trojans 307 yards to 187. Daniele and Miller accounted for about 75 per cent of the Trojan yardage.

Limm, in trying to develop depth and experience, used 25 of his 27 players in a two-platoon system. The heat also necessitated frequent substitution.

Sparrow Hero For Pacific

STOCKTON (AP) — Substitute quarterback Jack Sparrow of Novato will see lots of action this season if he can repeat the performance he turned in at the University of the Pacific-Brigham Young University season opener.

The 6-foot-4-inch senior second-stringer tossed two touchdown passes and then pressed over for a third. He completed 8 of 11 passes for 120 yards, including 4 of 5 in a second period 92-yard scoring drive.

Sparrow took immediate command against the BYU eleven. He passed four yards to end Mike Smith for the initial score. At half-time, he had maneuvered his team down to the one-foot mark.

In the final period he tossed 20 yards to Aaron Youngblood, capping a 90-yard drive with another touchdown.

Riordan Shades Redwood

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Redwood High School Giants will be getting their offense ready for Montgomery of Santa Rosa Saturday after their 14-7 loss to the tough gridders of Riordan High of San Francisco last Saturday night.

The Giants couldn't seem to get their offense moving enough against the Crusaders, who scored their winning touchdown in the last seven seconds of the hard-fought game at College of Marin Stadium.

Riordan was the first to score in the second period when fullback Tim Norman plowed through right tackle for four yards and a touchdown. The TD came on a fourth down play after Redwood seemed as if it would dig in and hold back the score. Tackle Mike Cregan kicked the extra point to make the scoreboard read 7-0.

Giant quarterback Jim Troppman showed his throwing arm which led to the only Redwood TD in the fourth quarter. After receiving the Riordan punt on the San Franciscans' 47-yard line, the Giants put together a touchdown drive of 12 plays. During the drive, Troppman tried eight passes, completing four of them, the last one for the touchdown.

REDWOOD SCORES

The pass good for the lone six-pointer was to end Jim Carroll from the six-yard line. Halfback Dave Auerbach brought the crowd to its feet following the touchdown when he skirted right end for the extra point, knotting the score at 7-7.

Riordan kept its ball control alive and started hammering at the Redwood defense. Then on fourth down from the Redwood four-yard line, the San Franciscans lined up in field goal formation. Everyone had his eyes on the clock which showed only seven seconds remaining in the ball game.

Then the big surprise came. Cregan, a burly tackle who had been doing the Riordan kicking, took the snap back from center and made a sweep around right end. Showing the speed of a back, Cregan pushed into the end zone with Redwood defensive end Doug Houston riding on his back. Cregan then kicked the PAT.

DESPERATE PASS

Auerback got the Riordan kick off and brought the ball back up the field for a short gain as the game seemed to come to a close. However, officials called back the Riordan footballers as they were starting to leave the field, for one more play. Redwood couldn't score the big one as Troppman tried a 50-yard pass down the sidelines on the last play of the game. It was incomplete.

"They showed some spark," head coach Bob Troppman said of his chargers at the close of the game. "We will do a good job this year. No one likes to lose, but I think we did a pretty good job."

CALIFORNIA CANDIDATES

And he promised the state would operate on a firmly balanced budget "again next year with no new taxes."

In a speech prepared for delivery at a luncheon, the governor credited California's educational system for drawing "40 per cent of the space contracts in the country" to the state.

"And we will continue to lead the way just so long as we offer fine schools in a climate and physical setting no other state can match," Brown said.

"If we are to keep pace with the growth of California, we must double the capacity of our lecture halls and laboratories in just eight years."

The governor said the master plan approved in 1959 "will guarantee that new colleges are built where students need them and not where communities have influence with the government."

"Under this plan," he said, "we have started six new state colleges, three new campuses for the University of California and a new medical school.

"They form the foundation on which the space age has chosen to build in California."

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The activity tapered off slightly today in the California election campaign, following a day enlivened by an exchange between Republican gubernatorial candidate Richard M. Nixon and Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

Nixon, who took part in a parade and fiesta honoring Mexican independence day yesterday in Los Angeles, had a respite from the campaign today but will be back in action tomorrow with speeches and person-to-person campaigning in Southern California.

Nixon said that a visit by Agriculture Secretary Freeman to the state was "purely political" and added that he might have brought "his friend, Billie Sol Estes."

Freeman, who spoke at a Democratic rally in Woodland yesterday, lashed back at the GOP candidate with the statement that "these are the same kind of dishonest and totally irresponsible statements, without basis in fact, that Mr. Nixon is noted for."

Miller Avenue Parking Lack Complaints Told

Complaints that there is not enough street parking on Mill Valley's Miller Avenue between Reed Street and Camino Alto are to be heard at a meeting of the city council Wednesday.

The Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce has received complaints, according to Granville L. Beedle, secretary-manager, that parking has been much reduced since improvements of Miller eliminating center strip parking. Complaints are from Roy A. Ibach, representing the American Legion; Donald Geddes of 467 Miller Avenue, and Nathan Erb of 475 Miller Avenue.

Ibach told the chamber's board of directors that there is but one parking place during the day in front of the legion hall at 476 Miller Avenue. He said there are sometimes up to 100 cars to be parked.

Vacant House Robbed In Kent Woodlands

An old rifle, a shotgun and several rare books were reported stolen Friday from a vacant house at 141 Woodland Road in Kent Woodlands.

Aline Lois Hewson of 12 Laurel Avenue, Kentfield, owner of the house, told sheriff's deputies items were taken from a storeroom. A dining-room window had been broken, she said. The books were published in London in 1883 and had gold-embossed covers, but Mrs. Hewson said she did not remember the titles.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials of normal regularity

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs frequently cramp and gripe. Of all leading laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID's unique rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

By CORENA GREEN

"Se Habla Espanol" is a sign that soon may be hanging on the doors of seven kindergarten rooms and seven first grade rooms in the Reed Union School District on the Tiburon Peninsula.

The reason is the inception of a foreign language program starting with the smallest pupils and supervised by an exceptionally charming and able native of San Jose de Costa Rica. She is Miss Flora Flores, Reed District foreign language teacher specialist.

MISS FLORES comes from a family of educators. Her mother, who is now retired, was supervisor of elementary schools in Costa Rica and her sister is now teaching there. With good reason she boasts of the 85 percent literacy in Costa Rica.

"Even the littlest towns have a teacher," she explains. "There is a saying about my country. 'There are more teachers than soldiers.' We never have political crises. We have had only two revolutions, both of which were bloodless."

One of Miss Flores' distinctions is that she has two bachelor of arts degrees, one from the University of Costa Rica in 1931, the second from the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College in 1947. Not content with this she went on to get two masters degrees, one from Emporia State Teachers College in English literature and the second from the University of Kansas in Spanish. She received both in 1950.

WHEN SHE FIRST entered college in this country she did not speak English and recalls with humor her attempts at freshman English. Composition was her main problem. She wrote her themes in Spanish, translating them word by word from a Spanish-English dictionary. She says her teacher kept saying to her "We'll talk about your composition later."

Her greatest accomplishment that year was reading Beowulf in Anglo Saxon. First she translated it into Spanish, then into English.

Miss Flores has taught for more than 20 years in both Costa Rica and the United States. She has taught all subjects at the elementary grade level.

RECENTLY SHE has been television instructor in Spanish at the third and fourth grade levels in Kansas City, Mo. public schools where for two years 8,500 school children were in her audience plus 18,500 housewives in their homes.

During the past year she has directed the elementary Spanish instruction program in the suburban community of Prairie Village, Kansas. She has been a part-time instructor of Spanish for the University of Kansas and during the past summer was Assistant Director of the National Defense Education Act Spanish Language Institute held at the University of Kansas.

THIS IS THE FIRST TIME she has taught at the kindergarten level but she feels the children will make great progress because they will learn the sounds very easily. She does not speak any English to her pupils. She speaks Spanish, they listen and then they speak. Already they have learned the basic instructions, she reports.

Miss Flores teaches 10 minutes three times a week in the kindergarten and 15 minutes twice a week in the first grade. During the coming year the classroom teachers will observe and be trained in the techniques so they can carry on next year. Miss Flores will then move on to second and third grades in 1963 and fourth and fifth in 1964.

MEANWHILE AT the junior high level Miss Sylvia Vela, who has been teaching Spanish, will contiune with her upper grade classes. These will be expanded to the eighth grade so by 1965 Spanish will be taught in all grades.

Before long the district hopes to add another language, which one as yet undetermined. So eventually the classroom doors may frame other signs such as "Ici on parle Francais" or "Hier wird Deutsche gesprochen."

ROLLING THEIR 'Rs' over Tiburon way, youngsters in the Reed School District are learning Spanish from a native Costa Rican, Miss Flora Flores, who here coaches Robin Brown, left, on her pronunciation, while Randy Kuwatani and Glendine Porter listen. Seven kindergarten and seven first grade rooms are learning the Spanish language this year from Miss Flores, who has taught the language on television as well as in the classroom. # Knowing Little Trick Helps When Stitching A Bias Sash

By EUNICE FARMER

"Would you please tell me how to press a sash which has been cut on the bias? It is double and about 3 inches wide. I simply can't get it to press flat."—Mrs. R.A.

Dear Mrs. R.A.:

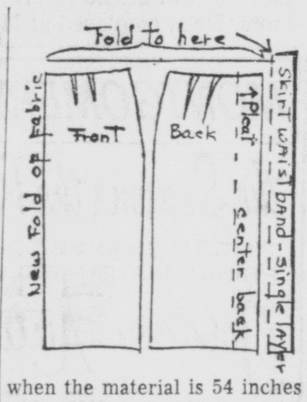
There is a little trick to stitching a bias sash and if you use it, you won't have as much trouble pressing it. As you machine stitch the seam, stretch the bias edge slightly. This will give you the amount of elasticity you need for the bias edge and will prevent the seamline from drawing up.

"I just wanted you to know that this is the first letter I have ever written a newspaper, but I think your column is the answer to all of us who sew. Almost every week I pick up a valuable hint which I use.

"Several of us have been discussing the amount of material needed for a slim line skirt



when the material is 54 inches wide. Different patterns seem to use different yardage, often there is so much left over."—Mrs. D.G.D.

Dear Mrs. D.G.D.:

If you are using 54 inch fabric, you can cut a straight skirt with only one yard of fabric depending on the type of skirt and your own measurements.

If you wish a pleat in the skirt, you can't be larger than 40 inches in the hips. This will take care of the waistband on the selvage, your seam allowances, 2 inch pleat, and 3 inches for ease. If your hip measurement is larger than 40 inches, you will need 2 lengths of fabric.

If you don't care for a pleat at the center back, your hip measurement can be 42 inches and still be cut from one length of fabric. This will also allow for a center back seam, which can be left open at the hemline for a small slit which would give you some walking ease. You will still have enough fabric for the ease necessary, your waistband and the seam allowances. Carefully follow the illustration for re-folding your fabric and cutting.

"When a pattern calls for skirt stiffening for the "A" line skirt, how can we know what to use? I just finished a cotton skirt and the stiffening I used made the skirt too heavy and stiff."—Mrs. A.B.

Dear Mrs. A.B.:

The type of stiffening you will use depends upon the pattern, your figure, and the type of fabric you are using. Usually, a woven-type interfacing will do a fine job of stiffening the skirt. This is usually applied to the fabric and the two layers are treated as one. A separate petticoat of stiffening is also recommended.

A Kiddie Special — Make stars, hearts, shamrocks, leaves, flowers or most anything you can dream up from small scraps of bright felt. Cut a small slit in the center to fit the buttons on a blouse or plain dress. Simply slip these over the buttons after the garment has been buttoned. Presto! You have an individual, personalized touch your children will love. They make delightful gifts. This idea won for Mrs. S. Enea, Afton, Mo., a tailor trix pressing board.

Your Sewing Glossary: Pile —for corduroy, velvet, and velveteen. Your corduroys and velvets have a pile rather than a nap and it is most important that all pieces be cut in the same direction. The colors will appear deeper and richer if cut against the pile and the material will not get as shiny and flat when you sit on it. To check the direction of the pile, it should appear smooth as you stroke it UP.

Please send me your questions that will apply to your fall and winter sewing. They will be answered in the column as soon as possible. Send all questions to Sew Simple, in care of the Independent-Journal Women's Dept.

Four Month Old Twins Mean Mother Is Constantly Tired

"I'm so tired I could die," a mother writes. "I have twin daughters, four months old. I used to be a secretary. I thought I got tired then. But now! I never have enough sleep. I can't keep up with the work. The house looks awful. I'm terribly discouraged. Is there any way to resign from motherhood? How can I live through this?"

There is no way to resign from motherhood. Taking good care of a single baby is enough to wear a woman out. Taking care of twins is twice as hard. Here are some suggestions which may help you to survive:

Get your husband to help with the baby care and the housework. Have your pediatrician talk with him about it.

Try not to worry about the house being a mess. You can work yourself into a breakdown, and still not catch up. Get used to disorder.

Arrange for neighbors or relatives to take care of the babies at least one afternoon a week. Then join a group of other mothers, away from responsibility. The YWCA has such groups. Many women's clubs do too, and some churches. You need companionship and a change of scenery.

Vary your work. Alternate heavy work with light work. Do everything the easiest way possible.

Take a few minutes off several times a day to stretch out. Even a three-minute nap can refresh you.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "My three-year-old son went into a neighborhood garage, and didn't answer when I called. I was frightened. When I found him I spanked him. Now I feel guilty. I love him, so how could I have hurt him?"

MRS. F.X.O.

(A) A reasonably sharp spanking will teach your son important lessons. Don't feel guilty. Probably the punishment was the best thing you could have done.

Pack With Plastic

NEW YORK (UPI) — Plastic bags help make packing, and unpacking, easier. Travel experts advise that lingerie, jewelry and cosmetics can be put in the plastics, arranged to form a relatively flat surface and placed on the bottom of a suitcase. Belts can be placed along one of the edges. Clothes then can be put in the case in layers. The layer system makes it possbile to lift out the clothes until you get to the article you need.

Opening lead — ♣ K

West starts the clubs, and you win the third trick with the queen. You lay down the ace of spades, discovering the bad news.

GET TO DUMMY

You get to dummy with the ace of diamonds and return the nine of spades. East covers with the ten, and you win a finesse with the jack of spades.

Now your problem is to get to dummy for another trump finesse.

Leading your singleton heart at this moment is a feeble play. West will step up with the ace of hearts and return a diamond. That will be the end of you.

SAVE SINGLETON

Save your singleton heart and cash the king and queen of diamonds first. If East happens to have four or more diamonds, you need no help. You will ruff your fourth diamond and return a trump through East.

But the diamonds break 3-3, and you cannot ruff a diamond without allowing East to overruff.

You cannot get to dummy by yourself, but you can grind West into the dust. Lead your singleton heart and force West to do your work for you.

MUST TAKE ACE

West must take the ace of hearts and must return a heart. And there you are, ready for the vital trump finesse through East. Even if West had held the last club, a club return would not have helped him; you would ruff in dummy.

1963 FAIRLANE STATION WAGON

The Squire, top-of-the-line wagon in Ford's Fairlane series, combines simulated wood paneling with luxury interior. Three new station wagons and two new hardtops are featured in Ford's middle-weight series for 1963. Cars will be displayed at Marin Ford dealers' showrooms Sept. 28.

9 More Foreign Cities U. S. Targets

MOUNTAIN HOME, Idaho (UPI)—Nine more cities in a far-off land are on target.

Their destroyers — if war came—are nine sleek nuclear-tipped Titan I missiles now buried beneath the dry sagebrush of the Snake River plain near here.

Simple ceremonies were held this summer when Idaho's first three-missile complex was turned over to the Strategic Air Command (SAC) on a war-ready basis.

Now two more complexes have been activated — adding mighty muscle to the nation's deterrent strength.

Before the year is out 54 Titan I missiles are scheduled to be ready. During 1963 squadrons of the newer Titan II's are slated for activation.

Each missile is designed to hurtle a nuclear warhead at speeds of more than 17,000 miles an hour over distances up to 6,300 miles. Each missile is keyed for a specific target.

Each is housed in an underground silo, built to withstand all but a direct hit by an atomic weapon.

Specially trained SAC aerospace crews man the underground launching complexes around the clock, ready to fire the monsters of destruction at a moment's notice if an enemy should attack.

"God, give us character and wisdom in the use of these weapons," he prayed.

A gusty, biting-cold wind seemed to hush for a moment as the plea tumbled from the chaplain's lips, and each word carried with startling clarity to the group of 60 Air Force officers, civic dignitaries and newsmen gathered for the event.

The sky was cloudless, and the sun shone brightly.

But 50 feet underground the weather went unnoticed. The fans replaced the howl of the wind.

The security-conscious controllers seemed uncomfortable in the presence of outsiders.

Three buttons marked "Launch" captured visitors' eyes.

"Will these missiles go farther than 6,300 miles?" someone asked.

"They don't have to," a SAC officer answered.

"When do you pick the target?"

"It's already been picked, these missiles are already keyed," the officer answered.

"Can you change your mind and destroy the missile after it has been launched?"

"No," the officer replied.

The three Idaho missile complexes are located at Orchard, Grandview and Bruneau. Six complexes surround Denver, Colo., and other three-complex installations are at Moses Lake, Wash., Marysville, Calif., and Rapid City, S.D.

All are war-ready or scheduled to be before the end of the year.

The Air Force says the nation's Intercontinental Ballistics Missile (ICBM) strength will triple this year, then triple again next year.

In the words of Maj. Gen. Thomas P. Gerrity, commander of the Air Force Ballistics Systems Division, "this is the payoff year for the ICBM program."

Sen. Len B. Jordan (R-Idaho), who witnessed the Idaho activation ceremonies, said, "we will all sleep a little better now.

"God grant they are never used, but the enemy understands only the language of the sword."

He seemed unconcerned that his kitchen was but a few hundred feet from three nuclear warheads.

Supervisors Facing Long Agenda Tomorrow

Marin County supervisors took a vacation last week, so they will face a long agenda when they convene at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow in the courthouse.

Listed on the correspondence agenda are 23 communications ranging from such subjects as a plan for civic center parking prepared by Administrator Alan Bruce to a letter from the Marin Rod nad Gun Club on recreational facilities on Corte Madera Creek.

The afternoon session starting at 1:30 p.m. opens with 11 Department of Public Works matters, mostly routine save for an aerial map of the civic center. Planning matters starting at 2 p.m. number only five items.

Rates paid to child care institutions will also be taken up after 2 p.m. with the proposed vessel mooring ordinance scheduled for 3 and several assessment districts slated for 4 p.m. consideration.

2 Students Honored

Two 1958 graduates of Marin Catholic High School, Greenbrae, have achieved academic distinction at University of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Deanna Denman Spooner graduated with highest honors, and James Edward Gorman graduated with great honors. Both lived in San Rafael while attending Marin Catholic.

Tonight Is Monday Shopping Night Again In San Rafael

Tonight is Monday Shopping Night again in San Rafael.

It started last week with a fair degree of success, considering it was the first time—and on a holiday.

About 25 downtown stores will remain open to 9 p.m. A few of these have been observing Monday night hours in the past but it is hoped the additional buying opportunities will bring out more customers.

DEAL ON THE PURCHASE of ghost town Contact, Nev., by Contact Magazine was instigated by Marin realtor Dunya Chernenko who had the listing and thought to broach the subject to publisher William H. Ryan. There's now a 60-day option on the townsite which is subdivided into 297 lots.

NORTHWESTERN SAVINGS and Loan Association with offices in San Rafael and Mill Valley is listed among 30 top Bay Area firms (exclusive of San Francisco) having assets in excess of 10 million dollars at the end of 1961. Northwestern's assets amounted to 32.5 million dollars.

CIVIC CENTER MOVE—County Administrator Alan Bruce told representatives of seven local moving companies last week there is no possibility of varying from the county purchasing ordinance which calls for the best possible price for the benefit of all taxpayers when securing bids.

Some of the movers had sought to explore chances of having the move divided into smaller parcels by department so the work can be performed with local labor and equipment.

Bruce and assistant county purchasing agent John F. Hettrich pointed out there was no objection to several movers joining together in a single bid for the entire move or for Group A which includes most of the offices affected.

All bids are required to be in tomorrow.

KEN MCKENZIE'S Children's Bootery in San Rafael was the subject of an article in Footwear News on Aug. 18. The San Rafael store has been open about seven years. McKenzie opened a Santa Rosa store 18 months ago.

MANAGER Ernest S. Border and staff of Budget Finance Plan in San Rafael have been notified their office placed sixth in a nationwide contest among the firm's coast to coast offices. Cash prizes were received by all.

THE EMPORIUM opened its Hillsdale store in San Mateo County last Wednesday with appropriate fanfare and ribbon cutting.

Since it is approximately the same size of the Emporium projected for Terra Linda it's reasonable to assume there will be other strong resemblances. Hillsdale was first announced in Oct. 1960; groundbreaking took place in April, 1961—just a little short of two years from signing to opening.

Library's Books Worth $121,830

Mill Valley Library trustees Thursday night approved an evaluation of the library's books and records to allow renewal of the insurance policy.

The collection of 42,000 books is valued at $121,830, and the 1,350 phonograph records at $6,839. Only 33,700 of the books will be insured, librarian Dorothy Thomas said, since 9,000 volumes are in circulation at any one time and cannot be insured.

The three-year policy is expected to cost about $730. The insuring firm has not been selected, Mrs. Thomas said.

The board approved a trip by Mrs. Thomas to the annual convention of the California Library Assn., Oct. 23-26 in San Diego.

Hub City Woman Overturns Car

A 64-year-old San Anselmo woman, trying to rid her car of a moth, drove off Redhill Avenue in San Anselmo and overturned her car in a ditch at 7:08 p.m. Friday, injuring herself and passenger.

Olga T. Gietz, 64, of 105 San Francisco Boulevard, the driver, was in good condition today in Marin General Hospital with a cut arm and broken elbow. Her passenger, Helen G. Frye, 56, of 71 Lincoln Avenue, San Anselmo, was also in good condition with a fractured pelvis.

San Anselmo police said Mrs. Gietz was driving east on Redhill Avenue, near Ancho Vista Avenue, when she noticed a moth fluttering inside the car. As she tried to shoo it out of a window, she lost control of the car.
